前言

培养人文素质 成就国际通才

若想精通一门语言，没有对其文化背景的深入了解恐怕永远难登大雅之堂。在全球化日益成为国际主流的今天，英语作为西方文化头牌语言的重要性已日益凸显——今日世界，恐怕在地球上的任何角落人们都可以用英语问路、用英语聊天、用英语购物、用英语交友、用英语在跨文化间作深度交流。

正如许多西方人热切地想了解中国文化一样，中国的英语学习及爱好者对西方文化及人文的了解也处于热切的需求当中。是的，如果对西方的历史、文学、艺术、宗教、哲学没有一个最基本的了解，就连看好莱坞大片都会成为一个问题；而西方文化贡献给社会的普世价值恰恰是它深厚的人文传统及“民主、自由、博爱”等现代理念，不了解这些，则与任何稍有层次和品位的西方人的交流都将难以顺畅。

此外，国内的英语学习者如再停留在日常生活的English In General 的层次上，必将难以适应深度沟通和交流的需要，因此，对专业英语及文化背景的深入了解和学习将是提升英语能力的必由之路。有鉴于此，本套丛书为读者奉上原汁原味的人文阅读精华，其或选自原典正文、或选自专业教材、或选自网络热贴，由精研此业者掇菁撷华，辑录成册，希望能帮助读者在学习英语的同时又能品位西方文化的独特魅力。在辑录过程中，我们力求摒弃学校教育的僵硬和枯燥，代之以更加生动、更加全面的通识阅读范本。我们写历史，致力于拨开其厚重压抑而倾向于读者感兴趣的文化、建筑、艺术、风俗等人文知识；我们写文学，力求抛开一般文学史纲目划分的束缚而代之以切合各国风情又适合读者阅读的脉络。

文化共语言同飞，思想与阅读共舞。让我们的目光穿越时光、穿越语言，在原汁原味的英语阅读中品位人类文明共有的人文素质、人文素养、人文情怀、人文理念……并在此过程中成就自己的文化修养及完美人生。

美国，一个文化多元、民族多元的国家；国土面积超过962万平方公里，位居全球第三或第四；人口总量超过三亿人，居世界第三。其在经济、政治、科技、军事、娱乐等诸多领域的巨大影响力均领衔全球，是目前世界上唯一的超级大国。

1. Origin of Uncle Sam 山姆大叔的由来

According to legend, in Troy City of New York, there is a person named Samuel Wilson. He is the owner of meat processing plant factory. He is diligent, honest, optimistic, respected by the people, people affectionately call him "Uncle Sam".

山姆大叔

In 1812, American War of Independence began, and the plant of Uncle Sam received a contract for the U.S. Army of production of barrels of beef. Each time the U.S. government received the test beef, they will put the meat into a special bucket, and stamped on the barrel "US" of the mark. As "Uncle Sam" is the first letter of the words "US", the abbreviation U.S. is "US", so people put the two names into one, which means that beef passing from the hands of "Uncle Sam" will become "American" property. Since then "Uncle Sam" has been nicknamed as the United States, and gradually widespread up.

In 1830s, American cartoonist gave the historical legend "Uncle Sam" a specific image, so there is an old man sporting a goatee and thin caricature. He wore a tall hat decorated with star emblem, wearing a red, white and blue tuxedo and striped trousers (National Flag of the US). The tall, smiling old man, everybody like him in United States.

1812年美国独立战争开始后，山姆大叔的工厂签了一份专为美国军队生产桶装牛肉的合同。美国政府每次收到他送来的检验合格的牛肉，就将它装入特制的木桶，并在木桶上盖上“US”的戳。由于“山姆大叔”两词的首字母是“US”，美国的缩写也是“US”，于是人们便把这两个名称合二为一，

意即那些经过“山姆大叔”之手的牛肉已成为“美国”的财产。从此“山姆大叔”便被当作美国的绰号，并渐渐广为流传。

1830年，美国漫画家根据历史传说赋予“山姆大叔”以具体形象，于是一个蓄着山羊胡子的高瘦老头的漫画形象出现了。他头戴饰有星徽的高帽子，身穿红、白、蓝三色的燕尾服及条纹长裤（美国星条旗图案）。他身材高大、笑容可掬，深受美国人民的喜爱。

2. Liberty Guides You—The Statue of Liberty 自由引导大家——自由女神像

Statue of Liberty as a symbol of the United States, located in the United States west of New York City, Manhattan, a small island - free on the island, holding her torch in New York, Hong Kong stands at the entrance, at the city observe day and night, since the late 19th century ushered in since the to the millions of immigrants to settle in the United States. In 1984, it was inscribed on the World Heritage List.

The Statue of Liberty arrived in New York Harbor on June 19, 1885, as a gift of friendship from the people of France to the people of the United States. The Statue of Liberty means Enlightening the World, it has come to symbolize freedom and democracy nationwide.

In order to transport the statue to America, the figure was disassembled into 350 pieces and packed in 214 crates. Four months later, it was reassembled on Bedloe's Island (renamed Liberty Island in 1956). On October 28, 1886, President Grover Cleveland dedicated the Statue of Liberty before thousands of spectators. But millions more would meet "Lady Liberty" in a different way of steel supports.

Statue of Liberty high 46 meters, with a total base of about 100 meters high, is the time to commemorate the world's highest building, its wholly-called "Statue of Liberty Bronze as national monuments, "officially known as" the Statue of Liberty illuminate the world ", the entire statue to 120 tons of steel for the frames, 80 tons of copper for the skin to 300,000 Liu nail fixed in the stent assembly, with a total weight 225 tons, the statue inside the steel stent is Victoria Lei Bo Duke by the architect and the construction industry worldfamous Eiffel Tower in Paris France Eiffel design engineers produced.

The nearby Ellis Island Immigration Station, a major reception point for immigrants entering the United States, opened in 1892. Before the station closed in 1943, the Statue of Liberty welcomed more than 12 million immigrants to America. On its pedestal, words by poet Emma Lazarus reflect the hope for freedom and opportunity shared by the millions who see Miss Liberty after a long ocean journey.

自由女神像被誉为美国象征，它位于美国纽约市曼哈顿以西的一个小岛——自由岛上，她手持火炬，矗立在纽约港入口处，日夜守望着这座大都会，迎来了自19世纪末以来到美国定居的百万移民。1984年，它被列入世界遗产名录。

自由女神像在1885年6月19日到达纽约港，是法国人民送给美国表示友谊的礼物。自由女神像原名是：自由光耀寰宇。它是全国自由与民主的象征。

自由女神像附近的艾力司岛移民站是各国移民进入美国的主要入口点，在1892年正式开始运作。在这个移民站于1943年停止运作之前，自由女神像已经欢迎了超过一千二百万位移民进入美国。在自由女神像的基座上刻着诗人伊玛·拉扎罗斯的一句诗文，反映出经过漫长海上旅程才能看到自由小姐的移民，他们心中对自由与机会的希望。

3. The White House “白房子”——白宫

- Here is the White House 这里是白宫

The White House has not been white, and not called the White House, but was called "President Building" or "President's Palace." It was a gray sandstone building founded in 1792. From 1800, it was the U.S. president's office and place for family to live. But in 1812, in the second British war, British troops invaded Washington. On August 24, 1814 the British burned the building, leaving only a pair of basket case. In 1817, in order to cover up the fire, President Monroe ordered to cover up the gray paint with a layer of white sand paint. Since then the presidential palace has been called "the White House." In 1902 U.S. President Theodore Roosevelt officially named it the "White House", and it became synonymous with the U.S. government. Interestingly, the first president living in the White House is not the first president Washington, but the second President John Adams. The White House is always full of mystery. According to the principle White House's spending taken charge by all taxpayers, part of the White House opens to the citizens of the world within the stipulated time, and therefore the spots become hot tourist.

白宫从前并不是白色的，也不称白宫，而被称作“总统大厦”、“总统之宫”。1792年始建时是一栋灰色的沙石建筑。从1800年起，它成为美国总统在任期内办公与其家人居住的地方。但是在1812年发生的第二次美英战争中，英国军队入侵华盛顿。1814年8月24日，英军焚毁了这座建筑物，只留下了一付空架子。1817年，为了掩饰火烧过的痕迹，门罗总统下令在灰色沙石上漆上了一层白色的油漆。此后这栋总统官邸一直被称为“白宫”。1902年美国总统西奥多·罗斯福正式把它命名为“白宫”，后成为美国政府的代名词。有趣的是，第一位入住白宫的总统并不是第一任总统华盛顿，而是第二任总统约翰·亚当斯。对人们来说白宫总是充满了神秘感。根据白宫支出由全体纳税人担负的原则，白宫的一部分在规定时间内向全世界公民开放，因此成了游人观光的热点。

● Remarks by President Hu of the People's Republic of China at Official Welcoming Ceremony 胡锦涛主席在欢迎仪式上的致辞（节选）

Our cooperation as partners should be based on mutual respect. We live in an increasingly diverse and colorful world. China and the United States should respect each other's choice of development path and each other's core interests. We should deepen mutual understanding through communication, increase mutual trust through dialogue, and expand common ground through exchanges.

Our cooperation as partners should be based on mutual benefit. China's future and destiny are increasingly tied to those of the world and China-U.S. relations have become closer. Our two countries should seek to learn from each other through exchanges and achieve win-win progress through cooperation. This is the right approach for us to develop our relations.

Our cooperation as partners should be based on joint efforts to meet challenges. China and the United States should step up communication and coordination in international affairs, work together to counter the global challenges, and make a greater contribution to world peace and development.

Our cooperation as partners should be based on the extensive involvement of the people. The Chinese and American people cherish deep friendship towards each other, and they fought side by side at defining moments in history when the future and the destiny of mankind were at stake. The two peoples should extend exchanges and enhance friendship. This will offer an inexhaustible driving force for the growth of our relations.

中美伙伴合作应该基于相互尊重。我们生活在一个越来越丰富多彩的世界之中，中美两国要尊重彼此对发展道路的选择，尊重对方核心利益，通过沟通加深了解，通过对话增进互信，通过交流扩大共识。

中美伙伴合作应该基于互利共赢。中国的前途命运日益紧密地同世界的前途命运联系在一起，中美交往更加紧密，交流互鉴应该成为我们的共同选择，合作共赢应该成为我们的相处之道。

中美伙伴合作应该基于共迎挑战。中美两国应该就国际事务加强沟通和协调，合作应对各种全球性挑战，为世界和平与发展作出更大贡献。

中美伙伴合作应该基于人民广泛参与。中美两国人民相互怀有深厚的友好感情，曾经在决定人类前途命运的重大历史关头并肩战斗。两国人民应该扩大交往、加强友谊，为中美关系发展提供不竭动力。

4. The Melting Pot of Culture 文化大熔炉

● United States is a "Melting Pot" 美国是个“大熔炉”

American culture derived in British colonial period. Generally speaking, the most significant impact on American culture comes from northern Europe, especially Germany, England and Ireland, and later Italy, Greece, and Central Europe, Jewish. The original African-Americans as slaves from West Africa saved some of their culture and brought them to U.S.. So, U.S. Geographic Names often reflect England, the Netherlands, France, Spain, and a comprehensive history of Native American ingredients and so on.

A descriptive model of American culture is the "melting pot": the cultural contribution of immigrants to bring their own integration into American culture, and ultimately format a unified American culture. Apple pie, baseball, and the American flag are the symbols of American culture. Before the 20th century, the American culture first imitated Europe (especially UK) and gradually developed into its own characteristics. With the highly development of U.S. economy, military and had a major impact political strength after World War II, its culture around the world, especially in Europe. Today, American pop music is everywhere, films and televisions produced in the America is broadcasting in all of the world.

● Melting Pot of Culture—The Traditional American Taboo 文化大熔炉——美国人的传统禁忌

Age. Age is a very sensitive issue for many Americans' especially for women over age 30. In this youth upheld culture, the thought of growing older is always very painful. If possible, most of us would like to have nothing to do with it. So many Americans try their best to maintain a youthful appearance. The last thing they don't want to be asked is, "How old are you exactly?"

Weight. This is one of the touchiest subjects too. In America, looks thin is good, even enviable, but it is a sin and a huge embarrassment to be overweight. In fact, the thinner you are, the prettier you are considered. Looking any American fashion magazines, you'll notice that most models are nothing more than skin and bones. Believe it or not, the tall and thin look was the hottest look. Americans very concern about their weight and rarely disclose how much they weigh..... even if they are thin and in great shape. Therefore, you'd better not ask about it. But if you absolutely have to comment on this subject, it's always more safe to say "Oh, you look like you have lost weight" than "Oh, you look like you put on a few pounds". However, if you would like to be honest but not hurtful, you must choose your words carefully, perhaps it can be said, "Hey, you look great. Very healthy looking. " And always remember, it's not fat but muscular.

Income. You should never ask how much someone's salary is. There's no way around this one. However, it's perfectly suitable to ask about their job title and what they do for a living. This information should give you some idea how much they earn a year.

Matters of the Heart. This is a tricky one. Sometimes you'll run into people who cannot wait to pour their hearts out to you. Then some people do not always ensure that their private affairs known to outsiders. The general rule is not to get too personal, too fast. You don't want others to think that you are looking into their lives. Therefore, try not to ask too many questions about someone's love life, marriage and family until you have a friendship with this person. Even then, you better wait for your friend to come to you with the matters of their heart.

Anyhow, it's difficult to always avoid conversation landmines ,so you must be sensible, watch your steps and avoid sensitive taboos.

体重。这也是最敏感的话题之一。在美国，长得瘦是不错，甚至会让人羡慕，但超重就让人极为难堪，是种罪过。实际上，你越瘦，别人会认为你越漂亮。随便翻翻美国任意一本时尚杂志，你会发现大多数模特都是皮包骨头。不管你信不信，细高的身材可是最酷的。美国人很关注体重，且极少透露他们的体重.....即使他们很瘦，身材很好。所以，你还是别问为妙。但如果你非得要讲，那就说：“噢，你看起来掉磅了”比“噢，你看起来像是重了几磅”常常要稳妥。然而，如果你想说实话但又不伤人，你要用词小心，或许可以说：“嘿，你看起来棒极了，很健康。”千万要记住，那不是脂肪，是肌肉。

收入。你绝对不要问别人挣多少钱，这本来没什么可说的。但你完全可以问他们的工作头衔或以什么为生。这个信息可以让你对他们一年挣多少有所了解。

心里的事。这是个很微妙的问题。有时你会碰到迫不及待向你倾诉心声的人。但有些人时刻确保自

己的私事不为外人知晓。总的原则是，不要太急于跟人谈个人私事。不要让人认为你在刺探他们的生活。所以，不要对别人的爱情、婚姻和家庭情况提太多问题，直到你跟此人结成了朋友。即便那时，你最好还是等着你的朋友带着心事来找你谈。

不管怎样，在谈话中往往难免触雷，所以头脑要清醒些，行事要注意些，尽量不要触及那些忌讳的话题。

5. The Other Side of the Angels—American Dream 彼岸的天使——美国梦

● The Definition of the American Dream 美国梦的定义

The so-called American dream is a belief that in the United States people will be able to achieve the ideal of a better life after a hard struggle, meaning that people have to work through their own hard work, courage, creativity and determination to move towards prosperity, rather than rely on specific social classes and other assistance. This is usually on behalf of the people in the economic success or entrepreneurial spirit. Many European immigrants hold the American dream of the ideal of the United States. Despite some criticism think that the American dream has excessive emphasis on material wealth and happiness in the measure of victory on the role, but many Americans really believe that, the chance of success in the world is not found in other countries. As the majority of other countries are different, in the United States people has considerable economic freedom, and the role of government is limited, this makes the United States a great social mobility, a person may have through their own efforts towards the peak. From the independence of the United States until the end of nineteenth Century, the majority of the land is uninhabited and anyone can occupy and invest it. By the time of the Industrial Revolution, the huge natural resources and advanced industrial technology make the social mobility come into fact, and this trend is still increasing day by day.

所谓美国梦，是一种相信只要在美国经过努力不懈的奋斗便能获得更好生活的理想，亦即人们必须通过自己的勤奋、勇气、创意和决心迈向繁荣，而非依赖于特定的社会阶级和他人的援助。通常这

● The Meaning of the American Dream 美国梦的内涵

300 years ago, when England immigrants took across the Atlantic with the Mayflower to Maryland, looking for a piece of the living "pure land," "American Dream" has begun to quietly sprouting to the world — as long as you work hard, you can realize your dream. After 300 years, the country has become a land of plenty, however, the American Dream did not die, with the change of history, it has a more "connotation". What is the American Dream? "Many historians and sociologists give their ideas from different perspectives, different people have different interpretation." This is the answer when university of California at Los Angeles professors of history Ron Maller received Global magazine reporter. But generally speaking, the American Dream contains several elements: the United States provides all chances of success; success depends on his ability and effort, rather than family and background; everyone has equal rights; everyone has the freedom of belief. "These elements are inseparable from the history and background of the times, they must be read in conjunction with times." Ron Maller said.

300年前，当英格兰移民乘坐着五月花号横穿大西洋来到马里兰，寻找一块清教徒能居住的“净土”时，“美国梦”已开始悄然萌芽——美国给了全世界每一个人均等的机会，只要努力奋斗，都可以实现自己的梦想。300年后，这个国家已成富饶之邦，然而，美国梦并没有消逝，只是随着历史的变迁，它拥有了更多的“内涵”。何为美国梦？“众多历史学家和社会学家对美国梦的观点不一，不同的美国人也有不同的解读。”加州大学洛杉矶分校历史学教授朗·梅勒接受《环球》杂志记者采访时如此回答。不过一般而言，美国梦包含几个要素：美国提供了人人都能成功的机会；成功取决于自己的才能和努力，而不是家世和背景；人人都拥有平等的权利；人人都有信仰的自由。“这些

● The Original Dream of Land and Gold 土地和黄金的原始梦

In Europe of 18th century and 19th century, the aristocracy has not quit the stage of history, social hierarchy, inequitable distribution of wealth, religious discrimination seriously existed..... Montesquieu, Descartes and other pioneer of the Enlightenment, began to give endless praise to the United States .This also sparked the vulnerable groups of the American dream.

Immigrants to the United States of 18th century were vulnerable groups in Europe, the most typical were Puritan in England and the bankruptcy of farmers in German, when they came to the colonies, the requirements of political equality was particularly strong which promoted democracy. Thus, "equal rights" became the meaning of American dream.

Mailer explained, "Everyone can succeed", as in the early America there were vast land and but sparsely populated, immigrants could obtain large tracts of fertile land. The United States was still primarily an agricultural economy, so people understood that "the land meant wealth, which means success." In the late 18th century, early 19th century, people found many gold in western United States, some lucky start for the Nuggets and flourishes, this wave of "gold rush" of legend, promoted the westward tide of immigration, and also cast a deep golden color for the American dream.

However, behind such a "dream", there is a bloody history: the European immigrants large tracts of land, is gained by killing millions of Indians to obtain “No Man's Land”; high-yield farmland cultivators mostly are Africa looting slaves; west Denver are Chinese hard labor with blood and tears.

It can be said, the early American Dream, is more of a dream of European immigrants. Mailer noted that there are many people and contemporary scholars of American history, face and reflect on this history. All of this are unjust side of the "American dream".

18~19世纪的欧洲，贵族尚未退出历史舞台，社会等级森严、财富分配不公、宗教歧视严重.....孟德斯鸠、笛卡尔等启蒙运动的先驱，开始对美国这块神奇的土地赞颂不已，这也燃起了弱势群体的美国梦。

18世纪来到美国的移民都是欧洲的弱势群体，最典型的是英格兰的清教徒和德国的破产小农民，当他们来到还是殖民地的美国时，政治平等的要求就格外强烈，所以他们自发地落实了民主。于是，“平等权利”成了“美国梦”的一个内涵。

梅勒解释道，“人人都能成功”，由于早期美国土地广袤而人口稀少，移民都能获取大片肥沃的土地。当时的美国还是农业经济为主，不言而喻，“土地就意味着财富，意味着成功”。随着18世纪末、19世纪初美国西部发现多处金矿，有些幸运儿开始因掘金而一夜暴富，这波“淘金潮”的传奇，推动了移民西进的浪潮，也为美国梦抹上了浓厚的金黄色色彩。

不过，这般美梦的背后，也是一部血淋淋的历史：欧洲移民的大片土地，是屠杀了数百万印第安人而获得的“无主之地”；高产农田的耕种者，大多是从非洲劫掠来的黑奴；西进掘金的劳力，是血泪交加的华人苦工。

● The New Model of Struggle and Wisdom 奋斗加智慧的新榜样

Before and after the Civil War, the United States began industrialization. More and more European immigrants have accessed to New York, Chicago, Detroit and other emerging industrial city. Since then, the American Dream has a new meaning.

During this period, there were many business giant who started struggling. For example, Edison created General Electric Company relying on his own inventions mining oil Rockefeller; Morgan, running banks; Ford, inventing the automobile production line. Their common features were that they started humble, but finally created their own huge business through hard work, finally became a legend.

Perhaps, this "Legend" is link to some degree of element from descendent. And even so-called "Edison inventions", there are many side results. Mailer even contend, the U.S. economy has rapidly expand at that time and the U.S. has become the most powerful country in the world before the First World War, its domestic economic was operated also in the stages of change ——"disorder to order", and wealthy oligarchs appeared in various industries.

To the 21st century, the information age came, Microsoft's Bill Gates, Yahoo's Jerry Yang and the three founders of GOOGLE become the new idol of American Dream. They accumulated huge assets-billions of dollars at young by their wisdom. The living story seems to indicate that, anyone who has the wisdom and genius can succeed in the United States.

这一时期，出现了许多奋斗起家的工商业巨子。比如依靠个人发明而创立通用电气公司的爱迪生、采石油的洛克菲勒、开银行的摩根、发明汽车生产线的福特。他们的共同特点是：出身寒微、白手起家，但通过勤奋终于创立了自己庞大的事业，成为传奇人物。

到了21世纪的信息时代，微软的比尔·盖茨、雅虎的杨致远以及GOOGLE的三个创立者变成了美国

梦的新偶像。他们凭借自己的智慧，年纪轻轻就积累了数百亿美元的庞大资产。他们活生生的故事似乎表明，只要有智慧、有才能，在美国就可以成功。

● The Dream Faded and Sour 褪色和变味的梦想

What is the real driving force behind American Dream? Some historians believe that is the desire and pursuit of wealth. Connecticut State University history professor Matthew Woxiao Er said: "The pursuit of money is the component of American Dream. However, it is precisely the excessive pursuit of wealth, that makes the American Dream become sour, and gradually lost its attraction for people around the world. Woxiao Er observed the changes in society over the decades in his article Who Wants to Be a Millionaire - changing American Dream concept .

Early Americans promote "honest and hard" to get rich, but they looking for "get rich quick" today. For example, most Americans now respecte this way to get rich: they fight big business for compensation with the lawsuit, go to Las Vegas gambling or lottery, and participate in TV game show. Woxiao Er contend, this shows that the people of American society gradually lose the force of hard-working.

Early European immigrants believe the equality of political rights and religious. Today, the United States has also been evolved into a political money game. Woxiao Er contend Bush family success in political is "the success of the oil and money." In the religion field, freedom advocated by the United States only exist within the Christian denominations, but Islam, with little money to support, only stay in a highly vulnerable position in the United States.

Maybe, in changing times, the American dream attractive to the world getting smaller and smaller. U.S. hegemony in world politics and arbitrary make many foreigners that are full of resentment when refer to "United States". An anti-terrorism bill blocks a lot of chances for immigrants to enter the United States. Speculative and bubble economy make the ordinary people fear that their wealth suddenly will disappear suddenly.

如果说早期的美国人还提倡“诚实和勤奋”来致富，今天则是越来越热衷于寻求“快速致富”。比如，现在美国人最推崇的致富方式是：与大企业打赔偿官司、去拉斯维加斯赌博或买彩票以及参加有奖电视竞赛节目。沃肖尔认为，这表明了美国社会正在逐渐丧失勤奋劳动的动力。

早期来美国的欧洲移民，信奉政治权利平等和宗教平等。而今天，美国的政治也在演变成为金钱的游戏。这一点沃肖尔也不否认：布什家族在美国政治上的成功就是“石油金钱的成功”。在宗教领域，美国所提倡的自由仅限于基督教各教派内部，而少有金钱支持的伊斯兰教，在美国只能处于极度弱势的地位。

或许，在时代的变迁中，美国梦对世界的吸引力可能越来越小。美国在世界政治中的霸权地位和独

断专行，使不少外国人一提及“美国”这个词就心生反感；一个反恐法案堵住了不少移民进入美国的门路；经济的投机化、泡沫化使普通人永远害怕自己的财富突然消失。

在世界史上，美国是较为年轻的国家，而作为新大陆上的新兴国家，其产生和发展却戏剧性地起因于哥伦布的“伟大错误”，他为了寻找印度而来到美洲。之后，欧洲诸国相继在这片大陆上建立了殖民地。

1. A Great Error in Navigation—Finding the New World (1492) 航海史上的伟大错误——发现新大陆

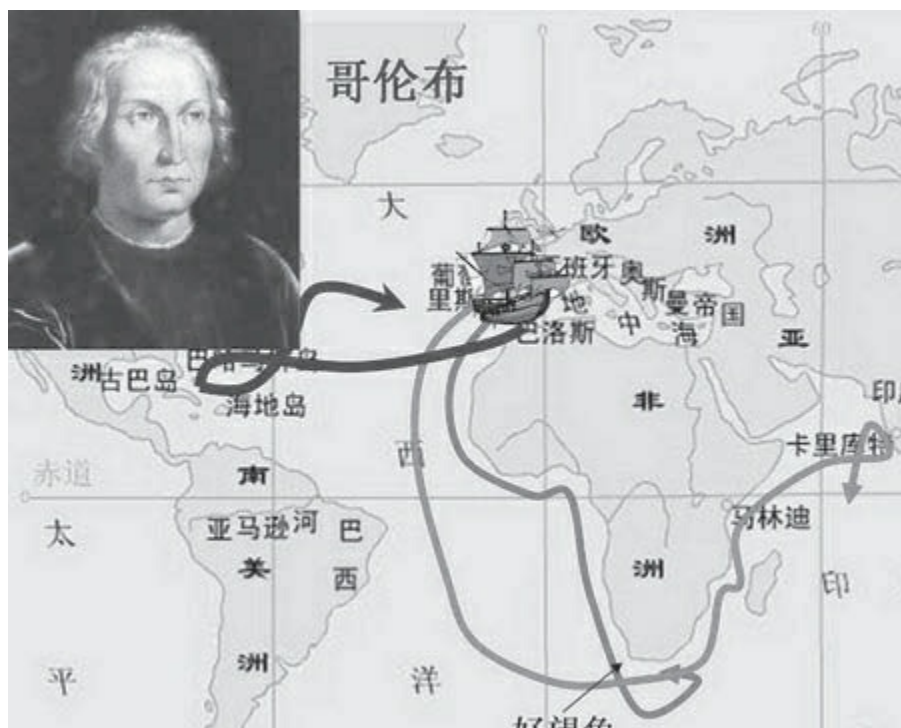

Christopher Columbus (1451 – 1506) was born in Genoa, Italy. He was the oldest of five children in his family. His father was a wool weaver and he helped his father with the weaving, but he always wanted to sail the seas. He didn't go to school very much, but he learned to read and write Spanish during his travels. He also taught himself Latin because all the geography books were written in Latin.

Some people thought he was trying to prove the world is round, but this is not true. At that time, most people already knew the earth is round. He just wanted to find a short way to get to the Indies by ship. He was a Christian and wanted to tell the story of Christ to the people he would find in the far-away lands. He also wanted wealth for himself and for Spain, and he wanted to be famous. He tried for eight years to get King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella to supply him with ships and money. Finally they agreed, but he made more demands. He wanted to be made a knight and admiral of the Ocean Sea. He wanted to be the viceroy and governor of all lands he would discover. Also he wanted one-tenth of everything he found of value in the new lands. He even boldly told them he wanted all of this in writing. This was rather brave of him because they could have had him killed because of his demands. They finally agreed and he got three ships ready to sail; the Santa Maria and two smaller ships, the Pinta and the Nina. He took enough food for a year and four months later he was ready to sail.

They left Spain on August 3, 1492. Captain Christopher Columbus' ensign pictured a cross and the crown-topped initials F (for King Ferdinand of Spain) and Y (for Queen Isabella of Spain). His objective was to sail west until he reached Asia (the Indies) where the riches of gold, pearls and spice awaited. His first stop was the Canary Islands where the lack of wind left his expedition becalmed until September 6.

Once underway, Columbus benefited from calm seas and steady winds that pushed him steadily westward. However, the trip was long-longer than anticipated by either Columbus or his crew. In order to mollify his crew's apprehensions, Columbus kept two sets of logs: one showing the true distance traveled each day and one showing a lesser distance. The first log was kept secret. The latter log quieted the crew's anxiety by under-reporting the true distance they had traveled from their homeland. This deception had only a temporary effect; by October 10, 1492, the crew's apprehension had increased to the point of near mutiny. The sailors were ready to turn around and start back home.

"Just three more days," he said, "Then if we don't see land, we'll turn around and go back home." Two days later they saw land. Having landed, they saw green trees, and much water, and fruits of diverse kinds; Columbus named the island San Salvador. Shortly after landing, many of the island's inhabitants assembled on the beach and Columbus gave them gifts of red hats and beads. The natives reciprocated with gifts of parrots, cotton and other goods. In describing the natives, Columbus wrote: "They go as naked as when their mothers bore them, and so do the women, although I did not see more than one girl. They are very well made, with very handsome bodies, and very good countenances." He thought he had found the Indies and called the people he saw there "Indians". Actually, many of the local men were captured by Columbus' men and later sold as slaves.

While exploring the islands in the area and looking for gold to loot, Columbus' men traveled to the islands of Hispaniola (now divided into Haiti and the Dominican Republic), Cuba, and many other smaller islands. When they got to Cuba, he thought he was in China. But the world was a lot larger than he thought. On Christmas Eve, the Santa Maria was wrecked near Haiti. Columbus built a fort and left 40 men to hunt for gold. Then he returned to Spain on the Nina. The Pinta also returned. The people of Spain welcomed him as a hero. He made three more voyages across the ocean later. His 13-year-old son, Ferdinand went with him on the fourth voyage. However, Columbus did not become rich as he had hoped. At the end of his life he only had a pension the king and queen had given him because he was the first one reach the New World. He spent the last few months of his life in bed because of the pain of arthritis

As an explorer and navigator, the far-reaching impact of Christopher Columbus voyage is much higher than any previous expedition. Discovering the New World is the most egregious human history, the geographical discoveries of human challenge themselves and conquer the world a great victory. Columbus not only discovered a New World, but he also led the way for other explorers.

他们于1492年8月3日离开西班牙。船长克里斯托弗·哥伦布的旗以十字架和字母F，Y（迪南德和伊莎贝拉名字的首字母）组成。他的目标是要向西航行到达富有黄金、珍珠和香料的亚洲（印度）。舰队的第一站是加那利群岛，由于缺乏合适的风向，他的探险队直到9月6日才再次启程。

一开始航行，得益于平静的海洋和稳定的海洋风，舰队稳步向西进发。不过，此行是漫长的——比哥伦布和他的船员所预想的更漫长。为了安抚船员，哥伦布坚持写两本日志：他在一本日志中记载每天真实的航程，另一本则将里程数写得很小；第一本日志是保密的。第二本瞒报里程数的日志则来向船员汇报他们与祖国的距离，以此来缓解船员的焦虑。这种欺骗只具有暂时的效果，1492年10月10日船员的担心已临近兵变点。船员纷纷准备掉头返航。

“再航行3天，”哥伦布说，“如果我们还看不到陆地就调头回家。”两天之后，他们看见了陆地。登陆之后，他们发现那里树木青翠、水源充足、水果多样；哥伦布将此岛命名为圣萨尔瓦多岛。登陆后不久，许多岛上的居民聚集在海滩上，哥伦布送给他们红色帽子和珠子作为礼物。当地人则回赠给他们鹦鹉、棉花及其他物品。哥伦布在描述当地人时说：“他们赤身裸体就像被母亲刚生下来的样子，女人也是如此，尽管我只见到一个女孩。他们体态健美，面孔俊朗。”哥伦布认为自己已经找到了印度，于是将他所看到的人称为“印第安人”。事实上，许多当地人被哥伦布一行人抓获，后来卖作奴隶。

在该岛寻找和掠夺黄金的同时，哥伦布一行到达伊斯帕尼奥拉岛（现在分成海地和多米尼加共和国），古巴和其他许多较小的岛屿。到达古巴时，他误以为那是中国——世界比他想象的要大得多。圣诞节前夕，圣玛利亚在海地附近失事。于是，哥伦布建成一个堡垒，留下40名男子继续寻找黄金。然后，他乘尼娜号回到西班牙。平塔号也同时返回。西班牙人民把他当成英雄来欢迎。此后他又穿越大洋航行了三次。在第四次航行中，他13岁的儿子费迪南德与他同去。不过，哥伦布并没有如他希望的那样富有。在生命的最后，他只得到国王和王后给他的抚恤金，因为他是第一个到达新大陆的人。因为关节疼痛，他在床上度过了生命的最后几个月。

作为一名探险家和航海家，哥伦布远航的深远影响大大超过以往任何一次探险活动。发现新大陆是人类有史以来最惊人的地理大发现，是人类挑战自我、征服世界的一次伟大胜利。哥伦布不仅发现了一个新世界，而且为其他探险者开辟了道路。

2. Establishment of the North American Colonies 新生地：北美殖民地的建立

The original inhabitants of North America are Indians. In 16-18 century, Western Europe invaded North America, which is in the progress of capital accumulation. During the establishment of the British North American colonies, the French established New France (including the St. Lawrence River downstream of the tide zone, Mississippi River, etc.); Spaniards established New Spain (Mexico and the southwestern United States, including vast areas). In 1607, the British established the first colonial stronghold - James City, since they have been established 13 colonies in the Atlantic coast. Most people reach to the colony are the poor working people in Western Europe, but there are also the nobility, landowners, the bourgeoisie. Most of them are British, Irish, German and Dutch. Some of immigrants escaped war and religious persecution, some of them are voluntary and involuntary "slave contract" and the beggars, criminals, and there are also the black, who have been trafficked from Africa. A few years later, the British Puritans came to America to escape the religious persecution from the Church of England.

In 1620, some of the Plymouth company employees formed the Massachusetts Bay Company, by the British royal charter agreed in 1629, the company commissioned the UK Suffolk region manor, John Winthrop to arrange immigration plan. In March 1630, John Winthrop led more than a thousand religious moderate Puritans who came to Massachusetts Bay by five vessels. Funded by the Massachusetts Bay Company, later immigrants, more than 2 million people, are gradually come to Massachusetts. Soon, the Massachusetts Bay Company moved its headquarters to colony from the British, later, Massachusetts soon developed, depend on Boston, which is the center of colonies.

Puritans of Massachusetts came to the New World with pious religious ideals; they try to establish a doctrine saying-the "Mountain City", which is talk about an example of all mankind to establish the sanctity of the holy. As a result, the local governments enacted legislation requires people to strictly abide by the doctrine, and punish immoral behavior such as alcohol and adultery, even men's hair a little longer will be trouble. These stringent and complicated rules and prohibitions soon attracted some dissatisfaction with immigration. Roger Williams, living in the town of Salem, against the Theocratic policy of the local government, he believes church and state should be separate and non-interference, the government can not implement religious law, and religion itself will ultimately depend on personal consciousness and feeling. His views soon reject by the local puritan rulers; he was expelled from the colony of Massachusetts General Court in 1635. Pastor Williams and his supporters fled to Narayan Gan Brecht Bay, where they established a new colony called Rhode Island, where he implemented the policy of secularism.

Another colony established by Puritan is Pennsylvania, which is found by Quaker William Penn, who is the leaders of Puritan Quakers, they refused to swear and military service, and soon rejected by the British government, so a large number of Christians have immigrated to North America. Payne's father was a famous British military commanders, Payne himself is very capable, he obtained a charter from King Charles I in the United Kingdom on March 14, 1681, where he have the ownership of the land area of Pennsylvania. In 1682, Pei Well established Philadelphia, he used this name by the synthesis of two Greek words, expressed his plans to live in harmony and good will of the holy experiment. Payne implemented policy of religious freedom and his reputation for impartial and soon attracted a large number of immigrants from Europe, many of them came from Germany to escape religious persecution of the Protestant splinter groups of Christians. From 1607 to 1733, the British has established 13 colonies in the east coast of North America.

1620年,普利茅斯公司的部分员工组成马萨诸塞湾公司,在1629年得到英国王室特许后,该公司委托英国萨福克地区的庄园主约翰·温斯洛普安排移民计划。1630年3月,约翰·温斯洛普率领一千多名宗教态度较温和的清教徒乘坐5艘船只来到马萨诸塞湾。在马萨诸塞湾公司的资助下,来到马萨诸塞的移民逐渐超过2万人。不久,马萨诸塞湾公司总部由英国搬到殖民地,此后,马萨诸塞殖民地很快以波士顿为中心发展起来。

美洲原住民种植作物

清教徒建立的另外一个殖民地是宾夕法尼亚殖民地，它是由来自清教中贵格宗的领袖威廉·佩恩建立的，贵格宗教徒拒绝宣誓并拒绝服兵役，很快为英国政府所不容，大量的教徒纷纷移民到北美。佩恩的父亲是英国著名的军事将领，佩恩本人也很有能力，1681年3月14日，他从英国国王查理一世那里获得了特许状，拥有了宾夕法尼亚地区土地的所有权，1682年，佩恩建立了费城，这个名字是他用两个希腊词合成的，表达了他计划进行和睦相处的神圣实验的良好愿望。佩恩施行的宗教自由政策以及他公正处事的良好声誉，很快吸引了大量来自欧洲的移民，其中很多是来自德国为躲避宗教迫害的新教小派别的教徒。从1607年到1733年间，英国在北美的东海岸建立了13个殖民地。

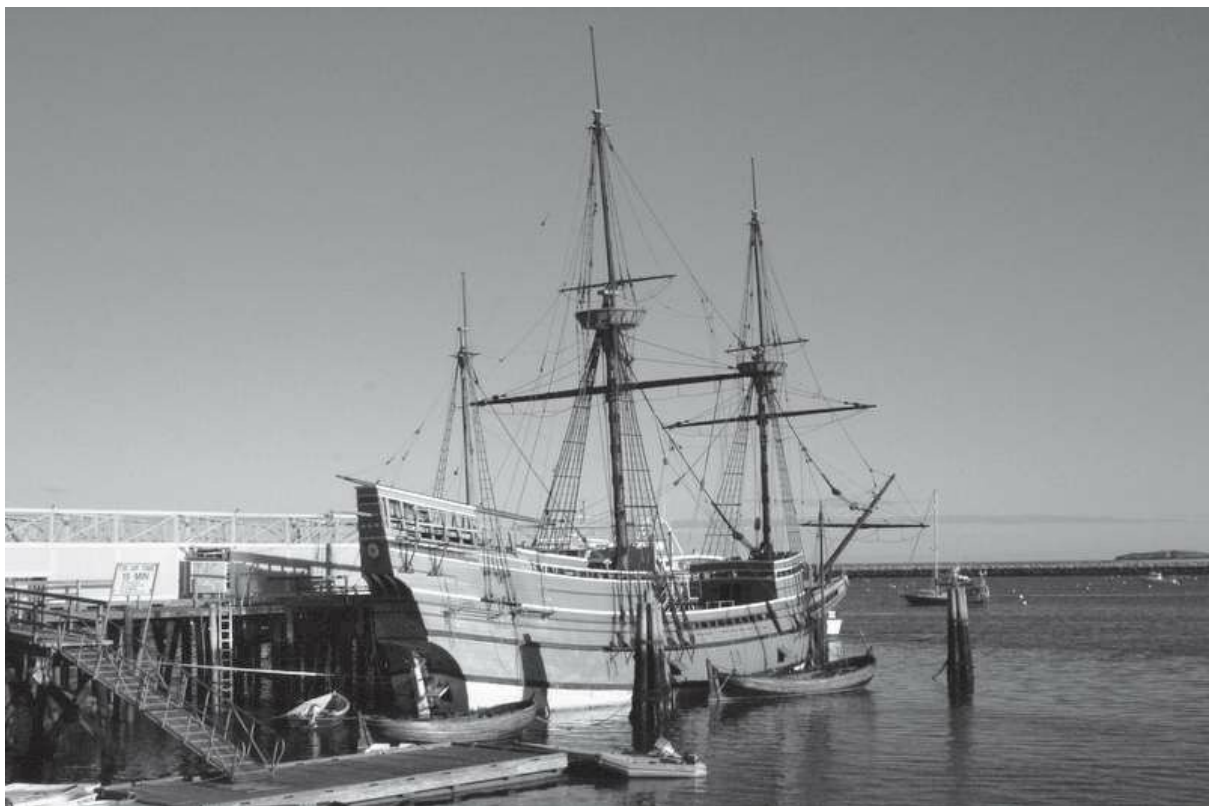

3. The First Immigrant: "Pilgrims" in the Mayflower (1620) 最初的移民：五月花号船上的“朝圣者”

The Mayflower (It's also a name of a flower. Massachusetts adopted the mayflower as the official flower of the state to commemorate the Pilgrims) was a ship. It is most famous for its maiden voyage (first voyage) when pilgrims and other settlers travelled on it to the New World. Not until September 6, 1620, did the Mayflower carried 102 men, women and children, who lived in the dark, damp, cold cargo decks below the crew's quarters set sail for America. As the fishermen of the day knew all too well, September was the time to seek safe harbors for winter and one of the worst times to be setting sail upon an uncertain ocean. Undoubtedly, the Pilgrims had been warned of the dangers which they would face in the North Atlantic if they insisted on beginning their voyage at that time of year. However, their money was at an end. They had no choice but to continue. Master Christopher Jones, the skipper, had sailed the waters of the North Sea during stormy seasons, and he knew how to handle Mayflower under such stressful weather conditions.

For 66 storm-tossed days the Pilgrims suffered their passage across a wintry Atlantic Ocean to the New World. On Saturday, November 21, the ship moored in what would come to the present-day Massachusetts. Upon the arrival, those Pilgrims realized that they were on a land uncharted by the English crown, in order to survive and protect themselves from rebels, they signed the historic Mayflower Compact, the first formal agreement for self-government in America. Then the Pilgrims decided to settle in Plymouth, far southward of where they had landed.

五月花（有种花就叫做“五月花”，马萨诸塞州为了纪念朝圣者们而把五月花定为州花）号是一艘船。因其处女航（首航）是载着朝圣者前往新大陆而著称。直到1620年9月6日，五月花载着男人、

妇女和儿童共102人，他们挤在黑暗、潮湿、冰冷的船员宿舍的甲板上开始了去往美国的旅程。当时所有的渔民都很清楚，9月是为冬季寻求安全港的时节，对于未知的远洋航行来说是最为恶劣的时间。毫无疑问，朝圣者也知道如果坚持这个时间启程，他们将在北大西洋面临很大的危险。然而，他们的经费已经濒临紧张，只有继续下去，别无选择。船长克里斯托弗·琼斯是把好手，曾经在暴风雨季节横穿北海水域，他知道如何在紧张的天气条件下掌控五月花号。

这些朝圣者经历了66天的暴风骤雨，横跨寒冷的大西洋。终于于11月21日星期六到达新大陆。船在如今的马萨诸塞州靠岸。抵达后，这些朝圣者意识到自己找到了英国政府管辖之外的未知土地，为了安稳的生存和防止叛乱，他们签署了历史性的《五月花号公约》，这是美国第一个自治政府的正式协议。最后这些朝圣者们决定在登陆地南方的普利茅斯定居。

4. Fighting for Liberty: The American War of Independence 为自由而战：美国独立战争

● Exploitation and Resistance—Liberty, No Stamp Duty 剥削与反抗——要自由，不要印花税

The Stamp Act (1765) 1765年印花税法

In an effort to raise funds to pay off debts and defend  the vast new American territories won from the French in the Seven Years' War (1756-1763), the British government passed the Stamp Act on March 22, 1765. The legislation levied  a direct tax on all materials printed for commercial and legal use in the colonies, including everything from newspapers and pamphlets  to playing cards and dice.

Though the Stamp Act employed a strategy that was a common fundraising  vehicle  in England, it stirred a storm of protesting in the colonies. (The colonists had recently been hit with three major taxes: the Sugar Act (1764), which levied new duties on imports of textiles  , wines, coffee and sugar; the Currency  Act (1764), which caused a major decline in the value of the paper money used by colonists; and the Quartering Act (1765), which required colonists to provide food and lodging to British troops  .) As British subjects the colonists argued that, Parliament could not impose  taxes upon them without their consent  . Believing this right to be in peril

 , the colonists rioted  and intimidated  all the stamp agents responsible for enforcing the act into resignation  .

Massachusetts politician Samuel Adams organized the secret Sons of Liberty organization to plan protests against the measure, and the Virginia legislature and other colonial assemblies passed resolutions opposing the act. In October, nine colonies sent representatives to New York to attend a Stamp Act Congress, where resolutions of “rights and grievances” were framed and sent to Parliament and King George III. Despite this opposition, the Stamp Act was enacted on November 1, 1765.

The colonists greeted the arrival of the stamps with violence and economic retaliation. Colonial merchants called for a boycott of British goods; some went further, the Sons of Liberty staged attacks on customs houses and the homes of tax collectors. In addition, the Sons of Liberty hanged an effigy of stamp distributor Andrew Oliver from a gallows they dubbed the "Liberty Tree." They beheaded and burned the effigy, burned a building they thought to be the “Stamp Office” and invaded Oliver's home, threatening to kill him. Oliver had already fled the premises and resigned his post rather than face further attacks. In every state except Georgia, the "stamp master" resigned under duress ^注, making the Stamp Act impossible to implement ^注.

After months of protest and economic turmoil ^注, and an appeal ^注 by Benjamin Franklin in the British House of Commons, Parliament voted to repeal the Stamp Act in March 1766. However, at the same day, Parliament passed the Declaratory Acts, asserting ^注 that the British government had free and total legislative power over the colonies. At the same time, Parliament passed the Revenue Act of 1766, which was intended to make up Britain's loss of income from the stamp tax with taxes on ^注 molasses ^注. The colonists paid this tax without complaint, although it also was imposed without their consent, as molasses was a critical ingredient ^注 in the making of rum ^注.

Not ready to put down the rioters with military force, so Parliament eventually repealed the legislation. But the end of the Stamp Act did not end Parliament's conviction ^注 that it had the authority to impose taxes on the colonists. However, the colonists held firm to their view that Parliament could not tax them. The fracas over the Stamp Act helped plant seeds for the eventual battle for independence. Later, Parliament would again attempt to force unpopular taxation measures on the American colonies in the late 1760s, leading to a steady  deterioration  in British-American relations that culminated in the outbreak of the American Revolution in 1775. In other words, the issues raised by the Stamp Act festered for 10 years before giving rise to the Revolutionary War and, ultimately, America gain independence.

为了筹集资金偿还债务和维护七年战争（1756～1763年）中从法国赢来的广大美国领土，英国政府于1765年3月22日颁布了臭名昭著的《印花税法案》。该法案对殖民地所有商用和合法使用的印刷材料直接征税，从报纸和传单到扑克牌和骰子都包括在内。

虽然印花税法在英国只是一个筹资的普通工具，却激起了殖民地的抗议风暴。（在那个时期殖民者

地人民已经遭遇了三大税法：《糖法案》（1764年），这是一项对进口的纺织品，酒，咖啡和食用糖征收的新税；《货币法案》（1764年），导致殖民地人民使用的纸币大量贬值；《住宿法案》（1765年），要求殖民人民给英国部队提供食物和住宿。殖民者认为，作为英国臣民，英国议会不能未经各殖民地议会的同意就强制征税。殖民地人民认为这项权利受到了威胁，于是，他们举行暴动并恐吓印花税机构撤销此项法令。

马萨诸塞州的政治家塞缪尔·亚当斯成立了名为“自由之子”的秘密组织对此提出抗议，弗吉尼亚州立法机关和其他殖民地议会通过决议反对该法案。同年10月，9个殖民地派代表前往纽约出席印花税法大会，拟定“权利和不满”的决议并送交议会和国王乔治三世。但他们不顾反对，仍决定《印花税法》于1765年11月1日开始施行。

殖民地的人民以暴力抵制和经济对抗的方式来阻止该法案通过。商人呼吁抵制英国货物；自由之子组织暴力袭击海关和税官员的房子。此外，自由之子把印花税代售商安德鲁·奥利弗的肖像挂在他们所谓的“自由树”上施行绞刑。他们将肖像斩首焚烧，烧毁他们认为是“印花税署”的建筑物并闯入奥利弗的家中，扬言要杀死他。奥利弗为避免受到进一步的袭击，已经逃离单位，辞去职务。除了佐治亚州外，各州的“印花税代售人”都在胁迫下辞职，使《印花税法》无法贯彻实施。

The History of the Stamp Duty 印花税的历史

The Stamp duty is a tax that is levied on documents. Historically, this included the majority of legal documents such as: cheques; receipts; marriage licences; land transactions; etc. A physical stamp had to be attached to or impressed upon the document to denote that stamp duty had been paid before the document was legally effective. More modern versions of the tax no longer require a physical stamp. Stamp duty was first levied in the UK in 1694 to pay for the war with France. Although initially only planned for four years, Stamp duty was so successful that it continues to this day.

At first the tax covered “vellum, parchment and paper”. During the 18th and early 19th centuries, stamp duties were extended to cover newspapers, pamphlets, lottery tickets, apprentices' indentures, advertisements, playing cards, dice, hats, gloves, patent medicines, perfumes, insurance policies, gold and silver plate, hair powder and armorial bearings. The tax was extended to property sales in 1808. Now the term is usually confined to those charged on the transfer of land, property, mortgages

, insurance policies, bills of exchange and contract notes. It was one of the chief causes of the American War of Independence, the American Colonies highly resenting taxation without representation. In 1765, the attempted enforcement of stamp duty in English colonies in America led to protestor's demands of "no taxation without representation" and ultimately to the Boston Tea Party and the outbreak of the American War of Independence. It was repealed on March 18th 1766, but was replaced by the Declaratory Act formally asserting the right of Parliament to tax colonies.

In 1797, William Pitt the Younger virtually doubled the tax. In 1984 the Tory Chancellor Nigel Lawson eased the pressure on homebuyers by increasing the threshold ^注 for stamp duty on property from £ 25,000 to £ 30,000 and reduced the highest rate of stamp duty from 2 per cent to 1 per cent. In 1991, during the last housing recession ^注, the Conservative government temporarily suspended stamp duty for nine months on all properties worth less than £ 250,000 in an effort to boost ^注 sales. But during the housing boom ^注 of the late 1990s/ early 2000s, when many more houses became liable for stamp duty, Gordon Brown came under increasing pressure to adjust the thresholds accordingly.

印花税是多少？

印花税用于对文件征税。历史上，其征税对象包括大多数合法文件：支票、收据、结婚证书、土地

交易等。将一种有形的邮票贴在或印在文件上以此表明印花税已支付，该文件在法律上是有效的。该税种更现代的版本已不再需要一个有形的邮票。1694年，英国首次征收印花税，用于英法战争。虽然最初只是一个4年的计划，但印花税是如此成功，以至于它一直持续18世纪60年代。

起初，印花税只对“牛皮纸，羊皮纸和草纸”征税，其征税范围到18世纪和19世纪初逐渐扩大，涵盖了报纸、传单、彩票、学徒契约、广告、扑克牌、骰子、帽子、手套、专利药品、香水、保险、黄金和白银板、头发粉和国徽。1808年此项税务扩展到房地产销售领域。现在该税法通常适用于土地转让，物业，抵押，保险单，汇票及买卖契约。它是美国独立战争的主要根源之一，美国的殖民地人民极度痛恨没有代表权的税收。1765年，当该项税法在英属北美殖民地施行时引发了抗议者“没有代表权就不纳税”的要求——最终导致波士顿倾茶事件和美国独立战争的爆发。这项税法于1766年3月18日废除，但由《宣告法案》取而代之，并正式肯定了议会对殖民地征税的权利。

1797年，小威廉·皮特几乎将税率翻了一番。1984年保守党总理尼格尔·劳森为了缓解置业人士的压力，提高了征收物业税的门槛，从25000英镑上升到3万英镑，使最高印花税率降低一个百分点。1991年，在房地产市场最后萧条期，保守党政府对价值低于25万英镑的物业暂停了9个月的印花税，以促进销售。但20世纪90年代末期到21世纪初期房市繁荣，越来越多的房屋成了印花税征收的对象，戈登·布朗顶着越来越大的压力对印花税门槛进行相应的调整。

● Prelude to the War of Independence—The Boston Tea Party 独立战争的序幕——波士顿倾茶事件

The Boston Massacre  波士顿惨案

The first European transplants  to the English colonies retained  their Old World customs of class society and restrictions on religion, education, voting rights, and individual freedom. Being far from the English throne  over the Atlantic Ocean, the colonists couldn't depend upon regular guidance from London, so they formed self-governing bodies to deal with their daily business affairs. Unlike power concentration in the hands of a few as was typical in Europe, control of the colonies was shared by many more people. Slowly, the colonists began to question the restrictive practices of their representative government. As many decades  passed, American colonists set their own principles, quite distinct from those of the Mother Country.

European forefathers  and developed a wider tolerance  for religious freedom and

On March 5, 1770, an angry demonstration against British troops quartered in Boston got out of hand. As the mob grew more fierce, the Redcoats fired into the crowd, killing three and mortally wounding two others, which greatly escalated anti-British sentiment throughout the colonies. As news of the "Boston Massacre" spread, the people in the city were filled with rage. Some months later, the soldiers involved in the incident were put on trial for murder. As one of history's strangest ironies

, the legal defense team for the British included John Adams, who later became the second

President of the United States. It was Adams' belief that everyone deserved a fair trial , even unpopular defendants. When the verdict was read, all but two of the soldiers were acquitted

, and these two ended up serving minimal time on manslaughter convictions .

Following the Boston Massacre, earnest attempts were made to reconcile differences between the American colonists and the British government. For a few years, at least, bad feelings indeed subsided . However, when Parliament enacted the Tea Act of 1773 , a measure designed to promote the interests of the privately owned British East India Company and in effect

the tea trade, the final chain reaction of events eventually results in an armed

第一批移民到英国殖民地的欧洲人，保留了其旧世界的阶级社会的风俗，并约束宗教、教育、选举权、个人自由。这些殖民者远离大西洋沿岸的英国统治，不能依靠来自伦敦的直接领导，出于需要，他们成立了自治机构来处理日常商业事务。与欧洲典型的权利掌控在少数人手中不同，殖民地由更多人共同治理。慢慢地，殖民者开始质疑欧洲祖先的限制性做法，形成了对宗教自由更为宽容的代议制政府。几十年过去了，美国殖民者设置与祖国迥然不同的行为准则。

1770年3月5日，一个反抗英国军队驻扎波士顿的愤怒示威游行失控。随着民众反应的愈加激烈，英国士兵向人群开枪，当场打死三人，两人重伤最后死亡，这大大加剧整个殖民地的反英情绪。“波士顿惨案”消息传出，全市人民充满了愤怒。几个月后，该事件中所涉及的士兵因谋杀罪受审。在历史上最为奇怪的讽刺之一就是英国的辩护小组成员包括后来成为美国第二任总统的约翰·亚当斯。亚当斯认为每个人都应该得到公正的审判，甚至是不受欢迎的被告。判决书宣布，所有的士兵除两个人获刑外均无罪，而这两个以杀人罪获刑的士兵服刑时间很短。

波士顿大屠杀之后，美国殖民者和英国政府之间的分歧得到协调。至少几年来，反抗情绪确实得以平息。但是，当议会颁布了旨在促进私营英国东印度公司的利益使之垄断茶叶贸易的《1773年茶法案》，该事件最终导致殖民地武装反抗英国王室。

The Boston Tea Party 波士顿倾茶事件

The Boston Tea Party took place in December 16, 1773, when a group of Massachusetts Patriots protesting the monopoly  on American tea importation  recently granted by Parliament to the East India Company, seized 342 chests  of tea in a midnight raid  on three tea ships and threw them into the harbor . The Boston Tea Party was a direct action by colonists in Boston against the British government. The incident remains an iconic event of American history, and other political protests often refer to it.

This action, as part of a wave of resistance throughout the colonies, had its origin in Parliament's effort to rescue the financially weakened East India Company so as to continue benefiting from the company's valuable position in India. The Tea Act (May 10, 1773) adjusted import duties in such a way that the company could undersell even smugglers  in the colonies. The company selected consignees in Boston, New York, Charleston, and Philadelphia, and 500,000 pounds of tea were shipped across the Atlantic in September.

Colonial merchants, some of them are smugglers, played a significant role in the protests. Because the Tea Act made legally imported tea cheaper, it threatened to put smugglers of Dutch tea out of business. Legitimate tea importers who had not been named as consignees by the East India Company were also threatened with financial ruin by the Tea Act. Another major concern for merchants was that the Tea Act gave the East India Company a monopoly on the tea trade, and it was feared that this government-created monopoly might be extended in the future to include other goods.

Under pressure from Patriot groups, the consignees in Charleston, New York, and Philadelphia refused to accept the tea shipments, but in Boston, the chosen merchants (including two of Governor Thomas Hutchinson's sons as well as his nephew) refused to concede. The first tea ship, Dartmouth, reached Boston November 27, and two more arrived shortly thereafter. Meanwhile, several mass meetings were held to demand that the tea should be sent back to England with the duty unpaid. Tension mounted as Patriot groups led by Samuel Adams tried to persuade the consignees and the governor to accept this approach. On December 16, a large meeting at the Old South Church was told of Hutchinson's final refusal. After Massachusetts Governor Thomas Hutchinson refused, Patriot leader Samuel Adams organized the "tea party" with about 60 members of the Sons of Liberty, his underground resistance group. About midnight, watched by a large crowd, Adams and his men disguised as Mohawk Indians boarded  the ships and jettisoned  the tea. The British tea dumped in Boston Harbor on the night of December 16 was valued about $18,000.

小威廉·皮特

Parliament, outraged 注 by the blatant 注 destruction of British property, enacted the Coercive

注 Acts , also known as the Intolerable Acts, in 1774 . To Parliament, the Boston Tea Party confirmed Massachusetts's role as the core of resistance to legitimate 注 British rule. The Coercive Acts of 1774 were intended to punish the colony in general and Boston in particular, both for the Tea Party and for the pattern of resistance it exemplified. The Coercive Acts closed Boston to merchant shipping, established formal British military rule in Massachusetts, made British officials immune to criminal 注 prosecution in America, and required colonists to quarter 注 British troops. The colonists subsequently called the first Continental Congress to consider a united American resistance to the British.

注 The colonists reasserted their liberties as free Englishmen, but went further and claimed the right to maintain selfgoverning legislative bodies.

In 1775 the British cartoon, “ A Society of Patriotic Ladies at Edenton in North Carolina ”, satirized the Boston Tea Party, discribed a group of women who organized a boycott of English tea.

The Boston Tea Party was a key event in the growth of the American Revolution. The crisis escalated, and the American Revolutionary War finally began near Boston in 1775.

1773年12月16日深夜，马萨诸塞州的一个爱国者组织将三艘英国茶船上的342箱茶叶扔进海港，以抗议议会授予东印度公司茶叶垄断地位，这就是波士顿倾茶事件。波士顿倾茶事件是波士顿，殖民者对抗英国政府的直接行动。这一事件仍然是美国历史上标志性的事件，其他政治抗议活动常常提及它。

这一事件作为整个殖民地的抵抗浪潮的一部分，起因于议会努力挽救经济衰弱的东印度公司，以继

续从该公司在印度的重要地位中受益。《茶法案》（1773年5月10日）以调整进口关税的方式，使得殖民地走私者廉价抛售茶叶。9月，该公司在波士顿、纽约、查尔斯顿、费城选择收货人，横跨大西洋运输50万磅茶叶。

殖民商人包括一些走私分子，在抗议活动中发挥了重要作用。由于《茶法案》使得合法进口茶叶更便宜，威胁到了荷兰茶叶走私者利益，迫使其停止营业。没有东印度公司收货人签名的合法进口茶叶也遭到《茶法案》的经济破产威胁。商人主要关注的另一个方面是《茶法案》，它使东印度公司垄断了茶叶贸易，有人担心这种由政府制造的垄断可能在未来的时间里会扩展到其他商品方面。

今天的波士顿

议会被公然破坏英国财产的行为激怒，于1774年制定了《强制法案》，也被称为《不能容忍法案》。议会认为马萨诸塞州波士顿倾茶党在抵抗英国合法统治活动中处于核心地位。1774年的《强制法案》就是为了惩治各殖民地特别是波士顿的茶党和它所表现出来的抵抗。该法案强制封锁波士顿商船，正式成立马萨诸塞州的英国军事统治，英国官员免于在美国的刑事起诉，要求殖民地允许英国驻军。随后殖民地人民召开第一次大陆会议，进行美国团结一致抵抗英国的审议。殖民者重申他们是自由的英国人，但更进一步声称他们有权保持自治立法机构。

1775年，一部名为《北卡罗来纳州伊甸顿的爱国妇女协会》的英国动画片，讲述了抵制英国茶叶的一群妇女，讽刺了伊甸顿茶党。

波士顿倾茶事件是美国革命发展的关键事件。这场危机逐渐升级，1775年美国独立战争最终在波士顿附近地区爆发。

● The First Shot in the War of Independence—Gunfire in Lexington 独立战争的第一枪——莱克星顿的枪声

The Battles of Lexington and Concord were the first military engagements of the American Revolutionary War. They were fought on April 19, 1775, in Middlesex County, Province of Massachusetts Bay, within the towns of Lexington, Concord, Lincoln, Menotomy (present-day Arlington), and Cambridge, near Boston. The battles marked the outbreak of open armed conflict between the Kingdom of Great Britain and its thirteen colonies in the mainland of British North America.

Before the war, Boston in Massachusetts had been the scene of much revolutionary activity, leading to the effective abolition  of the provincial government of Massachusetts by the British parliament in 1774. Popular resistance to these measures, however, people have compelled the newly appointed royal officials in Massachusetts to resign or to seek refuge  in Boston.

Acting on orders from London to suppress the rebellious colonists, General Thomas Gage, recently appointed royal governor of Massachusetts. On April 19, 1775 Gage sent a small force of 700 men to seize patriot  militia  weapons and gunpowder at Concord, not far from Boston. The 700 British soldiers, under Lieutenant Colonel Francis Smith, were given secret orders to capture and destroy military supplies that were reportedly stored by the Massachusetts militia at Concord. Through effective intelligence gathering, Patriot colonials had received word weeks before the expedition that their supplies might be at risk and had moved most of them to other locations. They also received details about British plans on the night before the battle and were able to rapidly notify the area militias of the enemy movement. When the British troops entered Lexington on the morning of April 19, they found more than 70 minutemen  formed up on the village. The British soldiers at Lexington encountered a small force of American militias on Lexington on their way there. This event was reported far and wide, and the first shot fired there has ever since been described as "the shot heard round the world". Nobody knew then, nor knows today with any significant certainty, who fired the first shot of the American Revolution. Finally the militia withdrew and the British moved on to Concord. There are more battles waiting for them. A British covering party at Concord's North Bridge was finally confronted by 320 to 400 American patriots and forced to withdraw  .

The march back to Boston was a genuine 注 ordeal 注 for the British, with Americans continually firing on them from behind roadside houses, barns, trees, and stone walls. This experience

注 established guerrilla warfare as the colonists' best defense strategy against the British. It was the return to Boston that revealed the scale of the revolt and the weakness of the British position. Outnumbered by hostile forces, the British column was being slowly destroyed by sniping 注 until it met up with a relief force at Lexington and was able to return relatively safely to Boston. Total losses were British 273, American 95. With the Battles of Lexington and Concord, the war had begun. News of the fighting around Boston inflamed revolutionary activity across the colonies.

The Battles of Lexington and Concord confirmed the alienation 注 between the majority of colonists and the mother country, and it roused 16,000 New Englanders to join forces and begin the Siege 注 of Boston, resulting in its evacuation 注 by the British the following March.

莱克星顿和康科德战役是美国独立战争的第一次军事交锋。1775年4月19日，英国军队和美国殖民者在马萨诸塞湾省的米德尔塞克斯县展开斗争，波及到波士顿附近的莱克星顿、康科德、林肯镇、梅诺米（现在的阿灵顿）和剑桥等地。这标志着大不列颠王国和英属北美13个殖民地之间公开武装冲突的爆发。

战前，马萨诸塞州的波士顿就一直是革命运动频发之地，因此导致1774年英国议会撤销马萨诸塞州省级政府。然而，人们行动起来迫使马萨诸塞州新任命的王室官员被迫辞职或到波士顿寻求避难。

新近任命的马萨诸塞州皇室州长托马斯·盖奇将军接受伦敦命令，采取行动镇压反叛的殖民者。1775年4月19日，盖奇派一支700人的小部队前往距离波士顿不远的康科德收缴爱国民兵的枪支弹药。英国陆军中校弗朗西斯·史密斯收到秘密命令带领700名英国士兵前往康科德收缴和摧毁据称是

马萨诸塞州民兵在康科德储存的军用物资。通过有效的情报搜集，爱国者殖民者在英国士兵出发前几个星期就已经得知他们的储备可能受到威胁，随即将大部分物资转移到其他地点。他们还在作战前了解到当晚英军计划的细节，并迅速向该地区的民兵告知敌人的行动。当4月19日上午英国军队到达莱克星顿时，村子已经成立了70多人的民兵团。英国士兵在途经莱克星顿时遇到了当地民兵小部队，发生了短暂交火。后来人们将这次战斗的第一枪描述为“响彻世界的第一枪”。无论当时还是现在都没有人能确切的说出是谁开了美国革命的第一枪。最后民兵撤退，英国军队继续向康科德进发。那里有更多的战争等待着他们。英国掩护部队在康科德北桥遭遇了320至400名美国爱国者，最终不得不撤回。

莱克星顿和康科德战役见证了多数殖民者和祖国的离间，激起了1.6万新英格兰人参军并开始围攻波士顿，这场战争以翌年3月英军的撤离收场。

● History of the Independent 独立的历程

In 1775, revolutionaries gained control of each of the thirteen colonial governments, set up the Second Continental Congress, and formed a Continental Army. Petitions asked the king to intervene with the parliament but resulted in Congress being declared traitors and the states in rebellion the following year. The Americans responded by formally declaring in 1776 their independence as a new nation, the United States of America, claiming sovereignty and rejecting any allegiance to the British monarchy. Although France had been providing supplies, ammunition and weapons to the rebels beginning in 1776, the Continentals' capture of a British army in 1777 finally led France to formally enter the war on the side of the United States in early 1778, which evened the military strength with Britain. Spain and the Dutch Republic, French allies also went to war with Britain over the next two years.

Throughout the war, the British were able to use their naval superiority to capture and occupy coastal cities, but control of the countryside (where 90% of the population lived) largely eluded them because of the relatively small size of their land army. French involvement proved decisive, with a French naval victory in the Chesapeake leading at Yorktown in 1781 to the surrender of a second British army. In 1783, the Treaty of Paris ended the war and recognized the sovereignty of the United States over the territory bounded by which is now Canada to the north, Florida to the south, and the Mississippi River to the west.

整个战争期间，英国利用他们的海军优势，占领了沿海城市，但对农村的控制权（其中90%的人口居住）却一直未能掌控，因为他们的陆军规模较小。法国的参与对战争起了决定性的作用，1781年法国海军在切萨皮克的胜利致使约克镇的第二英国军投降。在1783年，巴黎条约结束了战争，并承认了美国的独立主权和领土，北至现在的加拿大，南至现在的佛罗里达州，西至现在的密西西比河。

5. Gone with the Wind: the Civil War 随风而逝：美国南北战争

● Civil War Overview (1861~1865) 南北战争概述

The American Civil War also known as the civil war (1861–1865), was a massive war in the United States of America. As the bloodiest conflict in American history, the Civil War pitted brother against brother, family against family, state against state. Less than a century after the 13 original colonies celebrated their independent union, it splintered the young country along deep economic and ideological fault lines. The root cause of the conflict lay in the South's economy, which depended on a system that utilized the labor of Black slaves to grow certain crops, particularly cotton and tobacco. As the United States expanded in the nineteenth century, the contrast between the economic systems of the North and South exacerbated tensions. The election of Abraham Lincoln, leader of the Republican Party (which possessed strong abolitionist sentiments), brought the quarrel to a head in late 1860. The states of the Deep South immediately seceded; Lincoln's call for volunteers after the South Carolina militia shelled the federal garrison of Fort Sumter in early April 1861 caused Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Arkansas to join the rebellion.

At the start, neither side had any sense of the magnitude of the tasks on which they were embarking. The tiny army of the United States was a constabulary force that barely provided enough soldiers to intimidate the Indians. The United States had waged a war against Mexico (Mexican War), but that conflict had provided only a glimmering of the problems of mobilization and conducting war over long distances. Following secession, most Southern officers resigned their commissions and returned to their states to join the Confederate militia. In the North, however, the federal army maintained control over most of its officers, leaving the volunteer regiments for the most part in the hands of amateurs. This situation gave Southern forces an advantage, particularly in the East, during the war's first year.

But what remains inexplicable is the considerable contrast between the eastern and western theaters in terms of the performance of the opposing forces. The performance of Northern and Southern armies had less to do with the makeup of the armies—they were all drawn from similar backgrounds—than with the particular styles of leadership and battle effectiveness that resulted from idiosyncratic factors, such as the ability of senior leaders including Ulysses S. Grant, Robert E. Lee, George B. McClellan, and Braxton Bragg to impose their personalities on the character of the armies they led.

On June 2, 1865, Confederate General Edmund Kirby Smith, commander of Confederate forces west of the Mississippi, signs the surrender terms offered by Union negotiators. With Smith's surrender, the last Confederate army ceased to exist, bringing a formal end to the bloodiest four years in U.S. history. After four years of unprecedented violence that killed three percent of the population, the United States turned its attention to reintegrating the South, strengthening the federal government and enacting laws that, however imperfectly, abolished slavery and paved the way for civil rights. The Civil War marked the history of the United States more indelibly than any conflict that preceded or followed it. In fact, not until the end of the Vietnam War did the combined total casualties in all U.S. wars equal the Civil War's totals.

The military aspect of the United States Civil War has always attracted the most attention from scholars. The roar of gunfire, the massed movements of uniformed men, the shrill of bugles, and the drama of hand to hand combat have fascinated students of warfare for a century. Behind the lines, however, life was less spectacular. It was the story of back breaking labor to provide the fighting men with food and arms, of nerve tingling uncertainty about the course of national events, of heartbreak over sons or brothers or husbands lost in battle. If the men on the firing line won the victories, the means to those victories were forged on the home front. Never in the nation's history had Americans worked harder for victory than in the Civil War. Northerners and Southerners alike threw themselves into the task of supplying their respective armies. There were thousands of ordinary citizens living on fixed incomes who did their best to cope with rising prices and still make a contribution to the war effort. Those who could bought war bonds; others knitted, sewed, nursed, or lent any other assistance in their power.

战争一开始，双方都没有意识到这场战争的严峻性。美国军队只是一个微小的警察部队，几乎都没有足够的士兵震慑印第安人。尽管美国已经发动过一场对墨西哥的战争（墨西哥战争），但那场冲突只是进行远距离的调动和指挥。南部各州脱离联邦政府之后，大多数南方官员都辞职，加入他们所在州的邦联民兵。北方联邦军队主要由官员控制，而大部分志愿者军团则控制在非军事官员手中。这种情况使南部军队在战争的第一年获得优势，尤其是在东部地区。

但令人费解的是东西部战场之间的巨大反差。北部和南部军队的表现与部队组成人员——他们都来自相同的背景——关系不大，而主要取决于异质因素对领导水平和作战效能的影响，如尤里西斯·S·格兰特，罗伯特·E·李，乔治·B·麦克莱伦和布拉克斯顿·布拉格等高级领导人将个人风格融入了他们带领的部队。

1865年6月2日，埃德蒙·柯比·史密斯将军，密西西比河以西地区的南部联盟军队指挥官，按联邦谈判官条件签署投降书。史密斯投降，最后一个南部军队不复存在了，从而正式结束了美国历史上血腥4年。经过四年前所未有的浩劫，造成3%的人口死亡，美国开始将注意力转向南方重建，加强联邦政府，制定法律（但不完全的）废除奴隶制，为公民权利铺平道路。南北战争是美国历史上不可磨灭的印记，前无古人后无来者。事实上，直到越南战争结束，美国所有的战争伤亡人数总和也没有内战伤亡数量多。

美国内战中的军事方面一直最吸引学者们的注意。轰隆的炮声、军人大规模的阵式，尖锐的军号和白刃战的场面，已吸引了战争研究者们一个世纪。然而，在后方，生活却没有这般壮观。那里就是为作战的军人提供食物和武装而做劳累至极的工作，对国家事态的焦虑和对在战争中失去丈夫、兄弟和儿子的撕心裂肺。如果说前线的人们获得了胜利，那胜利的手段就要归功于后方的人们。在其历史上，美国人从来没有像在内战中那样为夺取胜利而如此努力。南方人和北方人一样投入到为各自军队供应物资的任务中。有成千上万的普通市民依靠固定的收入尽他们最大的努力应付着上涨

的物价，为战争做着贡献。那些有能力的人购买战争债券，其他的人编织、缝补衣服，护理伤病人或做其他一切他们力所能及的工作。

美国是在原英国“13块殖民地”的基础上建立发展的，美国西部是较晚获得开发的地方，因此“西进运动”也就顺理成章了。在这一过程中，“西部牛仔”“印第安人”“淘金热”，这些我们耳熟能详的名词仿佛在焕发着生机。

1. Territorial Expansion: Westward Movement and Pioneer Spirit 领土扩张：西进运动与拓荒精神

● Territorial Expansion: Westward Movement 领土扩张：西进运动

The Westward Movement in the United States is a great movement of domestic colonization featured by the massive migration of people. Its historical background can be traced back to the colonial era, though as a massive immigrant movement it did not spring up until the Independence War. It reached the climax in the mid-19th century, and basically ended in the late 19th century. It almost ran throughout the entire process of modernization of the United States.

The white population of the new United States did not stretch far beyond the eastern seaboard until the 19th century. The British Proclamation of 1763, the War of 1812, geological barriers and the lack of modern-day transportation all provided resistance against westward migration. But by the mid-

1800s, the concept of Manifest Destiny—the belief that Americans had a divine right to expand their territory—gained footing, and Americans began to buy the inevitability of settling both unexplored and already-claimed western frontiers, including the lands that now are Texas, California, Colorado and Oregon. The California Gold Rush, the construction of railroads and a growing pioneer spirit all contributed to the expansion of the "wild west."

Between the Gold Rush and the Civil War, Americans in growing numbers filled the Mississippi River valley, Texas, the southwest territories, and the new states of Kansas and Nebraska. During the war, the discover of gold and silver drew prospectors and later settlers came into Oregon, Colorado, Nevada, Idaho, and Montana.

The Westward Movement in American history can be divided into three phases, accompanied by three major migration flows. First, from the late 18th century to the early 19th century, large numbers of immigrants crossed the Mountain Appalachians and opened up the Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee areas. The second phase began in 1815, the immigrants moved towards two directions: one part opened up the north region of the Ohio River, and another part went into the plain areas between southern Georgia and Louisiana. The third phase began in the mid-19th century, along with the territorial expansion of the U.S. government, a large number of immigrants continued to move westward to the direction of the Pacific coast. Until 1890, the Westward Movement formally ended.

西进运动是一场以大规模移民为特征的国内殖民运动。其历史可以追溯至殖民时代，而作为一场大规模的移民运动，它却是在独立战争后才兴起的。19世纪中叶达到了高潮，19世纪末基本结束，几乎贯穿美国现代化建设的整个进程。

19世纪以前，美国的白人人口居住地远未超出东部海岸范围。《1763年英国公告》、1812年战争、地理障碍和现代交通工具缺乏等因素阻碍了向西迁移的脚步。但19世纪中叶，天命论让美国人认为自己拥有扩大领土的神圣权利的信念，他们想要站稳脚步，开始收购必然要占据的未开发的或声称是西部边界的土地，包括现在的德克萨斯州，加利福尼亚州，科罗拉多州和俄勒冈州。美国加州的淘金热，铁路建设和不断高涨的先驱精神使得“西部拓荒”拉开帷幕。

在淘金热至内战这段时间，美国人不断涌向密西西比河流域、德克萨斯州和西南地区、新成立的堪

萨斯州和内布拉斯加州。内战期间，黄金和白银的发现吸引无数淘金者，而后来的定居者来到了俄勒冈州、科罗拉多州、内华达州、爱达荷州和蒙大拿州。

美国西进运动的历史伴随三次主要的移民活动可分为三个阶段。首先，从18世纪后期到19世纪初，大量移民越过阿巴拉契亚山，开辟了俄亥俄、肯塔基和田纳西州地区。第二阶段从1815年开始，此次移民有两个方向：一部分开辟俄亥俄河以北的地区，另一部分移民到乔治亚州南部和路易斯安那州之间的平原地区。第三阶段开始于19世纪中叶，随着美国政府继续进行领土扩张，大量移民不断向西部太平洋沿岸的方向移动。直到1890年，西进运动正式结束。

● The Influence of American Westward Movement 西进运动的影响

The legacy of Westward Movement is a mix of great accomplishments and grim tragedies, heroic persistence and terrible errors. The contributions which the Westward Movement makes to the development of America could be seen in many aspects, such as economics, politics, religion, literature and education. Politically, it has helped establish the modern territory of the United States and lay the foundation of the modern United States. Economically, it has not only developed vast western lands, established the grain and fruit bases, and provided a vast domestic markets and adequate raw materials for industrial development, but also laid the foundation of industrial development, and changed the industrial structures and focus. Culturally, immigrants from different countries and nationalities integrated into a whole part and formed a unique national character.

Moreover, although the constitutions made by the newly established states in the West were more democratic than those of the Eastern states, they did not extend any democratic rights to Native Americans and other ethnic groups, such as African Americans, Hispanic Americans, and Asian Americans, who were discriminated in social and economic life and were very often prevented from voting by imposing on them the poll taxes, or literacy tests, etc. As for the white women, although they were granted the right to vote in 1920 through their efforts, they were not treated equally in many fields, such as opportunities for employment, education and housing, etc.

The Westward Movement plays a vital role in the formation, the development and the present situation of the United States of America. Especially its impact on American Culture, the Westward Movement has infiltrated the blood of the young nation.

西进运动的遗产，既有骄人的辉煌成就，也有辛酸的人间悲剧，既产生了史诗般的深远影响，也犯下了不可忽视的严重错误。对于美国的发展，西进运动的贡献是多方面的，包括经济、政治、宗教、文学和教育等诸方面。在政治上，它帮助建立了现代的美国领土，奠定了现代美国的基础。经济上，它不仅开发了西部广大的土地，建立了粮食和水果基地，并提供了广阔的国内市场，为工业发展提供充足的原料，同时也奠定了工业发展的基础，改变了产业结构和重点。文化上，来自不同国家和民族的移民相互融合形成了独特的民族性格。

另外，尽管在大部分西部新州都制定了比东部较为民主的宪法条款，但是它们所规定的民主权利却未能惠及印第安人和其他族裔的人们，他们因人头税和文化水平剥夺了选举权。虽然白人妇女通过艰苦的斗争最终于1920年赢得了选举权，她们还是不得不在就业、教育、住房等方面遭到严重的歧视。

西进运动对于美利坚民族的形成、发展与现状都起了重要的作用。尤其是它对美国的文化影响，更是渗透进了这个年轻民族的血液中。

● The Westward Movement and Pioneer Spirit 西进运动与拓荒精神

The frontier experience began when the first colonists settled on the east coast of the continent in the 1600s. It ended about 1890 when the last western lands were settled. There were some relatively unsettled regions in the frontier of the United States, most located in the western part of the country. Here, both land and life were more rugged and primitive than eastern parts with more settlers. As one frontier area was settled, people began moving farther west into the next unsettled area, sweeping aside the Native Americans as they went. By settling one frontier area after another, Americans moved across an entire continent that was 2700 miles wide. They came to believe that it was their destiny to control all the land, and eventually they did. The Native Americans were given small portions of land, called reservations

, to control, but the United State government broke many promises and brought many miseries to the Indian nations.

Although the American civilization took over and replaced the frontier more than a century ago, the heritage of the frontier is still evident in the United States today. For many years, the frontier experience was romanticized in popular movies and television shows that featured cowboy heroes fighting Indian villains . Many people are still fascinated by the frontier because it has been particularly important in shaping American values. However, little attention was given to the tragic story of what really happened to the Native Americans, at the same time there are few people who really know what kind of nation the American Indians are.

注

However, to be sure, the frontier provided many inspiring examples of hard work as forests were turned into towns, and towns into large cities. The competitive race for success was rarely more colorful or adventurous than on the western frontier. The rush for gold in California, for silver in Montana, and for fertile land in all the western territories provided endless stories of high adventure. Although daily life on the frontier was usually less dramatic than the frontier adventure stories would lead one to believe, even the ordinary daily life of frontier men and women exemplified national values in their own form.

注

Individualism, machismo , and equality of opportunity have perhaps been the values most closely associated with the frontier heritage of America.

17世纪第一批殖民者定居在大陆的东海岸，自此开始了他们的拓荒经历。到了1890年，当西部最后一片土地也有了定居者后，拓荒时代也随之结束了。美国的边远地区还包括一些相对来说无人居住的地区，大多分布在美国的西部。相对于居民较多的东部地区，这里的土地更荒凉，生命也更原始。当一个拓荒地区被开拓之后，人们就会向西部更远，尚无人定居的地方迁移，而且他们迁移时会把当地的美国土著人赶走。随着一个接一个定居点建立，美国人的足迹走遍了2,700英里的整个大陆。他们开始相信，控制所有的土地是命运对他们的安排，最后他们确做到了这一点。美国人也曾经给当地的印第安人留出了小部分土地，称为“居留地”，但是美国政府违背了自己许下的许多诺言，给整个印第安民族带来了许多灾难。

虽然一个多世纪以前美国文明就已经渗透到美国的各个边疆地区，但是许多边疆地区的传统至今在美国流行。多年来，受欢迎的电影和电视节目大多以与印第安坏蛋斗争的牛仔英雄为特色，以浪漫主义的手法描述了拓荒历史。由于这些边远地区的开拓在美国人的价值观的形成方面起到相当重要的作用，许多人至今仍对此非常着迷。然而，很少有人关心过在那些美国土著人身上到底发生了什么悲惨故事，也没有多少人能够说出美国印第安人到底是一个什么样的民族。

可以肯定的是，边远地区确实存在许多勤奋工作、鼓舞人心的范例，比如他们把森林变成了城镇，把城镇变成了城市。没有什么地方的竞争性比赛能像西部边疆地区这样丰富多彩且充满冒险精神。加利福尼亚的淘金热，蒙大拿州的淘银热，还有在西部领土上寻找肥沃土地的热潮都带来了数不尽的极度冒险的故事。尽管边远地区的日常生活并不像人们所想象的拓荒冒险故事那样具有戏剧性，但是生活在边远地区的这些人们同样用自己的方式表现了美国的基本价值观。

个人主义，男子气概和机会均等的价值观与美国拓荒精神有着非常紧密的联系。

2. "Cowboy is Busy": The Story of Cowboy “牛仔很忙”：西部牛仔的故事

During the colonial times, the cowboys were recognized as what they were— illiterate 注 , trespassers 注 on the public domain 注 , drifting from grazing ground to grazing ground, trailing their beasts 注 to markets. The herders 注 never became heroes.

During 1866 to 1886, the cowboy entered his twentyyear golden age. In Texas, cattle grew wild with few natural enemies; by the end of the Civil War, there were an estimated 5 million of them. The incentive was the high price of beef up North, where Union armies had exhausted the supply and the urbanizing East provided a ready market. A steer 注 which was worth four dollars in Texas was worth forty dollars in the North. Texans didn't miss this opportunity. The cowboy entered the era of the great cattle drives. Beginning in 1866 they began moving long lines of longhorns northward, with the primary destination being the railhead at Sedalia, Missouri. But the way was dangerous for cowboys. Indians and farmers who

their passage. Outlaws stole the cattle and were not averse 注 to killing the men driving them. By 1886, the railroads inched across the plains and headed on north, so the open-range cattle business had spread throughout the Great Plains.

The image of the courageous, spirited horseman living a dangerous life carried with it an appeal that refuses to disappear. Even their dress inspired envy: High-crowned with wide, floppy rims hats, the bandana  handkerchief tied around the neck, the collarless shirt and trousers, a vest  and the boots with heels  two inches high. Those clothes may have appeared exotic  to a dude , but they were absolutely practical.

By the mid-1880s prudent cattlemen realized that the industry was over expanded, the Great Plains overgrazed , and the open range was ended. However, the cowboy had become a part of the American psyche . Glorified in thousands of novels and hundreds of motion pictures, the American cowboy is so mythologized that the reality and the legend are almost inseparable. Those descriptions appealed to people and made the cowboy a folk hero, a half-real, half-mythological symbol of the American West. Yet the reality is that the cowboy still exists because his work is essential to the industry. The cowboy who hated to work unmounted was often reduced to riding a haymow, mending fences, and applying medicines to sick cattle. He may survey the ranchman's spread in a small airplane that he pilots, and he may help his employer determine with a computer matters of feed, weight, and salability

在殖民时代，牛仔通常被看成文盲，公共领域的侵入者，他们从一块土地到另一块土地进行游牧，把牲畜赶到城镇市场上出售。他们从来没有成为过英雄。

1866年至1886年，牛仔进入了20年的黄金时代。在德克萨斯州，牛很少有天敌，可以自然繁殖，南北战争结束时，野牛数量约为5百万头。北部牛肉因美国军队供给需求价格飙升，同时东部城市化发展提供了现成的市场。在德克萨斯州价值4美元的公牛，到了北部地区则价值40美元。德克萨斯人抓住了这一商机，牛仔进入了一个伟大牧牛人的时代。1866年起，他们开始赶着长角牛北上，到达密苏里州塞达里亚铁路终点站。但是对于牛仔们来说，这条道路充满了危机。印第安人和农民痛恨牛群践踏庄稼和由此带来可怕的德克萨斯热，因此阻止牛仔们通过他们的领地。他们还会遇到不但偷牛而且杀害牧牛人的歹徒。到1886年，随着新建的铁路逐渐穿越平原并继续向北延伸，大范围的放牧延伸到大平原地区。

牛仔通常与过着危险生活的英勇骑马人的形象相联系，这种形象已深入人心。甚至他们的着装都令人羡慕：高高的配有软盘帽檐的帽子，绕在脖子上的帕，无领上衣，裤子，马甲和有两英寸高的靴子。这些装束使他们看起来像个具有异域风情的花花公子，但绝对实用。

19世纪80年代中期，一些细心的牧牛人意识到，工业过度膨胀，大平原过度放牧，开放式放牧结束了。然而牛仔已经成为美国精神的一部分。成百上千部的小说和电影不断吹嘘和美化美国牛仔形象，以至于人们难以分辨现实和传说。这些描述使人们把牛仔看成一个民间英雄，一个美国西部的亦幻亦真的象征。然而，真实情况是，牛仔仍然存在，因为他们的工作是畜牧业必不可少的一部分。不想失业的牛仔便做着建造干草棚、修补围墙、用药物医治患病牲畜等工作。他可以驾驶小型飞机勘察牧场主的牧场情况，也可以通过电脑帮助雇主处理饲养，称重和销售等事宜。

3. Finding the Aborigines in America 寻找土著：美国印第安人

Many thousands of years before Christopher Columbus' ships landed in the Bahamas, a different group of people discovered America: the nomadic ancestors of modern Native Americans who hiked over a "land bridge" from Asia to what is now Alaska more than 12,000 years ago. In fact, by the time European adventurers arrived in the 15th century A.D., scholars estimate that more than 50 million people were already living in the Americas. Of these, some 10 million lived in the area that would become the United States. As time passed, these migrants and their descendants pushed south and east, adapting as they went. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, there are about 4.5 million Native Americans and Alaska Natives in the United States today. That's about 1.5 percent of the population.

An early crop the Native Americans grew was squash. Other early crops included cotton, sunflower, pumpkins, tobacco, goosefoot, knotgrass, etc. Though cultural features, language, clothing, and customs vary enormously from one tribe to another, there are certain elements which are encountered frequently and shared by many tribes. Early hunter-gatherer tribes made stone weapons from around

10,000 years ago; as the age of metallurgy dawned, newer technologies were used and more efficient weapons produced. Prior to contact with Europeans, most tribes used similar weaponry. The most common implements were the bow and arrow and the spear. Quality, material, and design varied widely. Native American use of fire both helped provide insects for food and altered the landscape of the continent to help the human population flourish.

In the sixteenth century, Spaniards and other Europeans brought horses to the Americas. The early American horse had been game for the earliest humans on the continent. Large mammals 注 like mammoths 注 and mastodons 注 were largely extinct 注 by around 8,000 B.C. Native Americans switched to hunting other large game, such as bison. The Great Plains tribes were still hunting the bison when they first encountered the Europeans. The Spanish reintroduction of the horse to North America in the 17th century and Native Americans' learning to use them greatly altered the natives' culture, including changing the way in which they hunted large game. The reintroduction of the horse to North America had a profound impact on Native American culture of the Great Plains. As they adopted use of the animals, they began to change their cultures in substantial ways, especially by extending their ranges. The tribes trained and used horses to ride and to carry packs or pull travois. The people fully incorporated the use of horses into their societies and expanded their territories. They used horses to carry goods for exchange with neighboring tribes, to hunt game, especially bison, and to conduct wars and horse raids. Some of the horses escaped and began to breed and increase their numbers in the wild. With the meeting of two worlds, animals, insects, and plants were exchanged between two. The sheep, pig, and cow were all Old World animals that were introduced to contemporary Native Americans who never knew such animals.

European impact was immediate, widespread, and profound—more than any other race that had contact with Native Americans during the early years of colonization and nationhood. Europeans living among Native Americans were often called "white Indians". They lived in native communities for years, learned native languages fluently, attended native councils, and often fought alongside their native companions. Early contact was often charged with tension and emotion, but also had moments of friendship, cooperation, and intimacy. Marriages took place in English, Spanish, and French colonies between European men and Native women. European colonization of the Americas led to centuries of conflict and adjustment between Old and New World societies. Most of the written historical record about Native Americans was made by Europeans after initial contact. Native Americans lived in hunter/farmer subsistence societies with significantly different value systems than those of the European colonists. The differences in culture between the Native Americans and Europeans, and the shifting alliances among different nations of each culture, led to great misunderstandings and long-lasting cultural conflicts.

在克里斯托弗·哥伦布的船只登陆巴哈马群岛的数千年前，另一行人发现了美洲：12,000年前，现代美国原著居民的游牧祖先徒步通过“大陆桥”从亚洲来到如今的阿拉斯加。事实上，学者们估计，当公元15世纪欧洲探险者来到美洲大陆时，已经有超过5,000万人在美洲生活。其中，有1,000万人居住在现在的美国。随着时间的流逝，这些移民及其后裔向南部和东部挺进，并适应那里的环境。根据美国人口普查局的数字统计，如今大约有450万美洲和阿拉斯加原著居民生活在美国，约占总人口数的1.5%。

美洲原著居民早期种植的作物为南瓜小果。其他早期作物包括棉花、向日葵、南瓜、烟草、藜、两耳草等。虽然各个部落之间的文化特色、语言、服饰、习俗差异很大，但许多部落也有许多相同的地方。早期的狩猎采集部落约1万年前就开始制作石质武器；冶金时代，已经开始使用新技术更有效地进行武器制造。与欧洲人接触之前，大部分部落使用的武器都很相似。最常见的用具是弓箭和矛，但质量、材料和设计差别很大。美国原著居民用火烤昆虫食用和改变大陆面貌，这些都有助于人口的繁衍。

16世纪，西班牙人和其他欧洲人把马匹带到美洲。这片大陆上早期的美洲马是用来狩猎的。约公元前8000年左右，美洲原著居民开始狩猎野牛等大型动物，导致猛犸象和乳齿象等大型哺乳动物的大量灭绝。当大平原部落首次遇到欧洲人时仍在狩猎野牛。17世纪西班牙人将马再次引入北美，马的使用极大地改变了美洲原著居民文化，包括改变了他们狩猎的方式。马再次引入北美对大平原部落的美洲原著居民文化产生深远影响。他们适应了动物的使用，开始在物质方式上改变文化，特别是扩大他们的范围。他们训练马来骑、驮包裹或拉雪橇。人们完全将马匹的使用纳入日常生活并用其扩大领土。他们用马匹驮货物与周边部落进行贸易交换，狩猎（尤其是野牛），并进行战争和马袭。有些马逃脱，并开始繁殖，这样，野生马的数量大量增加。随着两个世界的接触，动物、昆虫和植物也互相进行交换。羊、猪、牛等旧世界的动物，被介绍给了当时对此一无所知的美洲原著居民。

欧洲人对美洲的影响是直接的，广泛的，深刻的——他们在殖民和建国初期比其他任何种族与印第

4. Famous Western Cities: Los Angeles and San Francisco 西部著名城市：洛杉矶和旧金山

● San Francisco 旧金山

Geography and climate 地理和气候

San Francisco, officially the City and County of San Francisco, is the financial, cultural, and transportation center of the San Francisco Bay Area, a region of 7.15 million people which includes San Jose and Oakland. San Francisco is the fourth most populous city in California and the 13th most populous city in the United States, with a population of 805,235 as of the 2010 Census.

San Francisco's climate is characteristic of the cool-summer Mediterranean climate of California's coast, generally characterized by moist mild winters and dry summers." Since it is surrounded on three sides by water, San Francisco's weather is strongly influenced by the cool currents of the Pacific Ocean. During the summer, rising hot air in California's interior valleys creates a low pressure area that draws winds from the North Pacific High through the Golden Gate, which creates the city's characteristic cool winds and fog. The fog is less pronounced in eastern neighborhoods and during the late summer and early fall, which is the warmest time of the year.

旧金山，官方称之为圣弗朗西斯科，是旧金山湾地区金融、文化中心和交通枢纽，其中旧金山湾地区包括圣何塞和奥克兰，拥有715万人口。旧金山是加利福尼亚州第4和全国第13人口大市，据2010年的人口统计，旧金山拥有近805,235人口。

旧金山的气候特征是夏季凉爽的地中海式气候，一般表现为冬季温和多雨，夏季干燥。由于三面环水，旧金山的气候在夏季深受太平洋暖流的影响，在加利福尼亚内部山谷形成的热气流导致了低气压的形成，同时它与通过“金门”的北太平洋高压带所形成的气流相遇，因此形成了旧金山凉风和浓雾的特征。旧金山东部毗邻区的雾天很少，晚夏和早秋是旧金山最温暖的时期。

The History of San Francisco 旧金山的历史

On March 28, 1776, the Spanish established the Presidio of San Francisco, followed by a mission, Mission San Francisco de Asís. Upon independence from Spain in 1821, the area became part of Mexico. Under Mexican rule, the mission system gradually ended and its lands began to be privatized. Commodore John D. Sloat claimed California for the United States on July 7, 1846, during the Mexican-American War, and Captain John B. Montgomery arrived to claim Yerba Buena two days later. Yerba Buena was renamed San Francisco on January 30 of the next year, and Mexico officially ceded the territory to the United States at the end of the war.

The California Gold Rush brought a flood of treasure seekers. With their sourdough bread in tow, prospectors accumulated in San Francisco over rival Benicia, raising the population from 1,000 in 1848 to 25,000 by December 1849. The promise of fabulous riches was so strong that crews on arriving vessels deserted and rushed off to the gold fields, leaving behind a forest of masts in San Francisco harbor. California was quickly granted statehood, and the U.S. military built Fort Point at the Golden Gate to secure the San Francisco Bay. Silver discoveries, including the Comstock Lode in 1859, further drove rapid population growth. With hordes of fortune seekers streaming through the city, lawlessness was common as a haven for criminals, prostitution, and gambling.

Early winners were the banking industry which saw the founding of Wells Fargo in 1852 and the Bank of California in 1864. Development of the port of San Francisco and the establishment in 1869 of overland access to the Eastern U.S. rail system via the newly completed Pacific Railroad helped make the Bay Area a center for trade. Immigrant laborers made the city a polyglot culture, with Chinese railroad workers creating the city's Chinatown quarter. In 1870, Asians made up 8% of the population.

On April 18, 1906, a major earthquake struck San Francisco and northern California. As buildings collapsed from the shaking, ruptured gas lines ignited fires that would spread across the city and burn out of control for several days. More than half the city's population of 400,000 were left homeless. Rebuilding was rapid and performed on a grand scale. In 1929, it was at the height of the Great Depression that San Francisco undertook two great civil engineering projects, simultaneously constructing the San Francisco – Oakland Bay Bridge and the Golden Gate Bridge, completing them in 1936 and 1937 respectively. Urban planning projects in the 1950s and 1960s involved the construction of new freeways, of which only a series of short segments were built before being halted by citizen-led opposition. The Transamerica Pyramid was completed in 1972, and in the 1980s the Manhattanization of San Francisco saw extensive high-rise development downtown. San Francisco began to turn to tourism as the most important segment of its economy.

1776年3月28日，西班牙建立了旧金山总督区，为圣弗朗西斯科·迪戈加西亚所管辖。1821年，从西班牙独立后，这片区域成为墨西哥的一部分。在墨西哥的统治下，原先的管辖体制逐渐崩溃，土地逐渐私有化。在美墨战争中，约翰·D. 斯洛特在1846年7月7日宣称加利福尼亚是美国的一部分，两天后，约翰·B. 蒙哥马利司令将此地命名为芳草。1847年1月30日，芳草改名为圣弗朗西斯科，在战争结束后，墨西哥正式将这片领土割让给美国。

加利福尼亚淘金热引来了财富寻求者的浪潮。他们用拖车拉着食物来到这里，于是探矿者逐渐增多，人口从1848年的1,000人增加到1849年12月的25,000人。致富的神话吸引了更多的淘金者乘船来到这里寻求财富。加利福尼亚迅速成为了国家的宝藏，美军在金门建立了海军基地来保卫旧金山湾的安全。银矿的发现，包括1859年康斯托克矿脉的发现，引起了进一步的人口增长。随着大批淘金者来到旧金山市，违法行为日益猖獗，成为了犯罪、强奸和赌博的“天堂”。

早期的获益者是银行业，如1852成立的威尔斯法戈银行和1864成立的加利福尼亚银行。旧金山港口的发展和1869年建立的由陆路、连接美国东部铁路系统的新落成的太平洋铁路使旧金山湾地区成为了一个贸易中心。移民劳动者使得城市的文化多元化，例如中国的铁路工人在此创建了唐人街区。1870年，亚洲移民占旧金山人口的比重达到了8%。

1906年4月18日，一场大地震冲击了旧金山和加利福尼亚北部地区。房屋被地震摧毁，由于天然气管道破裂引发火灾蔓延到整个城市，且持续了很多天。城市一半多的人口，约40万人无家可归。旧金山较快的完成了大规模的重建工作。1929年，在大萧条中，旧金山进行了两个大规模的土木工程项目，同时修建了旧金山·奥克兰湾大桥和金门大桥，并在1936年和1937年先后完工。20世纪五六十年代的城市规划计划包括兴建新的高速公路，由于民众的反对，工程只在建成了一部分就被迫停止了。1972年，修建了泛美金字塔，并在20世纪80年代旧金山的曼哈顿看到高度发展的城市区域。从此，旧金山开始把旅游业视为经济的重要部分。

Humanities in San Francisco 人文旧金山

Although the centralized commerce and shopping districts of the Financial District and the area around Union Square are well-known around the world, San Francisco is also characterized by its culturally rich streetscapes featuring mixed-use neighborhoods anchored around central commercial corridors to which residents and visitors alike can walk. Because of these characteristics, San Francisco was rated "most walkable" city. Many neighborhoods feature a mix of businesses, restaurants and venues that cater to both the daily needs of local residents while also serving many visitors and tourists.

The international character San Francisco has fostered since its founding is continued today by large numbers of immigrants from Asia and Latin America. With 39% of its residents born overseas, in particular, the arrival of many ethnic Chinese, which accelerated beginning in the 1970s, has complemented the long-established community historically based in Chinatown throughout the city and has transformed the annual Chinese New Year Parade into the largest event of its kind outside China.

虽然以集中了商业和购物的金融区的联合广场而闻名世界，然而旧金山的另一个特点是其商业走廊具有丰富的多元文化特色，同时民众和游客都可以在这里漫步。由于这些特点，旧金山被评为“最适合散步”的城市。许多社区混合了商业、餐饮和场馆性的功能，其不但满足了当地居民的日常需求，同时也为许多来访者和游客提高了方便。

旧金山的国际化特征从其建立起就一直延续至今，大量的亚洲和拉丁美洲的移民体现了这点。39%的居民出生于海外，特别是许多来自中国的移民。在1970年代初，移民步伐加快，使具有长期历史的唐人街的规模扩大，将中国春节的大游行活动带到了海外。

Chinatown 唐人街

San Francisco's Chinatown is the oldest Chinatown in North America and the largest Chinese community outside Asia. Since its establishment in 1848, it has been highly important and influential in the history and culture of ethnic Chinese immigrants to the United States and North America. Chinatown is an active enclave that continues to retain its own customs, languages, places of worship, social clubs, and identity. Popularly known as a "city-within-a-city", it has developed its own government, traditions, over 300 restaurants, and as many shops. There are two hospitals, numerous parks and squares, a post office, and other infrastructure. Visitors can easily become immersed in a microcosmic Asian world, filled with herbal shops, temples, pagoda roofs and dragon parades. In addition to it being a starting point and home for thousands of Chinese immigrants, it is also a major tourist attraction — drawing more visitors annually to the neighborhood than the Golden Gate Bridge.

Unlike in most Chinatowns in North America, ethnic Chinese refugees from Vietnam have not established businesses in San Francisco's Chinatown district.

旧金山的唐人街是北美历史最悠久、也是亚洲外最大的华人聚居区。自1848建立以来，它一直对北美和美国的华人移民具有深远的历史和文化影响。唐人街是一块延续自身习俗、语言、宗教、社会组织和身份认同的文化活跃地。俗称“城中城”，拥有了自己的政府组织和习俗，超过300家餐馆和许多家商店。这里有两家医院、公园、广场、邮局和其他基础设施。参观者在遍布中药店、寺庙、宝塔屋顶和巨龙游行里徜徉，很容易沉浸在微型亚洲世界中。此外，它是数以千计中国移民的生活起点和家之所在。唐人街也是一个主要的旅游景点，其吸引的游客人数超过了金门大桥。与北美其他的唐人街不同，由于旧金山高昂的物价和房租，来自越南的华裔难民没有在旧金山的唐人街从事商业活动。

● Los Angeles 洛杉矶

Overview of Los Angeles 洛杉矶概况

Los Angeles with a population at the 2010 United States Census of 3,792,621, is the most populous city in the state of California, and the second most populous in the United States, after New York City. It has an area of 468.67 square miles (1,213.8 km²), and is located in Southern California. Los Angeles is also the seat of Los Angeles County, the most populated and one of the most ethnically diverse counties in the United States, while the entire Los Angeles area itself has been recognized as the most diverse of the nation's largest cities. The city's inhabitants are referred to as "Angelenos".

Nicknamed the City of Angels, Los Angeles is a world center of business, international trade, entertainment, culture, media, fashion, science, sports, technology, and education. It is home to renowned institutions covering a broad range of professional and cultural fields and is one of the most substantial economic engines within the United States. Los Angeles has been ranked the third richest city and fifth most powerful and influential city in the world. The Los Angeles combined statistical area (CSA) has a gross metropolitan product (GMP) of $831 billion (as of 2008), making it the third largest economic center in the world, after the Greater Tokyo and New York metropolitan areas. As the home base of Hollywood, it is also known as the "Entertainment Capital of the World," leading the world in the creation of television and stage production, motion pictures, video games, and recorded music. The importance of the entertainment business to the city has led many celebrities to call Los Angeles and its surrounding suburbs home. Additionally, Los Angeles hosted the 1932 and 1984 Summer Olympics.

根据2010年美国人口普查，洛杉矶人口为3,792,621，是加利福尼亚州人口最多的城市，美国人口第二多的城市，仅次于纽约。洛杉矶面积为468.67平方英里（1,213.8平方公里），位于加利福尼亚南部。在美国，洛杉矶的人口最为稠密，是种族最为多样化的城市之一，而整个洛杉矶地区本身已被公认为美国最大城市中最多样化的城市。城市的居民常被称为“洛杉矶人”。

洛杉矶绰号“天使之城”，是商业、国际贸易，娱乐、文化、媒体、时尚、科技、体育、科技和教育的一个世界中心。洛杉矶拥有广泛的行业和文化领域，也是美国重要的“经济引擎”。洛杉矶一直被评为世界第三富有城市和世界第五大具有实力和影响力的城市。洛杉矶联合统计区的总体城市产值达到了8,310亿美元（2008年），是世界第三大经济中心，仅次于大东京地区和纽约大都会地区。好莱坞被称为“世界娱乐之都”，它引领着世界电视娱乐、舞台制作、电影、视频游戏和音乐录制的发展”。对于这座城市，娱乐行业很重要，吸引了很多名人到洛杉矶以及郊区定居。此外，洛杉矶曾举办过1932年和1984年的夏季奥运会。

Los Angeles is often billed as the "Creative Capital of the World", due to the fact that one in every six of its residents works in a creative industry. There are more artists, writers, filmmakers, actors, dancers and musicians living and working in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles is home to Hollywood, globally recognized as the epicenter of the motion picture industry. A testament to its preeminence in film, the city plays host to the annual Academy Awards, the oldest and one of the most prominent award ceremonies in the world. Finally, Los Angeles is home to the USC School of Cinematic Arts, the oldest film school in the United States.

The performing arts play a major role in Los Angeles' cultural identity. According to the USC Stevens Institute for Innovation, "there are more than 1,100 annual theatrical productions and 21 openings every week." The Los Angeles Music Center is "one of the three largest performing arts centers in the nation," with more than 1.3 million visitors per year. The Walt Disney Concert Hall, centerpiece of the Music Center, is home to the prestigious Los Angeles Philharmonic. Notable organizations such as Center Theatre Group, the Los Angeles Master Chorale, and the Los Angeles Opera are also resident companies of the Music Center. Talent is locally cultivated at premier institutions such as the Colburn School and the USC Thornton School of Music.

There are 841 museums and art galleries in Los Angeles County. In fact, Los Angeles has more museums per capita than any other city in the world. Some of the notable museums are the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, the Getty Center and the Museum of Contemporary Art. A significant number of art galleries are located on Gallery Row, and tens of thousands attend the monthly Downtown Art Walk there.

Los Angeles is also the center of sports and education. Los Angeles is the home of the Los Angeles Dodgers of Major League Baseball, the Los Angeles Kings of the National Hockey League, the Los Angeles Clippers and Los Angeles Lakers of the National Basketball Association, and the Los Angeles Sparks of the Women's National Basketball Association. There are three public universities located within the city limits: California State University, Los Angeles, California State University, Northridge and University of California, Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Public Library system operates 72 public libraries in the city. Enclaves of unincorporated areas are served by the County of Los Angeles Public Library, many are within walking distance to City of Los Angeles residents.

洛杉矶常被称为“世界娱乐之都”，因为每六个市民就有一个人从事娱乐业。很多艺术家、作家、导演、演员、舞蹈家和音乐家的生活和工作在洛杉矶。

洛杉矶是好莱坞的所在地，是全球公认的电影产业中心。一项评选优秀电影的盛会——奥斯卡金像奖，每年都要评选一次，是最古老和最重要的颁奖典礼之一。美国最早的电影学院——电影艺术学院位于洛杉矶。

大师合唱团和洛杉矶歌剧等音乐公司的驻地。洛杉矶杰出的教育机构如科尔伯恩学院和南加州大学的松顿音乐学院孕育了许多人才。

洛杉矶有841个博物馆和艺术画廊。实际上，洛杉矶人均博物馆占有量高于世界其他城市。洛杉矶拥有一些著名的博物馆，包括洛杉矶郡立美术馆、盖蒂中心和现代美术馆。画廊街有很多艺术馆，每个月都有数以千计的人在那里漫步。

Economy and Transportation 经济与交通

The economy of Los Angeles is driven by international trade, entertainment, aerospace, technology, petroleum, fashion, apparel, and tourism. Los Angeles is also the largest manufacturing center in the western United States. The city is home to seven Fortune 500 companies.

The intercity transportation system in Los Angeles serves as a regional, national and international hub for passenger and freight traffic. The system includes the United States' largest port complex, an extensive freight and passenger rail infrastructure, numerous airports and an extensive highway system. The city also has a busy intracity transportation system composed of numerous freeways, roads, bus lines, light rail lines, and subway lines. In the Los Angeles metropolitan area there are six commercial airports and many more general-aviation airports. The primary Los Angeles airport is Los Angeles International Airport (LAX). The fifth busiest commercial airport in the world and the third busiest in the United States, LAX handled 61.9 million passengers, 1.884 million metric tons of cargo and 680,954 aircraft movements in 2007. The Port of Los Angeles along with the Port of Long Beach comprise the largest seaport complex in the United States and the fifth busiest in the world. Over 11 percent of United States international trade (by value) passes through the Los Angeles region and it the Los Angeles customs district collects over 37 percent of the nation's import duties.

洛杉矶的经济支柱是国际贸易、科技、娱乐、航天、石油、时尚、服装和旅游等行业。它也是美国西部最大的制造业中心，同时也是7个世界500强企业的总部所在地。

广阔的客运货运铁路网、发达的航空和高速公路系统组成。城市内部也是一个繁忙的交通系统，这个系统由许多高速公路、公交、轻轨线路与地铁线路组成。在洛杉矶市区有6个商业机场和许多个普通航空机场，其主要机场是洛杉矶国际机场。洛杉矶机场是世界第5美国第3大繁忙的机场，在2007年，接待旅客达到6,190万人次，装卸货物达188.4万吨和680,954万架飞机架次。洛杉矶港口和长滩港构成了美国的最大海港。洛杉矶地区承担了超过11%美国国际贸易量，洛杉矶海关的进口关税占美国总关税的37%。

5. Everyone Comes here for Gold 大家都来这里淘金

The California Gold Rush (1848–1855) began on January 24, 1848, when gold was discovered by James W. Marshall at Sutter's Mill, in Coloma, California. News of the discovery brought some 300,000 people coming to California from the rest of the United States and abroad. Of the 300,000, approximately 150,000 arrived by sea while the others traveled overland. By the end of 1849, the non-native population of the California territory was some 100,000 (compared with the pre-1848 figure of less than 1,000). A total of $2 billion worth of precious metal was extracted from the area during the Gold Rush, which peaked in 1852.

On January 24, 1848, James Wilson Marshall, a carpenter originally from New Jersey, found flakes of gold in the American River at the base of the Sierra Nevada Mountains near Coloma, California. Though Marshall and Sutter tried to keep news of the discovery under wraps, word got out, and by midMarch at least one newspaper was reporting that large quantities of gold were being turned up at Sutter's Mill. Though the initial reaction in San Francisco was disbelief, storekeeper Sam

Brannan set off frenzy when he paraded through town displaying a vial of gold obtained from Sutter's Creek. By midJune, some three-quarters of the male population of San Francisco had left town for the gold mines, and the number of miners in the area reached 4,000 by August.

As news spread of the fortunes being made in California, the first migrants to arrive were those from lands accessible by boat, such as Oregon, the Sandwich Islands (now Hawaii), Mexico, Chile, Peru and even China. Only later would the news reach the East Coast, where press reports were initially skeptical

. Gold fever kicked off there in earnest, however, after December 1848, when President James K.

Polk announced the positive results, the pan golden development quickly in his inaugural address

Throughout 1849, people around the United States (mostly men) borrowed money, mortgaged their property or spent their life savings to make the arduous journey to California. In pursuit of the kind of wealth they had never dreamed of, they left their families and hometowns; in turn, women left behind took on new responsibilities such as running farms or businesses and caring for their children alone. Thousands of would-be gold miners, known as 1849 gold miners, traveled overland across the mountains or by sea, sailing to Panama or even around Cape Horn, the southernmost point of South America.

By the end of the year, the non-native population of California was estimated at 100,000, (as compared with 20,000 at the end of 1848 and around 800 in March 1848). To accommodate the needs of the , 49ers, gold mining towns had sprung up all over the region, complete with shops, saloons, brothels and other businesses seeking to make their own Gold Rush fortune. The overcrowded chaos of the mining camps and towns grew ever more lawless, including rampant banditry, gambling , prostitution and violence. San Francisco, for its part, developed a bustling economy and became the central metropolis of the new frontier.

The effects of the Gold Rush were substantial. San Francisco grew from a small settlement to a boomtown, and roads, churches, schools and other towns were built throughout California. After a period of rule by the U.S. Army, settlers wrote a constitution and California became a state in 1850 as part of the Compromise of 1850. New methods of transportation developed as steamships came into regular service and railroads were built. Agriculture and ranching expanded throughout the state to meet the needs of the settlers. The Gold Rush also had negative effects: Native Americans were attacked and pushed off traditional lands and gold mining caused environmental harm.

加利福尼亚淘金场

1848年1月24日，詹姆斯·威尔逊·马歇尔，一个来自新泽西的木匠，在加州科洛马附近的内华达山脉脚下的美国河中发现了黄金片。虽然马歇尔和萨特试图隐瞒发现金矿的消息，但还是走漏了风声，3月中旬不止一家报纸报道了在萨特工厂发现大量黄金的消息。尽管居住在旧金山的人最初不相信这一消息，但当店主萨姆·布兰南在镇里炫耀展示他从萨特的河里得到的一瓶金子的时候，淘金狂潮便一发不可收拾。6月中旬，旧金山3/4的男性离家去寻找金矿，8月份该地区淘金者数量达到4,000人。

随着加州发现金子的消息的传播，第一批移民乘船前往加州，这些人主要来自俄勒冈，三明治群岛（现在的夏威夷）、墨西哥、智利、秘鲁，甚至中国。稍后这个消息传到东海岸，最初那里的新闻报道对此持怀疑态度。然而1848年12月以后，总统詹姆斯·K·波尔克在其就职演说中公告了此事，淘金热在那里迅猛展开。

1849年，美国人（男性居多）纷纷借钱、抵押财产或用自己毕生积蓄，长途跋涉到加州淘金。为了追求他们做梦也没想到的财富，他们远离家人和家乡，留下的妇女则独自承担了经营农场、打理生

意、照顾子女的重任。这些数以千计的想成为淘金的人被称为1849年淘金者，他们航行到巴拿马，甚至南美洲的最南端——好望角。

1849年底，加利福尼亚州的非本地人口约10万（1848年年底到达20,000人，而1848年3月仅约800人）。为了满足1849年淘金者的需要，该地区的采金城镇到处都是商店、酒吧、妓院和力求在淘金热中发大财的其他生意。采矿营地拥挤不堪、城镇秩序混乱：土匪、赌博、卖淫、暴力猖獗。另一方面，旧金山因淘金热而繁荣起来，成为新边疆的中央大都市。

淘金热的影响是巨大的。旧金山一夜之间从一个小村落发展成为一个市镇；道路、教堂、学校 and 新的市镇相继在加州出现。在美军统治一段时间后，定居者制定了宪法，作为1850年的协议的一部分，加利福尼亚正式成为美国的一个州。交通工具不断获得新发展，蒸汽船成为常见的运输工具，亦兴建了大量铁路。农业和畜牧业在全国范围内推广以满足定居者的需要。淘金热也带来了不良的后果：美洲土著居民受到残忍地攻击，甚至被赶离自己的家园；大量的采矿亦造成环境破坏。

理解美国必先理解美国人的精神。发现新大陆之后，来自欧洲的移民为美国带来了自由、自立和自我完善等宝贵的精神遗产，这些精神遗产一直为美国人所传承。“平等”“竞争”等价值作为美国精神的核心到现代时却有所蜕化，崇尚物质和消极颓废的思想开始蔓延美国。

1. The Spiritual Heritage of the Early Settlers 早期移民者的精神遗产

The earliest settlers came to the North American continent to establish colonies which were free from the controls that existed in European societies. In 1776, the British colonial settlers declared their independence from England and established a new nation, the United States of America. Generally speaking, the lack of any established national religion in America appealed strongly to European Protestants. A large number of Protestants denominations were established in America. In 1789, when they wrote the Constitution for their new nation, they separated church and state so that there would never be a government-supported church. This greatly limited the power of the church. Also, in writing the Constitution they expressly forbade to ensure that an aristocratic society would not develop. The historic decisions made by those first settlers have had a profound effect on the shaping of the American character.

最早一批移民来到北美大陆，他们试图在此建立一个脱离欧洲殖民者统治的地区。1776年，美国殖民地定居者宣布脱离英国，建立一个独立的新国家——美利坚合众国。一般来说，由于美国没有任何形式的国家宗教，这强烈的吸引了欧洲新教徒的到来。由此，大量的信教派别在美国建立起来。1789年，当他们为这个刚刚成立的新国家制定宪法时，主张政教分离，这样政府支持的教会就再也不存在了。1789年宪法禁止政府建立国教；任何宗教都不能凌驾于别的宗教之上。这在很大程度上限制了教会的权利。另外，在制定宪法时，他们还特别注明取消贵族头衔，这就彻底杜绝了贵族阶级社会的产生和发展。这些早期定居者所做出的这一历史性的决定对美国人性格特征的形成产生了深远的影响。

By limiting the power of the government and the churches and eliminating 注 a formal aristocracy, the early settlers created a climate 注 of freedom where the emphasis was on the individual. The United States came to be associated in their minds with the concept of individual freedom. This is probably the most basic of all the American values. By freedom, Americans mean the desire and the right of all individuals to control their own destiny without outside interference 注 from the government, a ruling noble class, the church, or any other organized authority. The desire to be free of controls was a basic value of the new nation in 1776, and it has continued to attract immigrants to this country. Scholars and outside observers often call this value individualism, but many Americans used the word freedom. It is one of the most respected and popular words in the United States today.

● Self-reliance 自立

Individuals must learn to rely on themselves or risk losing freedom. Traditionally, this means achieving both financial and emotional independence from their parents as early as possible, usually by age eighteen or twenty-one. It means that Americans believe they should take care of themselves and solve their own problems.

This strong believe in self-reliance continued today as a traditional basic American value. It is perhaps one of the most difficult aspects of the American character to understand, but it is profoundly important. Most Americans believe that they must be self-reliant in order to keep their freedom. If they rely too much on the support of their families or the government or any organization, they may lose some of their freedom to do what they want.

Adult children return home to live with their parents because of economic conditions or a failed marriage. Parents are usually happy to help out, but most members of the family expect this to be a short-term arrangement. When people are dependent, they risk losing freedom and they may also lose the respect of their peers. In order to be in the mainstream of American life—to have power and respect—individuals must be seem as self-reliant.

每个人必须学会自力更生，否则将有失去自由的风险。传统意义上讲，这意味着要尽早地离开父母，走出家门，获得经济和精神上的独立，这个时间一般是在18岁到21岁之间。这也同样意味着美国人的信念：即自己照顾自己，自己解决自己的问题。

作为美国传统价值观的基本组成部分，这种对自立的坚定不移的信念直到今天仍是影响美国人的重要因素，它可能是美国人性格中最让人难以理解的一面，但也是最重要的一面。大部分美国人都坚信：要想拥有自由必须自立，如果他们过分依赖于家庭、政府或其他组织，那么他们可能就会丧失自由的权利。

有些成年的孩子会因为经济问题或失败的婚姻而返回家中同父母住在一起。父母当然愿意提供帮助，但是大部分家庭成员都希望这只是暂时的。因为当人们依靠别人而生存时，他们将会丧失自由，也会丧失同伴和社会对自己的尊重。要想真正融入美国的主流生活（拥有权力和他人的尊敬），每个人必须看上去足够自立。

● Self-improvement 自我完善

One of the most important values associated with American Protestantism is the value of self-improvement. Protestants do not go to priests for forgiveness of their sins; individuals are left alone before God to improve themselves and ask for God's guidance, forgiveness, and grace. For this reason, Protestantism has traditionally encouraged a strong and restless desire for self-improvement.

The need for self-improvement, once established, reaches far beyond self-improvement in the purely moral or religious sense. It can be seen in countless books which explain how people can be happier and more successful in life by improving everything from their vocabulary to their tennis games, or even their whole personality. Books of this type are often referred to as “self-help” books, and many are best sellers. They are the natural products of a culture in which people believe that “God helps those who help themselves.”

In addition, Americans attend thousands of self-help seminars and support group meetings to help them stop smoking or drinking, lose weight, be better parents, have happier relationships, and develop self-confidence.

The achievement of material success is probably the most wildly respected form of self-improvement in the United States. Some of the early European Protestant leaders believed that people who were blessed by God might be recognized in the world by their material success. Other church leaders, especially in the United States, made an even stronger connection between gaining material wealth and being blessed by God. American religious leaders, however, never encouraged the idea of gaining wealth without hard work and selfdiscipline. Many scholars believe that the emphasis on these two values made an important contribution to the industrial growth of the United States.

在与美国新教会相关的价值观中，最重要的一个是自我完善的价值观。新教信徒并不去找牧师求得对自己罪孽的宽恕；它要求人们独立面对上帝，改进自身，并请求上帝的引导、宽恕和怜悯。由于这种原因，新教在传统上就对自我完善有一种强烈和无休止的渴望。

在美国，取得物质上的成就可能是最受尊重的自我完善的形式。一些早期欧洲的新教领导人认为，受到上帝保佑的人只有通过其物质上的成功才有可能被世人所认可。其他的宗教领导人，特别是在美国，把获得物质财富和受到上帝的保佑联系得更加紧密。然而，美国的宗教领导人从不鼓励在未经过勤奋工作和自我约束的前提下取得财富的理念。许多学者认为，对这两种价值观的重视为美国的工业发展做出了重要的贡献。

2. The Time Value in American 美国人的时间观

What is time? Is it a thing to be saved or spent or wasted, like money? Or is it something we have no control over, like the weather? Is time the same all over the world? That's an easy question, you say. Wherever you go, a minute is 60 seconds, an hour is 60 minutes, a day is 24 hours, and so forth. Well, maybe. But in America, time is more than that. Americans see time as a valuable resource. Maybe that's why they are fond of the expression, "Time is money."

Because Americans believe time is a limited resource, they try to conserve and manage it. People in the U.S. often attend seminars or read books on time management. It seems they all want to organize their time better. Professionals carry around pocket planners-some in electronic form-to keep track of appointments and deadlines. People do all they can to squeeze more life out of their time. The early American hero Benjamin Franklin expressed this view best: "Do you love life? Then do not waste time, for that is the stuff life is made of."

To Americans, punctuality is a way of showing respect for other people's time. Being more than 10 minutes late to an appointment usually calls for an apology, and maybe an explanation. People who are running late often call ahead to let others know of the delay. Of course, the less formal the situation, the less important it is to be exactly on time. At informal get-togethers, for example, people often arrive as much as 30 minutes past the appointed time. But they usually don't try that at work.

American lifestyles show how much people respect the time of others. When people plan an event, they often set the time days or weeks in advance. Once the time is fixed, it takes almost an emergency to change it. If people want to come to your house for a friendly visit, they will usually call first to make sure it is convenient. Only very close friends will just "drop by" unannounced. Also, people hesitate to call others late at night for fear they might be in bed. The time may vary, but most folks think twice about calling after 10:00 p.m.

To outsiders, Americans seem tied to the clock. People in other cultures value relationships more than schedules. In these societies, people don't try to control time, but to experience it. Many Eastern cultures, for example, view time as a cycle. The rhythm of nature—from the passing of the seasons to the monthly cycle of the moon—shapes their view of events. People learn to respond to their environment. As a result, they find it easier to "go with the flow" than Americans, who like plans to be fixed and unchangeable.

Even Americans would admit that no one can master time. Time-like money slips all too easily through our fingers. And time-like the weather—is very hard to predict. Nevertheless, time is one of life's most precious gifts. And unwrapping it is half the fun.

时间是什么？是一种像金钱一样可以节省、花用或浪费的东西吗？或者它像天气那样，是一种我们无法掌握的东西？全世界的时间是不是都一样呢？你会说，那是一个简单的问题，不管你去那里，一分钟都是60秒，一小时是60分钟，一天是24个小时，以此类推。嗯，也许是这样吧。但是在美国，时间的意义不只是如此而已。美国人视时间为一项重要的资源，也许这就是为什么他们喜欢说“时间就是金钱”的缘故。

对美国人来说，守时是一种尊重他人时间的表现。通常若约会迟到超过10分钟，就应该向对方道歉或解释原因。知道自己会迟到的人往往会先打个电话，让对方知道自己会晚一点到。当然，会面场合愈不正式，精确准时的重要性就愈小。举例来说，在非正式的聚会中，人们往往会在约定时间过后30分钟才到，不过，他们上班通常就不会这样做。

美国人的生活型态表现出他们对别人的时间有多尊重。当人们在计划一项活动时，通常会在几天或几个星期前把时间定好。时间一旦决定，除非情况紧急，否则不会轻易改变。如果有人想到家里拜访你，他们通常会先打电话过来，以确定你是否方便，只有很熟的朋友才会未经通知就突然造访。同时，人们也不太喜欢太晚打电话给别人，因为怕对方已经上床睡觉了。何时才算太晚并不一定，不过，大部分的人若想在晚上10点钟以后打电话，都会再三考虑。

对外人而言，美国人似乎很依赖时钟；其它文化背景出身的人则看重人际关系甚于时间表。在那些社会型态中，人们不会设法去控制时间，而是去经历享受它。举例来说，很多东方文化把时间视为一个周期。从季节的更替到每个月亮圆缺变化的周期，这些大自然的节奏塑造了他们对事情的看法。人们学习去因应环境的变化，因此他们比美国人更容易视情境而作弹性的应变；而美国人则喜

不过连美国人都承认，没有人能够完全掌握时间。时间就像金钱一样，很容易就从我们的指间溜走；时间也像天气一样，是很难预测的。然而，时间是生命中最宝贵的礼物之一，而拆开（这项难以掌握和预料的）礼物本身就已经是一种乐趣了。

3. The Home in American 美国人的住房观

American houses usually have private kitchens, a living room and sometimes separate areas for eating and watching television. A house usually has its own mailbox, a yard with plants or perhaps a lawn, and a place to store garbage out of sight.

A bungalow is a small house with one or two bedrooms and usually one bathroom.

A mansion is a real big house with many bedrooms and several bathrooms.

A ranch house usually has three or four bedrooms. The "master bedroom" for the mother and father usually has its own bathroom.

An apartment is usually one living space within a building. Several apartment can be in the same building, with a shared yard, parking spaces, and garbage.

A town house is a two-floor apartment. The kitchen, living room and dining room are usually on the first floor and the bedrooms are on the second floor.

A studio apartment may have a separate kitchen, but the living room is also the bedroom!

A condominium, or "condo" for short, is an apartment that is owned by the occupant, not the building owners.

Most American are happy to talk about their homes. And if they've done anything special in their home, they'll let you know what it was, and maybe tell you what it cost to put in the Jacuzzi, deck or patio, etc. Most Americans live in cities, but nearly as many live in suburbs. Suburban American has shopping centers called malls and residents usually need a car to get around. Most of the houses in the suburbs are one or two stories tall, with private yards and gardens and garage. There are few tall buildings in the suburbs. Cities have neighborhoods, "warehouse" stores, and public transportation (bused, trains and taxis) is usually pretty good. Private houses might only have a back yard, and if there is a garage it probably is small. Cities have a lot of apartment buildings and some tall buildings may seem to "scrape the sky", so they are called "skyscraper".

美国住房通常有私人厨房，一个起居室，有时吃饭和看电视的地方是分开的。一所房子通常有自己的邮箱，一个种有植物，或者也许是草坪的院子，还有存放垃圾的地方。

宅第是非常大的房子，有许多卧室和几个浴室。

牧场式平房住宅通常有三个或四个卧室，父母住的主卧室通常有自己的浴室。

美国人的住房

公寓套房通常是大楼里的一个居住空间。几个套房可以都在同一座楼里，共有一个庭院、停车场地和放垃圾的地方。

城镇住房是两层的套房，厨房、起居室、餐室通常在一层，卧室在二层。

个人购置的公寓套间为居住者所有，而不是大楼的主人。

大部分美国人高兴谈论他们的住宅。如果他们在家做了什么特殊的事，他们会告诉你是什么事，也许会告诉你安装亚可磁、露天平台或露台等花了多少钱。大部分美国人住在城市，但住在郊区的人也不为少。美国郊区有购物中心，称做mall（步行商业区），而居民通常需要有一部车去购物。郊区大部分住房都是一两层高，有私人庭院、花园和车房。郊区很少见到高建筑物。城市有居民小区、仓储商店，公共交通（公共汽车、火车和出租车）通常也很不错。私人住宅也许只有一个后院，要是有车房，车房也不会大。城市有许多公寓楼，一些高层建筑就像能“触摸天空”，因此被称作摩天大楼。

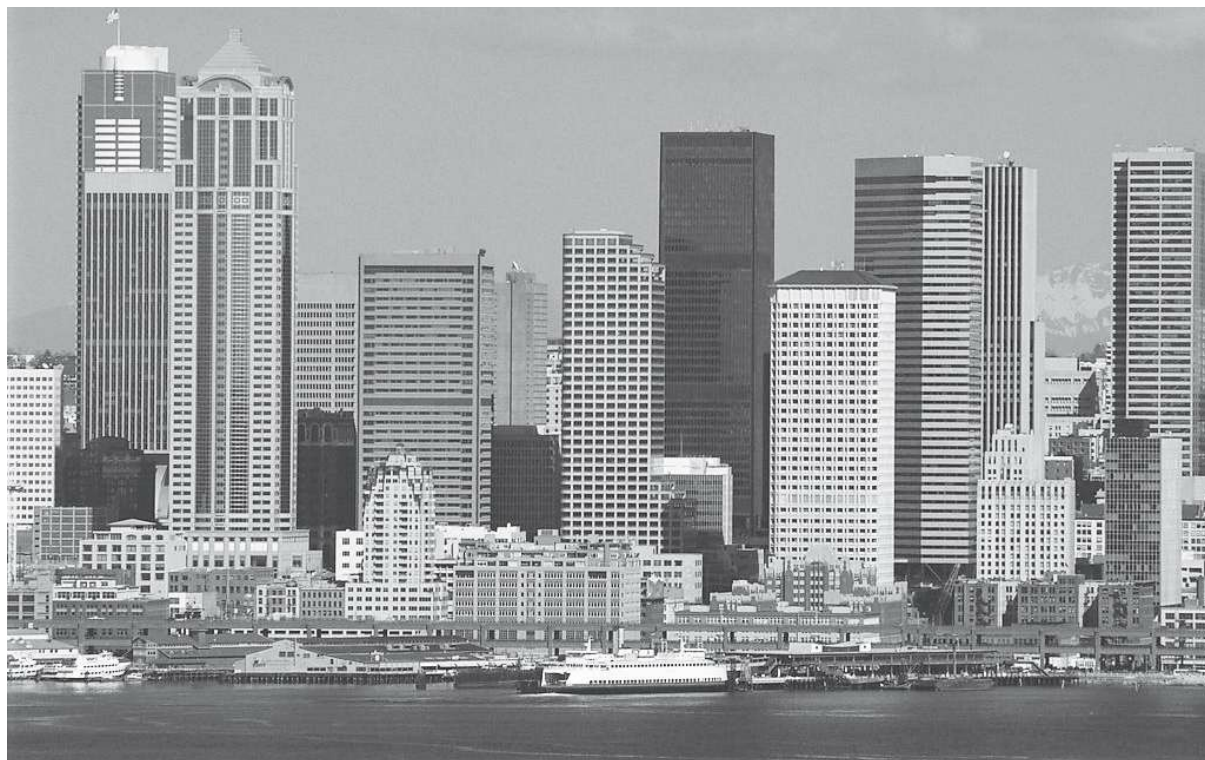

4. The Life in American 美国人的生活

The following is part of an essay taken from Bradford Smith's book, Why We Behave Like Americans. Success as a goal and materialism, according to Smith, are among the underlying factors that make up the American character.

When visitors from abroad undertake to describe the American Character, the results are frequently puzzling to Americans. "All Americans are Puritans; that's what's wrong with them," says one. "They're always thinking about enjoying themselves," says another. "They spend too much time at work," a distinguished visitor tells us. "They don't know how to play." "Americans don't know what work is," retorts another. "Their machines do it all." "American women are shameless sirens." "No, they're prudes." "The children here are wonderful outgoing and natural." "Natural as little beasts. They have no manners, no respect for their elders."

There is, of course, no single pattern of American character any more than there is a single English or Turkish or Chinese character. Personality in America is further complicated by our diverse racial and cultural origins, by successive waves of immigration from all parts of the world, by our regional diversities. It is complicated by several hundred varieties of religious belief with their varying impact on the believers. It is further diversified by the generation to which the person belongs first generation immigrant, second generation child of immigrants, and on down the line.

The temptation is strong to lump all Americans together. Yet those who look a little deeper are puzzled by the seeming contradictions in American life. It is true that Americans as a whole work hard. But they also play hard. They spend more time and money in traveling, camping, hunting, watching sports, drinking, smoking, going to movies, watching television and reading newspapers and magazines than any other people in the world. Yet they also spend more money on churches, social services, hospitals and all kinds of charities. They are always in a hurry, yet they spend more time relaxing. They are at the same time sensitive to the rights of the individual and habitual conformist. They worship bigness yet idealize the little man, whether he be the small business man as opposed to the big one or the plain citizen as opposed to the big wheel.

以下节选自布拉德福德所著《为什么我们的举止像美国人》里的一篇文章。据布拉德福德所说，成功的目标和物质享乐主义，构成美国人性格的内在因素。

要是让国外来客描述美国人的性格，结果常常令美国人感到奇怪。一个人说：“所有的美国人都是清教徒；所以他们与众不同。”另一个人说：“他们总是想方设法让自己开心。”一位尊贵的客人告诉我们：“他们花在工作上的时间太多。他们不懂如何玩乐。”另一个人反驳说：“他们不懂什么是工作。因为机器替他们做了一切。”“美国女人是不知廉耻的，妖艳而危险的女人。”“不，她们假正经。”“这里的孩子真好——外向，自然。”“像小小的野兽一样自然。他们没礼貌，不尊敬长辈。”

强大的吸引力把众多的美国人聚集在了一起。然而那些想再了解深入一点的人弄不懂美国人生活中各种似乎自相矛盾的东西。的确，美国人总体上努力工作。但他们也拼命地玩。他们去旅游、露营、打猎、看体育比赛、喝酒、抽烟、看电影电视、读报纸杂志，花的时间和金钱比世界任何地方的人都多。而他们还把更多的时间花在教会、社会服务、医院和各种各样的慈善活动上。他们总是忙来忙去，又总是花更多的时间休闲。他们十分在乎个人的权利，又习惯于墨守陈规。他们崇拜大人物，也把小人物理想化，不论他是和大商人形成对照的小商人，还是和大权在握的人形成对照的平民百姓。

5. Success as a Goal 成功作为目标

One thing almost everyone is agreed on, including Americans, is that they place a very high valuation upon success. Success does not necessarily mean material rewards, but recognition of some sort preferably measurable. If the boy turns out to be a preacher instead of a business man, that's all right. But the bigger his church and congregation, the more successful he is judged to be.

A good many things contributed to this accent on success. There was the Puritan belief in the virtue of work, both for its own sake and because the rewards it brought were regarded as signs of God's love. There was the richness of opportunity in a land waiting to be settled. There was the lack of a settled society with fixed ranks and classes, so that a man was certain to rise through achievement.

There was the determination of the immigrant to gain in the new world what had been denied to him in the old, and the part of his children an urge to throw off the immigrant onus by still more success and still more rise in a fluid, classless society. Brothers did not compete within the family for the favor of the parents as in Europe, but strove for success in the outer world, along paths of their own choosing.

The English anthropologist, Geoffrey Gorer, sees the whole situation in Freudian terms. Europe is the father rejected by every immigrant who turned his back on his own culture in order to make a new life in America. The immigrant's struggle for success never ends, because there is no limit to the possible goal. The second generation child, in turn, rejects the alien parents because they cannot measure up to American standards. The only way he can soften the blow is to achieve a still greater success. All over America the lawyers, doctors, professors and politicians with Italian, Irish, German or Polish names testify to the urgency of this drive.

Not to strive, not to take advantage of the opportunities in such a world, not to succeed where success was so available—these things naturally became a sort of crime against the state. To develop the resources of a new country required energetic people, bent upon using their energies—not only for the rewards that would result to themselves, but even more important, to the community. So material success in the United States is not looked upon as selfish. Its results are seen to have communal value.

Ford, Carnegie, Rockefeller built great fortunes for themselves. But they also built an economy which has brought a great deal of material well-being, higher health standards and better educational opportunities to millions of Americans. This is how it looks to us, anyway, from inside.

A society which values competition so highly is inevitably an aggressive one, even though the laws carefully limit the forms aggression may take. It has a toughness about it which is good for the muscle tone of the economy but hard on some individuals. In our pioneering days this aggressiveness was essential to survival. Now it can be a menace to society. The factory worker who reaches a dead end and sees himself stuck in the same job year after year may take out his aggressive feelings in race hatred or fighting management, or he may even turn it against himself by way of alcoholism, proneness to accident, or neurotic behavior.

Since a high regard is felt for success, the rewards are high. Money is rarely cherished for itself in America; it is rather a symbol and a tool. As a man's status rises, the demands upon him also increase. He is expected to give liberally to the hundreds of voluntary associations which nourish and minister to the community. Look at the Who's Who entry for any prominent business man, and you are likely to find him involved in an amazing number of committees and associations organized for the public good.

This striving for success and prestige, according to psychologists, is a way of overcoming fears and a sense of inner emptiness. In a mobile society an energetic person can hardly help matching himself against others and seeing how far he can go.

Such a system is fine for those who have it in them to succeed. It is not so good for the mediocre. The fear of failure, the fear of competitors, the loss of self esteem — these arouse tensions that some people cannot handle. In their turn they produce an excessive craving for love. So love and success are linked. Gorer believes that most Americans by the time they are adolescents have confused two ideas: to be successful is to be loved, and to be loved is to be successful. Mothers help to impose the pattern by showing affection and admiration when their children do well at school and by withholding affection when they fail.

Since there are no limits of class, inherited occupation or education to hold a child back, there are, in theory, no limits to what he can achieve. Consequently there is no point at which he can say: "There, I've done it. From now on all I have to do is to hold on." Since any boy can, in theory, become President, striving is a moral obligation. Achievement, not class, is the standard by which men are judged. There is little or no glory attached to being born wealthy or privileged; the real test is how far you climb from where you started.

Americans love work. It is meat and drink to them. In recent years they have learned how to play, but they make work of that too. If it's skiing, they throw themselves at it with an effort that would kill a horse. If it's a vacation, they travel five or six hundred miles a day, take in the sights at sixty miles an hour, pause only long enough to snap pictures, and then discover what it was they went to see when they get home and look at the photographs.

Until very recently there has always been a great deal of work to do in this country, a great deal that needed doing. At the beginning men of all sorts and conditions had to pitch in. The preacher had to fell trees and plough fields. The teacher, the doctor and the magistrate had to shoulder guns for the common defense. The farmer made his own tools, harness, household equipment. He was blacksmith, carpenter, tinsmith, brewer and veterinary all rolled into one, as his wife was spinster, weaver and doctor.

Americans still like to be handy at all things. College professors go in for making furniture or remodeling an old house in the country. Bankers don aprons and become expert barbecue chefs. Nearly everyone knows how to use tools, make simple repairs to plumbing or electrical fixtures, refinish furniture or paint a wall. Far from being thought a disgrace if he performs these "menial" tasks, a man is thought ridiculous if he does not know how to perform them.

Along with this urge to be jack-of-all-trades goes a willingness to change from one occupation to another. It surprises no one in America when the banker's son becomes a farmer or vice versa. Or when a college professor shifts into industry, or a young man who starts out with a truck purchased on credit ends up running an enterprise with fleets of trucks spanning several states. President Truman was a farmer, an operator of a haberdashery and an army officer before he turned to law and politics. James Bryant Conant, first a chemist, then President of Harvard University, resigned this highest post in the academic world to become High Commissioner and then Ambassador to Germany.

A single individual can be at once an intellectual, a Boy Scout leader, a business man, a sportsman, a dabbler in music or painting, a nature-lover, and one who does many of his own household chores. An employer, he may go hunting with his own or someone else's employees. A shopkeeper, he may run for local office and be on familiar terms with professional men and government officials. He will live on several levels which in other countries might be separated by class distinctions.

好多事情都说明，成功是美国人生活的重点。清教徒相信工作带来的好处，既有工作本身的乐趣，还因为工作的回报是上帝之爱的体现。一片富饶的土地到处都是机遇，等待着人们到来。在一个不固守陈规的社会，没有严格的等级和阶级，这样的人就一定能通过成功提升自己的社会地位。

凡是旧的世界拒绝给的，移民决心都要在新的世界得到。对于他们的后代而言，要摆脱作为移民的负担，只有在一个灵活自由的无阶级社会里取得更多的成功，升至更高的地位。他们的兄弟之间不像欧洲人那样为获得父母的欢心而相互倾轧，他们都在外面的世界沿着各自选择的道路为成功而奋斗。

力拼搏。

英国的人类学家杰弗里·戈罗尔用弗洛伊德的说法来解释这一切。欧洲是被所有的移民抛弃的父亲，移民为了在美国过上新生活，背离了自己的文化。移民为了要成功从未停止过奋斗，因为目标的内容没有限制。同样，第二代移民拒绝接受移民过来的父母，因为后者无法适应美国标准。他能减轻压力的唯一方式，就是取得更大的成功。在整个美国，有意大利人、爱尔兰人、德国人或波兰人名字的律师、医生、教授和政治家，都能证明这种成功的强烈欲望。

美国人挑战南极冰

要是不奋斗，不利用这个世界的各种机会去成功而不能成功——这些无疑都是对国家的一种犯罪。开发一个新国家的各种资源，需要精力充沛的人不遗余力地发挥他们的充沛精力——不仅仅是为了他们会得到的回报，更重要的是给社会带来的回报。所以在美国，没有人把物质上的成功看成是自私的。成功的果实被看作具有全民共享的价值。

福特、卡耐基、洛克菲勒，都为自己创造了极大的财富。但他们也建立起一种经济，既可以带来许多物质上的幸福、更高的健康水平，也可以给上千万的美国人创造更好地受教育的机会。无论怎样，这就是成功的内涵。

一个如此注重竞争的社会必定是攻击性的社会，尽管法律严格限制各种攻击形式。这种对攻击的严格限制对完善经济的肌体有益，但对某些个人却过于严格。在拓荒时代，这种攻击性是生存所必需的，但现在可能是一种对社会的威胁。走投无路、常年被同一工作所困的工人可能会将这样的攻击性用于种族仇恨或反对管理，或开始酗酒、滋事、神经质、和自己过不去。

既然高度注重成功，回报也就很高。在美国，人们很少看重金钱本身，它更多的是一种标志，一种工具。当一个人的地位提高，人们对他的要求也相应提高。成百上千各种各样的志愿者协会有益于社会并服务于社会，人们期望他能慷慨捐钱给这些协会。你去看看《名人录》，随便找一个知名商人的条目，就会发现他参加的公益性委员会和协会多得令人吃惊。

这种为成功和名望而奋斗的心理，按心理学家的说法，是一种克服恐惧和内心空虚感的方式。在一个时刻变化着的社会，一个有进取精神的人难免会拿自己与别人相比，知道自己能达到的目标是什么。

这种思维方式对于那些本来就这样想的人是有利的。但对不求上进的人却没什么好处。害怕失败，害怕竞争对手，丧失自尊——都导致了一些人无力应付的紧张情绪。然后，这种紧张情绪就产生了对爱的极度渴望。因此爱和成功是密不可分的。戈罗尔认为，许多美国人在少年时期就被两个问题困扰：成功就是要得到爱，要得到爱就要成功。母亲们把这个模式成功地灌输给孩子：孩子们在学校里表现好，她们就对他们显示出无限的疼爱 and 喜爱；孩子们要是做得不好，她们就拒绝给予关爱。

美国人热爱工作。工作就是他们的命根子。近年来他们已经学会玩，但是将玩也当成了工作。要是去滑雪，他们就在雪地上猛冲，那样子连马都会累死。如果去度假，他们就每天开车五六百公里，以每小时60英里的速度观光，沿途只停下来拍些快照。然后，发现了自己要看的东西是怎么回事，就打道回府，回去看照片。

直到最近，这个国家还总是有许多事要做，还有许多事情必须要做。以前不管什么人都工作得很辛苦。传教士要伐树、犁田。教师、医生，还有地方法官得扛着枪当民兵。农场主自己动手做工具、马鞍和家用器具。他集铁匠、木匠、啤酒酿造者和兽医于一身。他的妻子既是纺纱工、织布工，又是医生。

美国人仍然喜欢什么都学着做。大学教授喜欢做家具或是改造乡下的老房子。银行家穿上围裙，就成了专业的烧烤厨师。几乎每一个人都懂得使用工具，懂得简单的下水道或电力装置的修理，还会修家具，刷墙。做这些“粗活”绝不会让人认为不体面，不会做才是让人觉得不可思议呢。

与这种成为万事通愿望并存的是变换职业的愿望。在美国，不管是银行家的儿子当了农场主还是农场主的儿子做了银行家，都不会让人吃惊。更不用说大学教授转行干上了实业。一个年轻人靠一银行贷款买来的卡车起家，后来当上了公司的老板，拥有卡车车队，行驶在好几个州。杜鲁门总统经营过农场，开过男装店，当过陆军军官，后来才转学法律和政治。詹姆斯·布莱恩特·克兰特原先是化

学家，后来担任哈佛大学的校长，辞去了这个学术界的最高职位后担任了高级公共事务官员，后被任命为驻德大使。

一个人可以同时是知识分子，童子军首领，商人，运动健将，音乐、绘画的爱好者，热爱大自然的人，做大部分家务的人。当老板的也许会和自己的或别人的雇员一起打猎。经营商店的店主可能会竞选当地的政府职位，熟悉专业人士和政府官员。他可以同时位于别的国家也许会用等级的概念来划分的不同社会阶层。

6. Materialism 物质享乐主义

The men and women who staked everything on America were for the most part poor. They struggled hard, went without, and saved in order to build up a business or buy a farm of their own. The freedom to own rather than the freedom to vote was the magnet that drew the majority of them across oceans. Naturally enough they put a high value upon the land or the business they acquired through their own efforts.

In contrast with this natural acquisitiveness of the new arrivals, the American attitude toward money is quite different. As the German psychologist Hugo Munsterberg observed, the American "prizes the gold he gets primarily as an indication of his ability.... It is, therefore, fundamentally false to stigmatize the American as a materialist, and to deny his idealism.... The American merchant works for money in exactly the sense that a great painter works for money —" as a mark of appreciation for his work.

The acquisition of money is important as the clearest proof of success, though there are other acceptable proofs — prominence, public notice, good works, fame. But the retention of money is not important at all. Indeed, it may be frowned upon if it keeps the owner from living well, subscribing generously to a long list of charities, and providing for members of the family who may have been less fortunate. So the materialism that strikes a visitor to America is not that of loving and hoarding wealth; it is a love of making and consuming wealth. It is probably a middle-class rather than a distinctively American phenomenon, for most Americans are middle-class.

America has been blessed with a rich supply of raw materials. It learned during the depression that even a rich country can become impoverished if it fails to use its wealth to benefit the majority. And it does not propose to make that error again. A sizable portion of what it produces goes overseas, including agricultural and industrial machinery sent with the hope that standards of production and consumption can be raised in other parts of the world too.

There is no denying the fact that the high level of production does lead to a high level of material comfort, and that Americans are mighty fond of having things that are new, shine, softly padded, conveniently arranged, efficient, and so far as may be, effortless. The bread comes already sliced so that the housewife need not exert herself to slice it. It used to be that when she put the bread in the toaster, she had to turn it once to toast both sides. Then came the toaster which did both sides at once, then the toaster which popped the toast out when it was done, so that she did not have to turn a handle to raise it. Soon, no doubt, there will be a toaster which butters the toast, cuts it in quarters, and puts it on a plate. Perhaps there is one even now.

Food comes ready-cooked and frozen, vegetables already washed. Floor wax must be self-polishing, pens write for years without having to be filled. Storm windows change to summer screens at a touch. Heat is thoroughly automatic, and air conditioning keeps the house equally comfortable in summer. Automation now promises to put a final end to all drudgery, even to building in the controls which will keep the machines from making mistakes.

Why is it that, having created a world in which he could live without raising a hand or taking a step, the American habitually seeks ways of letting off steam? His towns are full of bowling alleys, golf clubs, tennis courts, clubs, lodges, churches and associations into which he pours energy both physical and mental. The labor-saving gadgets, the love of comfort turn out to be ways of saving his time and energy for something else.

所把赌注都押在美国的男男女女绝大多数是穷人。他们努力挣扎，忍气吞声，努力存钱，目的就是做点买卖，买个属于自己的农场。像磁铁一般吸引着他们大多数人远涉重洋的是拥有财产的自由而不是投票的自由。所以他们很看重靠自己的努力得来的土地和做的买卖。

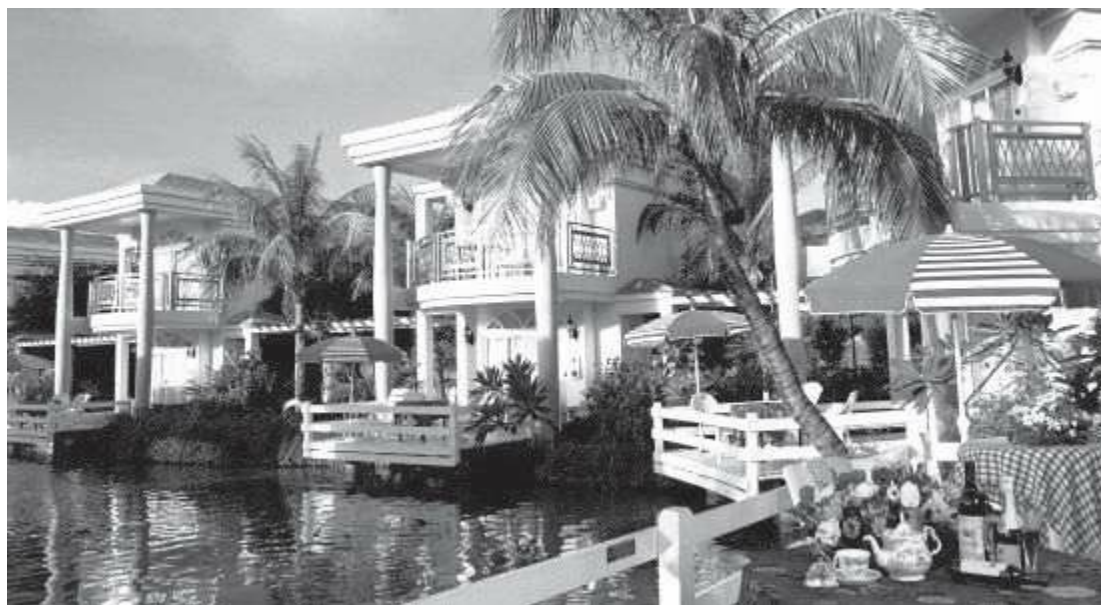

和初来者自然的获取思想相比，美国人对钱的态度是很不一样的。就像德国心理学家休格·爱斯特伯格所指出的，美国人“很看重他挖到的金子，主要是因为金子是他能力的体现……因此把美国人定义为物质享乐主义者而否认他的理想主义，从根本上就是错误的……这与美国的商人为钱工作，伟大的画家为钱绘画的意义是完全一样的——”，这些都是对自己的工作欣赏的标志。

获得金钱是重要的，因为钱最能证明成功。当然还有人们可以接受的其他的证明——卓越、公众瞩目、工作优秀、名声等等。但是存钱并不重要。事实上，钱的主人留着钱，不过好日子，不慷慨地捐款给大串的慈善机构，不救济家里没钱的人，人们也会不喜欢他。所以，到美国的人感到震惊的不是美国人物质享乐主义的爱财和守财，而是他们既喜欢赚钱又喜欢花钱。这可能不是美国人特有的性格，而是中产阶级才有的现象，因为大多数美国人都是中产阶级。

上天赋予美国丰富的自然资源。但在大萧条时期美国人懂得了，如果一个国家不把财富造福社会，再富有也会遭受贫困。它再也不会重蹈覆辙。美国生产的产品相当一部分到了国外，其中有工农业用的机械设备，他们希望世界其他地方的生产水平和消费水平能得到提高。

无法否认这样一个事实：高水平的生产一定会带来高水平的物质享受，所以美国人非常喜欢把东西做得新颖、光亮，有柔软的衬垫，使用起来方便，这样就可以不费气力。买回来的面包已经切好片，主妇就省得再切。以前主妇把面包放进烤面包机，还要翻转一次面包，才能烤另一面。于是就有了可以同时烤两面的烤面包机，烤完了还会把烤的面包送出来。所以她不必转手柄就能拿到烤面包。过不久，肯定会有更新的烤面包机，可以把烤面包涂上黄油，切成四分之一块，然后放到盘子上。说不定现在就已经有这样的烤面包机了。

食物买的时候是煮熟的、冰冻的，蔬菜是已经洗干净的。地板蜡肯定是自动上光的，钢笔写上几年都不用上墨水。轻轻一按，防暴风雪的窗子就变成了夏天的屏幕。暖气是自动的，冷气使房子即使在夏天也一样舒适。自动化现在可以让人再也不用做单调乏味的工作，自动装置用在控制器中，机器再也不会出错。

美国人创造了一个不用举手投足就能过得舒舒服服的世界，为什么还是习惯于用各种方式放松自己呢？他们住的地方到处都是保龄球馆，高尔夫俱乐部，网球场，俱乐部，房子，教堂以及各种可以让他们全身心投入的协会。他们制造省时省力的小器具，喜欢舒适，就是为了节约时间和精力做其

他的事情。

美国政治制度

美国作为世界头号强国，其高效的政治体制是重要的基础：“三权分立”的政治架构和两党制政党制度是美国政治制度的支撑；五角大楼是美国军事的中枢机构；“中央情报局”与“联邦调查局”，为政权的稳定和全球利益的实现，起到了坚定的保障作用。

● Electoral System 美国选举制度

United States presidential election implemented indirect election system. First of all state voters by the state electoral vote (the number of Members of Parliament and state equal numbers), at the same time by the state electoral vote in the state capital are, the Vice-President. Members of the introduction of direct election system of election. Representatives from the states voters directly elected; senators from the states first parliamentary elections in 1913 the entry into force of section 17 of the amendment to the Constitution, senators are directly elected by voters states. Governor, legislators and judges in some states, an important administrative officials elected by the voters. General elections at various levels arranged by the two parties. In order to ensure the dominance of the two parties, generally implement the single constituency system and the majority representation system.

美国总统选举实行间接选举制。首先由各州选民投票选出本州选举人（人数与本州国会议员人数相等），再由各州选举人同时在各州首府投票选举正、副总统。议员选举实行直接选举制。众议员由各州选民直接选举；参议员最初由各州议会选举，1913年生效的第17条宪法修正案规定，参议员也由各州选民直接选举。州长、议员和某些州的法官、重要行政官员都由选民选举产生。各级选举一般都由两党包办。为了保证两党的统治地位，一般实行单名选区制和多数代表制。

● Political Party System 政党制度

A two-party system. Although the United States Constitution does not require political parties status, but the American political system of political parties is an important component of its impact on the infiltration of various other political system. Two-party system in the United States had set up the initial federal sprouting, to the Civil War, the two-party system was officially formed. Monopoly Capitalist Class by the two major political parties control the entire country's political institutions, manipulation of national political life. The main functions of the two parties is manipulated and arranged elections, particularly President Election. Democratic and Republican parties in power long-term rotation. Apart from the two major political parties outside the United States, there are a number of other political parties, but they are unable to influence the two major parties take turns ruling status.

采用两党制。美国宪法虽然没有规定政党地位，但政党是美国政治制度的重要组成部分，其影响渗透于其他各种政治制度。两党制在美国成立联邦初期就已萌芽，到南北战争后，两党制正式形成。垄断资产阶级通过两大政党控制整个国家政治机构，操纵全国政治生活。两党的主要职能是操纵和包办选举，特别是总统选举。民主党和共和党两党长期轮流执政。美国政党除两大党外，还有其他一些政党，但它们都无法影响两大党轮流执政的地位。

The United States Constitution and the provisions of the law, the government's power comes from the people, and ultimately belongs to the people the government's power is not absolute, but subject to the Constitution and legal restrictions. On the one hand, the Federal Constitution and the law stipulates that citizens enjoy a writ of habeas corpus, speech, publication, assembly, freedom of religion, private property rights and the right to vote, and so on the other hand, the Congress shall not make deprive citizens of speech, publication, peaceful assembly and freedom of petition The law, a citizen's personal, residential, documents and property from illegal search or seizure, non-scheduled due process in accordance with the law, no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property. In addition, the state constitution and the law on the rights of citizens and also provides. In fact the rights of citizens subject to the individual property owners, to enjoy the right to freedom can only be bourgeois.

2. Capitol Hill—The United States Congress 国会山——美国国会

● Introduction 国会简介

Congress of the United States, legislative branch of the United States government. Congress is composed of two chambers with equal powers: the 100-member Senate and the 435—member House of Representatives. The primary duty of Congress is to write, debate, and pass bills (proposed laws), which are then passed on to the president for approval. Once the president approves the legislation, the executive branch enforces the new laws and the judicial branch interprets them. Other congressional duties include investigating pressing national issues, supervising the executive and judicial branches, and shaping U.S. foreign policy.

美国国会美国的立法机构。美国国会由两个平级机构组成：100人的参议院和435人的众议院。国会的主要职责是起草、讨论和通过议案（建议法案），其将为总统签字生效。一旦总统签署通过，行政机构就会执行法律，司法机构解释法律。国会的其他职责包括审查国家议案，监督行政和司法机构及塑造美国的外交政策。

● Membership 国会成员

The House and the Senate have similar membership requirements. The Senate includes two senators from each of the 50 states, elected for six-year terms. To be a senator, a person must be at least 30 years old, a citizen for nine years, and a resident of the state from which he or she is elected. Most members of Congress have served in state legislatures, city councils, or other elected bodies .

The 435 House seats are divided among the states in proportion to each state's population. Every state is guaranteed at least one seat. States entitled to more than a single seat must create districts of roughly equal population from which members are elected. The United States Bureau of the Census counts the population of the states every ten years to determine how many seats each states is entitled to. Representatives, elected for two-year terms, must be 25 years old, a citizen for at least seven years, and a resident of the state from which they are elected.

众议院和参议院拥有相似的成员要求。参议院要求美国50州各选出2名参议员，任期6年。参选参议员要求至少30岁，具有9年的国民资格，并且是所在州的居民。大多数的国会议员服务于州司法体系、市议会或其他的选举机构。

众议院的435个席位是按照各州人口的比例分配的。确保每个州拥有至少一席。每州必须严格按照人口划定的选区选举议员。美国人口统计机构每十年根据人口数确定各州议席数。众议院每两年选举一次，参选人至少年满25岁，拥有7年的国民资格，且居住在所参选州。

3. "CIA" and "FBI" —The Central Intelligence Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigation “CIA”与“FBI”——中央情报局与联邦调查局

● Central Intelligence Agency（CIA）中央情报局

The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) is a civilian intelligence agency of the United States government. It is an executive agency and reports directly to the Director of National Intelligence, responsible for providing national security intelligence assessment to senior United States policymakers through means of covert psychological, cyber, and social warfare to carry out these intelligencegathering operations using non-military commissioned civilian intelligence agents, many of whom are trained to avoid tactical situations. The CIA also oversees and sometimes engages in tactical and covert activities at the request of the President of the United States. The CIA is often used for intelligencegathering instead of the U.S military to avoid a declaration of war.

The primary function of the CIA is to collect information about foreign governments, corporations, and individuals, and to advise public policymakers, but it does conduct emergency tactical operations, carries out covert operations, and exerts foreign political influence through its tactical divisions, such as the Special Activities Division. The CIA and its responsibilities changed markedly in 2004. Before December 2004, the CIA was the main intelligence organization of the US government; it was responsible for coordinating the activities of the US Intelligence Community (IC) as a whole. The Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 created the office of the Director of National Intelligence (DNI), which took over management and leadership of the IC.

中央情报局的主要职责是搜集有关外国政府、企业和个人的情报，并向公共决策者提供建议，但它

事实上也采取应急手段、进行秘密行动和向别国施加政治影响，如特别行动组的存在。在2004年，中央情报局的职责发生了明显的变化。2004年12月前，中央情报局是美国政府的主要情报机构，它是负责协调美国情报工作的中枢机构。在2004年后，情报改革与预防恐怖主义法案而设立美国国家情报总监办公室，接管了领导与管理协调中心的职责。

● The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) 联邦调查局

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is an agency of the United States Department of Justice that serves as both a federal criminal investigative group and an internal intelligence agency. The FBI has investigative jurisdiction over violations of more than 200 categories of federal crime. Its motto is a backronym of FBI, "Fidelity, Bravery, and Integrity".

The FBI is headquartered at the J. Edgar Hoover Building in Washington, D.C., with 56 field offices in major cities across the United States. The FBI also maintains over 400 resident agencies across the United States, as well as over 50 legal attachés at United States embassies and consulates. Many specialized FBI functions are located at facilities in Quantico, Virginia, as well as a "data campus" in Clarksburg, West Virginia, where 96 million sets of fingerprints "from across the United States are stored, along with others collected by American authorities from prisoners in Saudi Arabia and Yemen, Iraq and Afghanistan."

According to the Washington Post, the FBI "is building a vast repository controlled by people who work in a top-secret vault on the fourth floor of the J. Edgar Hoover FBI Building in Washington. This one stores the profiles of tens of thousands of Americans and legal residents who are not accused of any crime. What they have done is appear to be acting suspiciously to a town sheriff, a traffic cop or even a neighbor."

美国联邦调查局是一个隶属于美国司法部的机构，不仅是作为一个犯罪调查机构，而且也作为一个内部情报机构发挥着作用。美国联邦调查局负责调查200多种联邦境内的犯罪案件。"FBI"代表着联邦调查局坚持贯彻的信条——忠诚，勇敢和正直。

根据华盛顿邮报的报道：“美国联邦调查局是在华盛顿联邦调查局埃德加大楼4楼顶尖人才所操纵的资料库。”在这个资料库中，数以万计的美国人和合法居民并没有被指控有任何罪行。他们所表现出来的角色似乎是形迹可疑的一个小镇警长、一个交通警察，甚至是邻居。”

● CIA Releases Bin Laden Videos, Says He Was Active Terrorist Commander 美国中央情报局公布本·拉登录像，称他是活跃的恐怖活动总指挥

The U.S. Central Intelligence Agency says the compound in Pakistan where Osama bin Laden was killed by American commandos on Monday was an active command and control center for al-Qaida, and that bin Laden was not just a strategic or inspirational leader for the terrorist group. A senior intelligence official made the comments at a briefing at the Pentagon on Saturday, during which he also released five video clips of bin Laden that were captured during the raid.

The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, says the material gathered by the assault team amounts to the largest trove of information ever captured from a senior terrorist leader. He says there is so much material that officials are still cataloguing it.

The official says the material is already providing what he called "some golden nuggets" of information and "important insights" into al-Qaida's operations. He would not provide specifics, but he said the information indicates that bin Laden was involved in generating ideas for terrorist attacks on the United States and around the world, provided tactical and operational guidance, and directed daily operations. He says bin Laden was not only a figurehead or strategist, as some people had thought.

In a written statement, the CIA director, Leon Panetta, said that "further confirms how important it was to go after bin Laden."

The official who spoke on condition of anonymity said bin Laden continued to have a particular interest in attacks on transportation facilities and other types of infrastructure, the type of targets al-Qaida has hit in the past. He says bin Laden managed to run his organization through couriers, like the one who unwittingly led U.S. investigators to the compound, which had no telephone or Internet service.

美国中央情报局说，星期一，美国突击队员在这个地方将奥萨马·本·拉登击毙。本·拉登在巴基斯坦藏身的部落巴格达是一个活跃的基地组织的指挥中心，他绝不仅仅是这个恐怖组织的战略性和精神上的领袖。星期六，一名高级情报官员在五角大楼的简报会上发表此番评论，与此同时他公布了在对本·拉登的突袭行动中所缴获的5段视频。

不愿透露姓名的五角大楼官员说，突击队员缴获的材料是从一个高级恐怖分子领导人之处搜集到的最大规模的信息。他说，材料多到官员们现在还在进行分类。

这名官员说，这些资料已经提供了“含金量极高”的信息，并且提供了基地组织运作的重要内幕。他并没有给出任何细节，但是他说，这些信息说明本·拉登参与策划了针对美国和全世界的恐怖袭击行动，为这些袭击提供了策略与运作方面的指导，并指挥了基地组织的日常行动。他说，本·拉登并不是如一些人所认为的那样只是一名傀儡首脑或战略家。

中央情报局局长莱昂·帕内塔在一份书面声明中说，这“进一步证实了通缉本·拉登的重要性”。

这名在匿名条件下发表谈话的官员说，本·拉登一贯特别看重对运输设施和其他基础设施的攻击行动。这与基地组织过去的目标一致。他说，本·拉登成功地利用信使来指挥整个基地组织的运作。其中一名信使在不知情的情况下将美国调查员带到了这个院落，而这里没有电话也没有网络。

4. The Pentagon—The Military Institutions of the U.S. 五角大楼——美国军事机构

● Overview of the Pentagon 五角大楼概况

The Pentagon is the headquarters of the United States Department of Defense, located in Arlington County, Virginia. As a symbol of the U.S. military, "the Pentagon" is often used metonymically to refer to the Department of Defense rather than the building itself.

The Pentagon is the world's largest office building by floor area, with about 600,000 m², of which 340,000 m² are used as offices. Approximately 23,000 military and civilian employees and about 3,000 non-defense support personnel work in the Pentagon. It has five sides, five floors above ground, two basement levels, and five ring corridors per floor with a total of 28.2 km of corridors. The Pentagon includes a five-acre (20,000 m²) central plaza, which is shaped like a pentagon, a nickname originating during the Cold War and based on the presumption that the Soviet Union would target one or more nuclear missiles at this central location in the outbreak of a nuclear war.

On September 11, 2001, exactly 60 years after the building's groundbreaking, hijacked American Airlines Flight 77—a Boeing 757-223—was crashed into the western side of the Pentagon, killing 189 people including five hijackers, 59 others aboard the plane, and 125 working in the building.

五角大楼是美国国防部的总部，位于弗吉尼亚阿灵顿。作为美国军事力量的象征，五角大楼往往是用来比喻国防部而不是建筑物本身。

五角大楼是世界上最大的办公大楼，拥有建筑面积600,000平方米，其中340,000平方米是作为办事区域。五角大楼拥有大约23,000名军事和文职雇员和3,000名非国防部的外聘人员。它有5个面，地上5层，2个地下室和5个环形走廊，每层都有一个共28.2公里的走廊。五角大楼位于五英亩（20,000平方米）的中央广场，它的形状像一个五边形，其绰号源自于冷战期间，根据推断，苏联以五角大楼为目标，在这个中心位置发射一个或多个核弹，进而启动核战争。

2001年9月11日，在五角大楼建成整整60年后，恐怖分子在美国航空公司的第77次航班中劫持了一架波音757-223，后使其撞到五角大楼的西面，造成189人死亡，其中包括5名劫机者、59名外国人和125名五角大楼的工作人员。

● Status of the Pentagon 五角大楼的现状

As the U.S. defense industry continues along the path of globalization, the Pentagon is having to face a new set of challenges and opportunities. "Whether we like it or not, the globalization is here," said Gary Powell, assistant deputy undersecretary of defence for industrial Policy, "(We must) Expand the benefits, minimize risk."

Powell said in an interview, the Pentagon must ensure access to the best defense technologies, while protecting our supply chain reliability and integrity. He said, in the risk, the U.S. military's most concerned about commodities, such as the alloys used in aircraft manufacture, software and microelectronics products.

In software and microelectronics products, the Pentagon is now increasingly dependent on non-US companies, which increased the likelihood of foreign governments to involve in key technologies. Pentagon's Defense Science Board Advisory Group is conducting a study to measure the national security implication of the use of foreign software in U. S. military technology.

Some U.S. companies also concerned about a new policy of U.S. Department of Commerce. They warned this policy may impact some of America's defense industries. The "Chinese rule" strengthened China's export restrictions on dual-use technology. Critics claimed that the Chinese government would encourage Chinese companies to develop these technologies, and then sell on lower price than the United States.

Powell said that this may be a "real concern", but he stressed that the United States must consider national security issues involved in providing sensitive technologies to China and other countries.

Before, the Institute for Defense Analysis released a study concludes that the U.S. export control system "seems flows out of step with today's world of global manufacturing, technology development and capital flows."

Powell said: "If (we) want to keep the industry strong, I hope they can compete in the world." He acknowledged that the list of technologies subject to export controls was outdated, but he said the Pentagon's office of Research and Engineering Office was now trying to update the list.

Buying the best technology, or ensuring the supply of key components, the U.S. military is also facing legislative restrictions. For example, the so-called Berry Amendment would prevent the Pentagon from buying food, clothing, fabrics and specialty metals. Last year the U.S. Congress provided some flexible measures to exempt some goods outside of the Berry Amendment, but Powell said that from an ideal perspective, the Pentagon wanted Congress to jettison the amendment. Earlier this year, the Pentagon issued an exceptional measure, to buy fasteners containing foreign-made speciality metals.

随着美国国防工业沿着全球化道路继续前进，五角大楼正不得不面临一系列新的挑战 and 机遇。“不管我们是否喜欢，全球化都实实在在地存在着，”美国国防部负责工业政策的助理副部长加里·鲍威尔表示，“（我们必须）扩大利益，将风险降到最低。”

鲍威尔在一次采访中表示，五角大楼必须确保获得最好的国防技术，同时保护自身供应链的可靠性和完整性。他还表示，在风险方面，美国军方最关注大宗商品，如用于飞机制造的合金以及软件和微电子产品。

在软件和微电子产品方面，五角大楼现在越来越依赖于非美国公司，这提高了外国政府参与关键技术的可能性。五角大楼顾问团国防科学委员会正在进行一项研究，测定在美国军事技术中应用外国

一些美国公司还对美国商务部的一项新政策表示了担忧。他们警告称，这项政策可能对美国的某些国防工业构成冲击。“中国规则”加强了向中国出口双重用途技术的限制。批评人士声称，中国政府将鼓励中国企业开发这些技术，然后以比美国更低的价格出售。

鲍威尔表示，这可能是一个“切实的担忧”，但他强调，美国必须考虑向中国等国家提供敏感技术时涉及的国家安全问题。

此前，美国国防分析研究院公布的一项研究报告得出结论称，美国的出口控制体系似乎与当今世界的全球制造、技术发展和资本流动步调不一致。

鲍威尔表示：“如果（我们）想保持产业强势，就希望它们能够在世界范围内展开竞争。”他承认，受出口管制的技术清单已经过时，但他表示，五角大楼国防研究与工程办公室目前正尝试更新清单。

5. From the Left-hand to Right-hand— The Two-Party System 从左手换到右手——两党制

Although the U.S. Constitution does not require status of political parties, but political parties are an important part of the political system in the United States, its influence permeates a variety of other country's political systems. Twoparty system appeared at the beginning of the United States, and was officially formed after the civil war. The bourgeois monopoly takes charge of over the entire country political institutions country's political life through two major parties. The main function of the two parties is to control and arrange elections, especially presidential elections. Democratic and Republican parties take ruling the country in turn. In addition to the two major political parties, there are other political parties, but they can not affect the status of the two major parties alternate in power.

The two party system means that the two major political parties — the Democrats and the Republicans compete with each other to dominate politics at the federal, state, and local levels. The two major parties are not very different today. They are coalition of two interest groups. There is no strict party discipline. One does not have to apply or go through necessary formalities to become a member of either party. But there are some differences between them. The Democrats traditionally favor government intervention while the Republicans more stress the role of the market. On social issues, the Democrats support a strong social security system while the Republicans oppose large governmental social security programs. In spite of these differences, the two parties believe in individualism, defend capitalism and uphold private ownership of means of production.

两党制意味着两个主要的政党目前为民主党和共和党支配着联邦、州及地方的政治舞台。两个主要政党今天并没有实质区别。他们是利益集团的联合，没有严格的党纪。要想成为某党成员，不需要申请或办理必要的手续。他们也有所不同。民主党主张政府干涉经济，共和党则强调市场作用。在社会问题上，民主党支持建立强大的社会保障体系，而共和党反对大规模的政府社会保障计划。尽管存在这些区别，两党都信仰个人主义，保护资本主义制度，维护生产资料私有制。

● The Most Competitive Organizations—The Two-party System 最有竞争力的组织——两党制度

No one now living in the United States can remember when the contest began between the Democratic and the Republican parties. It has been going on for more than a century, making it one of the oldest political rivalries in the world.

The American political system is a classical example of the two-party system. When we say that we have a two-party system in the United States we do not mean that we have only two parties. Usually about a dozen parties nominate presidential candidates. We call it a two-party system because we have two large parties and a number of small parties, and the large parties are so large that we often forget about the rest. Usually the small parties collectively poll less than 5 per cent of the vote cast in national elections.

The democratic and Republican parties are the largest and most competitive organizations in the American community. They organize the electorate very simply by maintaining the two-party system. Americans almost inevitably become Democrats or Republicans because there is usually no other place for them to go. Moreover, because the rivalry of these parties is very old, most Americans know where they belong in the system. As a consequence of the dominance of the major parties, most elected officials are either Republicans or Democrats. Attempts to break up this old system have been made in every presidential election in the past one hundred years, but the system has survived all assaults.

How does it happen that the two-party system is so strongly rooted in American politics? The explanation is probably to be found in the way elections are conducted. In the United States, unlike countries with a parliamentary system of government, we elect not only the President, but a large number of other officials, about 800,000 of them. We also elect congressmen from single-member districts. For example, we elect 435 members of the House of Representatives from 435 districts (there are a few exceptions), one member for each district. Statistically, this kind of election favors the major parties. The system of elections makes it easy for the major parties to maintain their dominant position, because they are likely to win more than their share of the offices.

One of the great consequences of the system is that it produces majorities automatically. Because there are only two competitors in the running, it is almost inevitable that one will receive a majority. Moreover, the system tends slightly to exaggerate the victory of the winning party. This is not always true, but the strong tendency to produce majorities is built into the system.

In over 200 years of constitutional history, Americans have learned much about the way in which the system can be managed so as to make possible the peaceful transfer of power from one party to the other. At the level of presidential elections, the party in power has been overturned by the party out of power nineteen times, almost once a decade. In the election of 1860, the political system broke down, and the Civil War, the worst disaster in American history, resulted. Our history justifies our confidence in the system but also shows that it is not foolproof.

The second major party is able to survive a defeat because the statistical tendency that exaggerates the victory of the winning party operates even more strongly in favor of the second party against the third, fourth, and fifth parties. As a result, the defeated major party is able to maintain a monopoly of the opposition. The advantage of the second party over the third is so great that it is the only party that is likely to be able to overturn the party in power. It is able, therefore, to attract the support of everyone seriously opposed to the party in power. The second party is important as long as it can monopolize the movement to overthrow the party in power, because it is certain to come into power sooner or later.

Another consequence of the two-party system is that whereas minor parties are likely to identify themselves with special interests or special programs and thus take extreme positions, the major parties are so large that they tend to be moderate. Evidence of the moderation of the major parties is that much business is conducted across party lines. What happens when the Democrats control one house of Congress and the Republicans control the other? About the same volume of legislation is passed as when one party controls both houses, although some important legislation is likely to be blocked temporarily. It is possible to carry on the work of the government even when party control is divided because party differences are not fundamental.

现在生活在美国的人没人能记起民主党和共和党之间的竞争是什么时候开始的。这种竞争进行了一个多世纪，是世界上最早的政治竞争之一。

美国的政治体制是两党制的典型范例。当我们说美国有两党制时，并不是指美国只有两个政党。通

常约有十几个政党提名总统候选人。我们之所以称之为两党制，是因为有两个大党派和许多小党派。通常小党派合在一起在全国选举是得票低于全国所投票数的5%。

两党制是如何能如此坚实地扎根于美国政治中的呢？答案可能就在选举的运作方式中。美国不同于政府议会制国家，我们不仅选举总统，而且还选举许多官员，他们大约有80万人。国会议员也是从每区一票的选举中选出的。例如：我们从435个选区选举435名参议员，每一个选区选举一名参议员。从统计学上来讲，这种选举对大党派有利。选举制度使大党轻而易举地保持着他们的统治地位，因为他们赢得的席位可能比他们应得的份额多。

这种制度的最大结果就是它自动地产生了多数党。因为只有两个竞争者参加竞选，几乎可以肯定其中一个将赢得多数。而且，这种制度似乎有些夸大获胜党的胜利。虽然并不总是如此。但是产生多数党的巨大倾向在这种制度中形成了。

在200多年的宪法史中，美国人对两党制的运作方法已经有很多了解，以使政权能够和平地从一个政党移交到另一个政党。在总统选举中，执政党已被在野党击败了19次，几乎每十年一次。在1860年的选举中，这种政治制度中断了，结果导致了南北战争——美国历史上最大的灾难。历史证明我们有理由对这一制度保持信心，但历史也表明这一制度不是万无一失的。

第二大党能在失败下继续生存，是因为在统计上夸大获胜党的获胜，这能够更有力地支持第二大党对第三、第四、第五党派的对抗。因此，失败的大党能够保持在反对派中的垄断。第二大党相对于第三党派有巨大的优势，它是唯一可能击败执政党的党派，从而能够吸引强烈反对执政党的每一个党派的支持。只要第二大党能够垄断击败执政党的运动，它就是重要的，因为迟早它肯定能上台执政。

在“南北战争”结束后，美国开始崛起。20世纪，美国的经济力量超过了英国，成为世界第一。经过两次世界大战，美国获得了全球霸权，在冷战期间与苏联进行对抗。在苏联解体和两极格局终结之后，作为世界上唯一的超级大国，美国将触手伸到了世界各地。

1. For the Peace of the World—Wilson's "Fourteen Points" 为了世界和平——威尔逊十四点原则

To counter the Russian October Revolution and the impact of the Soviet regime, to create the conditions for the United States after the war to dominate, on January 8, 1918 U.S. President Wilson delivered a speech in Parliament and proposed "Fourteen Ponits" as a "program of the establishment of world peace."

The program of the world's peace, therefore, is our program; and that program, the only possible program, as we see it, is this:

I. Open covenants of peace, openly arrived at, after which there shall be no private international understandings of any kind but diplomacy shall proceed always frankly and in the public view.

II. Absolute freedom of navigation upon the seas, outside territorial waters, alike in peace and in war, except as the seas may be closed in whole or in part by international action for the enforcement of international covenants.

III. The removal, so far as possible, of all economic barriers and the establishment of an equality of trade conditions among all the nations consenting to the peace and associating themselves for its maintenance.

IV. Adequate guarantees given and taken that national armaments will be reduced to the lowest point consistent with domestic safety.

V. A free, open-minded, and absolutely impartial adjustment of all colonial claims, based upon a strict observance of the principle that in determining all such questions of sovereignty the interests of the populations concerned must have equal weight with the equitable claims of the government whose title is to be determined.

VI. The evacuation of all Russian territory and such a settlement of all questions affecting Russia as will secure the best and freest cooperation of the other nations of the world in obtaining for her an unhampered and unembarrassed opportunity for the independent determination of her own political development and national policy and assure her of a sincere welcome into the society of free nations under institutions of her own choosing; and, more than a welcome, assistance also of every kind that she may need and may herself desire. The treatment accorded Russia by her sister nations in the months to come will be the acid test of their good will, of their comprehension of her needs as distinguished from their own interests, and of their intelligent and unselfish sympathy.

VII. Belgium, the whole world will agree, must be evacuated and restored, without any attempt to limit the sovereignty which she enjoys in common with all other free nations. No other single act will serve as this will serve to restore confidence among the nations in the laws which they have themselves set and determined for the government of their relations with one another. Without this healing act the whole structure and validity of international law is forever impaired.

VIII. All French territory should be freed and the invaded portions restored, and the wrong done to France by Prussia in 1871 in the matter of Alsace-Lorraine, which has unsettled the peace of the world for nearly fifty years, should be righted, in order that peace may once more be made secure in the interest of all.

IX. A readjustment of the frontiers of Italy should be effected along clearly recognizable lines of nationality.

X. The peoples of Austria-Hungary, whose place among the nations we wish to see safeguarded and assured, should be accorded the freest opportunity to autonomous development.

XI. Rumania, Serbia, and Montenegro should be evacuated; occupied territories restored; Serbia accorded free and secure access to the sea; and the relations of the several Balkan states to one another determined by friendly counsel along historically established lines of allegiance and nationality; and international guarantees of the political and economic independence and territorial integrity of the several Balkan states should be entered into.

XII. The Turkish portion of the present Ottoman Empire should be assured a secure sovereignty, but the other nationalities which are now under Turkish rule should be assured an undoubted security of life and an absolutely unmolested opportunity of autonomous development, and the Dardanelles should be permanently opened as a free passage to the ships and commerce of all nations under international guarantees.

XIII. An independent Polish state should be erected which should include the territories inhabited by indisputably Polish populations, which should be assured a free and secure access to the sea, and whose political and economic independence and territorial integrity should be guaranteed by international covenant.

XIV. A general association of nations must be formed under specific covenants for the purpose of affording mutual guarantees of political independence and territorial integrity to great and small states alike.

为了对抗俄国十月革命和苏维埃政权的影响，为美国战后称霸创造条件，1918年1月8日美国总统威尔逊在国会发表演说，提出“十四点原则”作为“建立世界和平的纲领”。

因此，世界和平的方案，就是我们的方案；而依我们所见，这方案，这唯一可行的方案，应是这样的：

（1）公开和平等的，以公开的方式缔结，嗣后国际间不得有任何类型的秘密默契，外交必须始终在众目睽睽之下坦诚进行。

（2）各国领海以外的海洋上应有绝对的航行自由，在平时及战时均然，只有为执行国际公约而采取国际行动时才可以封海洋的一部分或全部。

（3）应尽最大可能，消除所有同意接受和平及协同维持和平国家之间的经济障碍，并建立平等的贸易条件。

（4）应采取充分保证措施，使各国军备减至符合国内保安所的最低限度。

（5）关于各国对殖民地的权益的要求，应进行自由、开明和对公正的协调，并基于对下述原则的严格遵守：在决定关于主的一切问题时，当地居民的利益，应与管治权待决的政府的正当要求，获得同等的重视。

（6）撤退在俄罗斯领土内的所有军队，解决所有关于俄国的题，该解决方案应取得世界其它国家最良好和最自由的合作，俾使俄国获得不受牵制和干扰的机会，独立地决定她本身的政治发展和国策，并保证她在自己选择的制度下，获得自由国家社会的诚挚欢迎；除欢迎之外，并给予她可能需要和希望获得的各种协助。俄国的姊妹国家在未来数月期间的态度，将考验出她们是有善意；是否对于俄国的需要有所了解，并把这种需要与她们本身的利害区别开来；是否有明智而无私的同情心。

（7）全世界应同意，在比利时的占领军必须撤退，其领土必须恢复，不得企图限制她应与其他自由国家同样享有的主权。其他任何一种行动均不能起这样的作用，因此唯有这样做才能使世界各国对于它们为了协调彼此关系而建立和确定的法律，恢复信心。如果没有此项治疗创伤的行动，国际法的整个体系与效力，将永远受损。

（8）法国全部领土应获自由，被侵占的法国地区应归还，同时，1871年普鲁士在阿尔萨斯—洛林问题上对法国的错误行径，已使世界和平受到几乎50年的干扰，自应予以纠正，俾能为了全体利益而再度确保和平。

（9）意大利的疆界，必须依照明晰可辨的民族界线予以重新调整。

（10）对于奥匈帝国统治下各民族，我们愿见他们的国际地位获得保证和确定，并对其发展自治给予最大程度的自由机会。

（11）罗马尼亚、塞尔维亚以及门的内哥罗的占领军应撤退；被占领的土地应归还；应给予塞尔维亚自由安全的出海通道；而巴尔干若干国家的相互关系，应按照历史上已经确立了的有关政治归属和民族界限的原则，通过友好协商加以决定；同时，对于若干巴尔干国家的政治及经济独立和领土完整，亦应给予国际保障。

（12）对于当前奥斯曼帝国的土耳其本土，应保证其有稳固的主权，但对现在土耳其人统治下的其他民族，则应保证他们有确实安全的生活，和绝对不受干扰的发展自治的机会；同时，达达内尔海峡应在国际保证之下永远开放，成为世界列国船只和商务的自由通路。

（13）应建立一个独立的波兰国，它的领域包括所有无可置疑的波兰人所居住的领土，并应保证她获得自由安全的出海通道，而她的政治及经济独立和领土完整，则应由国际公约予以保证。

（14）必需根据专门公约成立一个普遍性的国际联合组织，目的在于使大小各国同样获得政治独立和领土完整的相互保证。

2. Attack on Pearl Harbor 珍珠港事件

Throughout the 1930s, Japan had been steadily encroaching 注 on China, and the United States had been trying to contain Japan's expansion. On September 27, 1940, Japan joined the Triple Alliance with Italy and Germany and began to expand into northern Indochina. The United States, in response, placed the embargo 注 on aviation 注 gasoline 注, scrap metal, steel, and iron. After Japan's seizure of the rest of Indochina in July 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt closed the Panama Canal to Japanese shipping and added oil to the embargo list.

On November 25, 1941, though negotiations seeking a peaceful settlement continuing in Washington, the Japanese dispatched 注 aircraft carriers eastward toward Hawaii and began massing troops on the Malayan border. With diplomatic negotiations with Japan breaking down, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his advisers knew that an imminent Japanese attack was probable, but nothing had been done to increase security at the important naval base at Pearl Harbor.

On December 7, 1941, at 7:55 a.m. Hawaii time, a Japanese dive bomber bearing the red symbol of the Rising Sun of Japan on its wings appears out of the clouds above the island of Oahu. A swarm of 360

assault

. The Japanese air assault came as a devastating surprise to the American naval base which took few precautions

. Much of the Pacific fleet was rendered useless: eight battleships, three destroyers, and seven other ships were sunk or severely damaged, and more than 200 aircraft were destroyed. A total of 2,400 Americans were killed and 1,200 were wounded.

On December 8th, 1941, President Roosevelt appeared before a joint session of Congress and declared, “Yesterday, December 7, 1941—a date which will live in infamy—the United States of America was suddenly and deliberately attacked by naval and air forces of the Empire of Japan.” After a brief and forceful speech, he asked Congress to approve a resolution recognizing the state of war between the United

the United States irrevocably into World War II.

在整个20世纪30年代，日本一直在不断蚕食中国，美国一直在试图遏制日本的扩张。1940年9月27日，日本加入了意大利和德国成为三国联盟，并开始向印度支那北部扩大。美国对此做出反应、禁运航空汽油、废旧金属、钢和铁。1941年7月日本控制的印度支那的其他地区后，美国总统富兰克林·罗斯福关闭了巴拿马运河到日本的航运并将石油列入禁运名单。

1941年11月25日，虽然在华盛顿寻求和平解决的谈判仍在进行，然而日本开始派遣航空母舰向东驶向夏威夷，并开始在马来半岛边境集结部队。与日本的外交谈判破裂，美国总统富兰克林·罗斯福和他的顾问知道日本可能马上发动袭击，但没有采取任何行动来加强珍珠港这个重要海军基地的安全。

1941年12月7日，夏威夷时间上午07时55分，机翼上印有日本红色太阳标志的日本俯冲轰炸机冲出云层在欧胡岛上方出现。随后360架日本战机群突然出现在美国珍珠港海军基地并展开凶猛的进攻。日本的空中打击对并未采取预防措施的美国海军基地来说是一次毁灭性的突袭。太平洋舰队的大部分舰艇报废：8艘战列舰，3艘驱逐舰，7艘其他船只被击沉或严重损坏，超过200架飞机被摧

毁。一共有2,400名美国人丧生，1,200人受伤。

1941年12月8日，美国总统罗斯福在美国国会联合会议上宣布，“昨天，1941年12月7日将永远成为国耻日——美利坚合众国突然遭到日本帝国海军和空军的蓄意攻击。”在简短而有力的发言后，他要求国会通过一项决议，承认美国和日本处于战争状态。突然袭击给美国太平洋舰队沉重的一击，促使美国毫不迟疑地参战。

3. Big Deal—The Yalta Conference 大国交易——雅尔塔会议

The Yalta Conference, sometimes called the Crimea Conference, held February 4-11, 1945, was the wartime meeting of the heads of government of the United States, the United Kingdom, and the Soviet Union, represented by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Prime Minister Winston Churchill, and General Secretary Joseph Stalin, respectively, for the purpose of discussing Europe's postwar reorganization. The conference convened in the Livadia Palace near Yalta, in the Crimea.

The meeting was intended mainly to discuss the reestablishment of the nations of war-torn Europe. Within a few years, with the Cold War dividing the continent, Yalta became a subject of intense controversy

. To some extent

, it has remained controversial.

Yalta was the second of three wartime conferences among the Big Three (Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin). It had been preceded by the Tehran Conference in 1943, and it was followed by the Potsdam Conference in July 1945, which was attended by Harry S. Truman in place of the late Roosevelt, Stalin, and Churchill, with Churchill replaced mid-point by the newly elected Prime Minister Clement Attlee.

Key points of the meeting are as follows:

The priority of agreement is the unconditional surrender of Nazi Germany. After the war, Germany and Berlin would be split into four occupied zones.

Stalin agreed that France might have a fourth occupation zone in Germany and in Austria but it would have to be formed out of the American and British zones.

Germany would undergo demilitarization and degasification.

German reparations were partly to be in the form of forced labor.

Create a reparation council.

The Polish eastern border would follow the Curzon Line, and Poland would receive territorial compensation in the West from Germany.

Stalin agreed to enter the fight against the Empire of Japan within 90 days after the defeat of Germany.

雅尔塔会议，有时也被称为克里米亚会议于1945年2月4日至11日举行，是战时政府首脑会议，美国总统富兰克林·D. 罗斯福、英国首相温斯顿·丘吉尔和苏联总书记斯大林出席，主要探讨欧洲战后的重组。会议在克里米亚的里瓦的亚宫殿附近的雅尔塔召开。

会议的主要目的是讨论战后欧洲国家的重建问题。在几年内，随着冷战造成的大陆分裂，雅尔塔会议成了激烈争议的问题。在某种程度上，它仍然是有争议的。

雅尔塔会议是三巨头（丘吉尔，罗斯福，斯大林）的第二次战时会议。三巨头曾出席1943年的德黑兰会议，之后出席了1945年7月波茨坦会议，在这次会议中，杜鲁门代替了罗斯福，新当选的英国首相艾德礼取代丘吉尔出席了此次会议。

会议的重点如下：

协定最重要的一条是纳粹德国必须无条件投降。战后德国将被分割成四个占领区，在德国统一之前，柏林同样也将由四国占领。

斯大林同意让法国成为在德国和奥地利拥有占领区的第四个国家，但是法国占领区必须从英美两国的占领区中划分出来。

三巨头

德国军队被解散，不准再拥有军队。

德国的战争赔款可以以德国国家资源或劳动式的方式赔偿。

建立一个赔偿理事会。

波兰东部边界以按照寇松线准，波兰将得到德国西部一部分领土作补偿。

斯大林同意在击败德国90天内加入对日本帝国的作战。

4. It's First Time to Drop the Atomic Bomb 第一次扔原子弹

In 1940, the U.S. government began funding its own atomic weapons development program, which came under the joint responsibility of the Office of Scientific Research and Development and the War Department after the U.S. entry into World War II. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers was tasked with spearheading the construction of the vast facilities necessary for the top-secret program, codenamed "The Manhattan Project" (for the engineering corps' Manhattan district). On the morning of July 16, 1945, the Manhattan Project held its first successful test of an atomic device--a plutonium bomb—at the Trinity test site at Alamogordo, New Mexico.

By the time of the Trinity test, the Axis powers had already Germany in Europe、Japan, however, vowed to fight to the bitter end in the Pacific. In late July, Japan's militarist government rejected the Allied demand for surrender put forth in the Potsdam Declaration, which threatened the Japanese with "prompt and utter destruction" if they refused. In order to avoid a high casualty rate, Truman decided to use the atomic bomb in the hopes of bringing the war to a quick end.

Hiroshima, a manufacturing center of some 350,000 people located about 500 miles from Tokyo, was selected as the first target. A modified B-29 bomber dropped the bomb known as "Little Boy" by parachute at 8:15 in the morning on August 6, 1945, and it exploded 2,000 feet above Hiroshima in a blast equal to 12-15,000 tons of TNT, destroying five square miles of the city. The explosion wiped out 90 percent of the city and immediately killed 80,000 people; tens of thousands more would later die of radiation exposure. However, Hiroshima's devastation failed to elicit immediate Japanese surrender. Three days later, a second B-29 dropped another A-bomb—"Fat Man" on Nagasaki, killing an estimated 40,000 people.

Japan's Emperor Hirohito announced his country's unconditional surrender in World War II in a radio address on August 15, citing the devastating power of "a new and most cruel bomb." The formal surrender agreement was signed on September 2, aboard the U.S. aircraft carrier Missouri, anchored in Tokyo Bay.

1940年，美国政府开始出资进行核武器研发项目，美国加入第二次世界大战之后，这个项目就由科学研究和发展办公室与陆军部共同负责。美国陆军工程兵部队的任务是为绝密计划提供大量设施建设，此次项目代号为“曼哈顿工程”（因为工程兵所在地为曼哈顿工程区）。1945年7月16日上午，曼哈顿工程在新墨西哥州阿拉莫戈多的三位一体试验基地成功爆炸了第一颗原子弹——一颗钚原子弹。

进行三位一体测试时，同盟国已经在欧洲已经击败了德国。然而，日本坚持在太平洋死战到底。7月下旬，日本的军国主义政府拒绝了《波茨坦宣言》中盟军的投降要求，宣言明确表明如果他们拒绝就“迅速彻底地摧垮”日本。为了避免高的伤亡率，杜鲁门决定使用原子弹以迅速结束战争。

广岛纪念碑

广岛，日本的制造中心，人口约350,000人，距东京约500英里（800米），被选定为第一个轰炸目标。1945年8月6日上午8:15，一架经过改装的B-29型轰炸机在广岛上空2,000英尺（600米）的地方用降落伞投下被称为“小男孩”的原子弹——该原子弹爆炸的威力相当于1.2至1.5万吨TNT型炸药，摧毁了这个城市5平方英里的范围。爆炸摧毁了这个城市的百分之九十，有八万人当场死亡，之后又有数万人死于核辐射。然而，广岛的灾难并没有使日本立即投降。三天后，第二架B-29轰炸机在长崎投下第二颗原子弹——“胖子”，造成约四万人死亡。

8月15日日本裕仁天皇通过广播宣布日本在第二次世界大战中无条件投降，指出“一个新的最残酷的炸弹”的毁灭性的力量。9月2日，日方停泊在东京湾的美国航空母舰密苏里号上正式签署了投降协议。

5. The Beginning of Cold War—Iron Curtain Speech 冷战开端——铁幕演说

● Churchill's Iron Curtain Speech 丘吉尔的铁幕演说

The United States stands at this time at the pinnacle ^注 of world power. It is a solemn moment for the American democracy. For with this primacy ^注 in power is also joined an awe-inspiring accountability to the future. As you look around you, you must feel not only the sense of duty, but also you must feel anxiety lest you fall below the level of achievement. Opportunity is here now, clear and shining, for both our countries. To reject it or ignore it or fritter it away will bring upon us all the long reproaches ^注 of the aftertime.

From Stetting in the Baltic to Trieste in the Adriatic an iron curtain has descended across the Continent. Behind that line lie all the capitals of the ancient states of Central and Eastern Europe. Warsaw, Berlin, Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade, Bucharest and Sofia; all these famous cities and the populations around them lie in what I must call the Soviet sphere, and all are subject, in one form or another, not only to Soviet influence but to a very high and in some cases increasing measure of control from Moscow.

In a great number of countries, far from the Russian frontiers and throughout the world, Vietcong fifth columns are established and work in complete unity and absolute obedience ^注 to the directions they receive from the Vietcong center. Except in the British Commonwealth and in the United States where Communism is in its infancy, the Vietcong parties or fifth columns constitute a growing challenge and peril to Christian civilization.

华沙条约成员国冷战时和北约对峙图

Last time I saw it all coming and I cried aloud to my own fellow countrymen and to the world, but no one paid any attention. Up till the year 1933 or even 1935, Germany might have been saved from the awful fate which has overtaken her and we might all have been spared the miseries Hitler let loose upon mankind.

丘吉尔

美国此刻正高踞于世界权力的顶峰。对美国民主来说，这是一个庄严的时刻。拥有最大的力量，也就是对未来负有令人敬畏的责任。放眼四顾，你不但觉得已经尽了应尽的责任，也感到忧虑，恐怕以后的成就未必能达到这样高的水平。对你我两国来说，现在都有一个机会在这里，一个明确的、光彩夺目的机会。如果拒绝、忽视或糟蹋这个机会，我们将受到后世长期的责备。

从波罗的海的斯德丁（什切青）到亚得里亚海边的的里雅斯特，一幅横贯欧洲大陆的铁幕已经降落下来。在这条线的后面，坐落着中欧和东欧古国的都城。华沙、柏林、布拉格、维也纳、布达佩斯、贝尔格莱德、布加勒斯特和索菲亚——所有这些名城及其居民无一不处在苏联的势力范围之内，不仅以这种或那种形式屈服于苏联的势力影响，而且还受到莫斯科日益增强的高压控制。

在远离俄国边界、遍布世界各地的许多国家里，共产党第五纵队已经建立。它绝对服从来自共产主义中心的指令，完全协调地工作着。除了在英联邦和美国——那里的共产主义运动还在婴儿时代——共产党，即第五纵队到处构成对基督教文明的日益严重的挑衅和危险。

上一次，我曾目睹大战来临，对自己本国同胞和全世界大声疾呼，但是人们都听不进。近至1933年，甚至1935年，或许还能把德国从后来落到它头上的可怕命运中拯救出来，使我们大家都免遭希特勒强加于人类的苦难。

美国宗教

虽然美国是个世俗国家，宪法不允许建立国教，但是宗教在美国社会中的影响巨大，究其缘由，须从历史中寻找答案。美国早期移民多为“清教徒”，他们基于理想而建立了美国，因此美国的建立一开始就充满着宗教色彩。美国宗教不仅多元化，与政治也有密切的关联。

1. The Diversification and Secularization of Religion 宗教的多元化与世俗化

The United States is a multi-religious country without state religion, religion is very common. As the famous American theologian, Niebuhr said, the United States is the world's most secular country, also the most religious country. The majority is Christian; Roman Catholic 24% of the total, is the second largest religion; Judaism is the third-largest religion in the United States, there are about 600 million followers. In addition, there are the Orthodox, Buddhism, Islam and Hinduism and so on in U.S.. There are a variety of strange sects in United States, such as the devil sent, Jesus decadent and People's Temple, etc.

Most of American people believe in Christianity, also other religions exist, which have its historical reasons. A long time ago, those who left their homes and traveled back to the American continent, wanted to get rid of religious persecution. They were full of hope, to get freedom in the new land. This initial desire gradually formed a religious preference. Each person who suffered depressed wanted to stress that he's free, and also a sovereign people. So they claimed to choose religious beliefs, the church and worship, rather than authority, as before. So the United States of America founders made the law on freedom of religion at the beginning. First amendment of the United States Constitution explicitly prohibit the establishment of the state religion, Congress shall not set law that prohibit religious freedom, prohibit the federal and state intervene in church organization and activities, each state of Americans have the same freedom of religious belief.

美国绝大多数人信奉基督教，但其他各种宗教也同时并存，这是有其历史原因的。很久以前，那些背井离乡不远万里来到美洲大陆的人，许多是为了摆脱国内的宗教迫害。他们满怀希望，要在新的土地上获得自由。这种最初的愿望逐渐形成了对宗教的偏爱。每个曾经受过压抑的人都竭力想表明自己是自由人，是一个有主权的人。于是他们主张随心所欲地选择宗教信仰，选择教堂和礼拜方式，而不是像过去那样唯权威是从。因此美国的奠基者们从一开始就在法律上规定宗教自由。美国宪法第一修正案就明确禁止建立国教，国会不得规定禁止信教自由之法律，禁止联邦和州干预教会组织和活动，每个州的美国人都有同样的宗教信仰自由。

● Several Major Religions in the United States 美国的几大主要宗教

Protestant 新教

The United States is an immigrant's nation, which bases on the Protestant. Mainly from the early immigrants of England are most the Puritans ,who subject to religious persecution. Because lack of material and spiritual culture, immigration gave top priority to religious activities, daily life permeated the “infiltration of religious vitality.”.

All religious denominations in the United States, most are Protestants, about 72 million, almost accounting for 58% of Christian members. American Protestantism is divided into numerous small factions, many of which are small factions only known by their own members. Only 22 factions claim they have 500,000 members. Protestant denominations are mainly distributed in the South and Midwest of American. Relative large Protestant factions have Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian, Calvinist and Lutheran, etc., and their members are more than 1,000,000. There are many religious sect under major organizations. For example, under the Baptist: American Baptist Church (established in 1907), the National Baptist Congress (established in 1880), and American National Baptist Congress (established in 1880) and so on. There are some churches in the Methodist Church, such as United Methodist Church, African Methodist Episcopal Church.

There are about 30 American Protestant missionary parties overseas, over 35,000 missionaries.

美国是一个以基督教新教思想立国的移民国家，其早期移民主要来自英格兰，其中大多是受宗教迫害的清教徒。由于当时物质和精神文化贫乏，移民为使精神有所寄托，便把宗教活动放在首位，使日常生活中到处“渗透了宗教的活力”。

在美国所有的宗教派别中，新教教徒最多，约有7,200万，几乎占基督教会员的58%。美国新教又分为上百个名目繁多的小派别，其中许多派别小到除了它们自己的成员外简直不为任何人所知。只有22个派别宣称它们拥有50万成员。新教的教派主要分布在美国南部和中西部。比较大的新教派别有浸礼会、卫理公会、长老会、加尔文教派和路德教派等，它们的成员都在100万人以上。各大教派下面往往又有许多宗教组织。例如浸礼会下有：美国浸礼派教会（1907年建立）、全美浸礼派大会（1880年建立）、美国全国浸礼派大会（1880年建立）等。卫理公会下有：联合卫理公会、非洲卫理公会主教派教会等。

美国新教各派在海外的传教会约有30个，传教士达35,000人。

The Roman Catholic 罗马天主教

Roman Catholic Church is the largest religious. organization in U.S., and relatively united, about 50 million followers. These are mainly Irish Catholics, Italians and Poles descent. They are mainly concentrated in the eastern cities of U.S.. It is 24% of total population.

In America, there are 32 Catholic Archdiocese and 130 dioceses. In which, has more than 3 million people are Chicago, Los Angeles, Boston, more than 1 million people are New York, Detroit, and Philadelphia. It has about 80,000 Catholic priests in U.S.; together with other clergies are about 200,000 people. Catholic education in the United States plays an important role. Catholic colleges and universities have a total of 25, the middle schools are more than 1,600, primary schools are more than 8,500, the seminaries are 373. The total number of students in schools at all levels are up to 4 million people.

天主教在美国有32个大主教区，130个主教区。其中超过300万人的教区有芝加哥、洛杉矶、波士顿。超过100万人的有纽约、底特律、费城等。美国约有天主教神父8万；连同其他神职人员共20万人。天主教在美国教育中起着举足轻重的作用。信仰天主教的大专院校共有25所，中学1,600多所，小学8,500多所，神学院373所。各级学校学生总数多达400万人。

Judaism 犹太教

The United States is the largest Jewish state in the world. Judaism believers are mostly Jews. Judaism is America's third largest religion, has about 5,000 churches, 20 colleges. The original Jews are mostly immigrants from Eastern Europe and Russia. There are different factions within Judaism. Some factions still preserve many traditional practices. For example every Sabbath, from the sun fallen on Friday to Saturday, they do not ride or trade. Some factions also prohibit Christians from eating pork and some seafood, and require them to limit intake of food.

美国是世界上犹太人最多的国家。犹太教信奉者亦多为犹太人。犹太教是美国第三大宗教，约有教堂5,000座，大专院校20所。最初的犹太教徒多是来自东欧和俄国的移民。犹太教内也存在不同派别。有些派别还保留着不少传统习惯。如每逢安息日，即从星期五太阳落山起到星期六太阳落山止，他们不骑车也不经营企业。有些派别还禁止教徒吃猪肉和某些海味，并要求他们限制食量。

Buddhis 佛教

The United States has about 600,000 Buddhists, 60 temples, mainly located in Utah, Arizona, and Washington, Oregon and Hawaii states. Most of these Buddhist are Japanese immigrants and their descendants. The relatively larger Buddhist organizations locate in the Rochester, New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco, and the most famous is Zen Center of the eastern of Manchester. There are about 300 Buddhists who walk to the center every Sunday, attend 8 o'clock meditation. At 8 o'clock, These Buddhists with bare feet and brown robes, concentrate on meditation, and chant each other with English.

It is estimated that the impact of Buddhism in the United States is much greater than Buddhists, and will continue to expand. Buddhism in the United States is bound to exist. The world's major religions are almost all believers in the U.S. About million Muslims live in U.S., Hindus and other religions is also no shortage.

美国的佛教徒约有60万，寺庙约60座，主要集中在犹他、亚利桑那、华盛顿、俄勒冈和夏威夷各州。这些佛教徒多数是日本移民和他们的后裔。美国较大的佛教组织集中在罗切斯特、纽约、洛杉矶

矶和旧金山，设置在曼彻斯特东端的禅宗中心最为著名。那里约有300名佛教徒，他们每星期日步行来到这个中心，参加8点钟的打坐。这些教徒们，赤着双足，穿着棕色的僧袍，聚精会神地打坐，然后一起用英文念经。

有人估计，佛教在美国的影响要比佛教徒大得多，而且还将继续扩大。佛教势必在美国长期存在下去。世界上所有的重要宗教几乎在美国都有信徒。美国的穆斯林约有100万人，印度教和其他宗教的信徒也不乏其人。

2. We Believe in God: Christian in America 我们信仰上帝：美国人的基督教情结

According to the latest statistics, about 86 percent of Americans are Christians, while in the United States, the atheists will be subject to the exclusion and attacks, which is a completely different situation in China.

When you walk into the Federal Supreme Court, which is on behalf of the fairness of the national rights, two oak doors etched with the Ten Commandments; when you enter into the Supreme Court, demonstration Ten Commandments are demonstrated on the top of the trial judge's head. Not only that, in Washington, DC federal office buildings and monuments are engraved on the "biblical" scripture, everything shows that here is a country that Puritan built up by the puritan.

James Madison, is known as "the father of constitutional" in the United States' and fourth president, once said: all political institutions must be based on self-restraint and never allow people to comply with God's ten commandments of self-organization independent from government. In the U.S., from 1777, before the start of each congressional session, there is a full-time pastor paid by the taxpayer for the well-being of all Americans to pray; the 55 members of the drafting of the Federal Constitution, there are 52 colonial official church of the Puritans; Thomas Jefferson fears the court would be ultra vires since the interpretation and application of regulations rather than law, will override the will of the minority represented by the majority of God's will. The first Supreme Court judge John Jay claimed: the American people should selected Christians as the steward of the managers and leaders with priority.

根据最新的统计，大约有86%的美国人基督徒，同时在美国，如果宣称自己是无神论者，将会受到一致的排挤和攻击，这是和倡导无神论的中国是完全不同的情况。

被称为“宪政之父”的美国第四任总统詹姆斯·麦迪逊曾说过：必须把所有政治机构建立在能够自我约束并永远让国民遵守上帝的十大戒律的自治独立的政府组织。在美国，从1777年开始，每次国会会议开始之前，就有一位由纳税人付薪的专职牧师为全体美国人的福祉祈祷；在55位起草联邦宪法的成员中，就有52位是殖民地时期正式教堂中的清教徒；托马斯·杰弗逊曾不无担忧法院会越权自

定法规而不是解释和运用法律，将会把少数人的意志凌驾于由神所代表的大多数人的旨意。第一位联邦最高法院法官约翰·杰曾声称：美国人民应该选取并优先考虑基督徒作为这个管家的管理者和领导者。

3. Religion and Politics in America 美国的宗教与政治

Religion is deeply rooted in American society, and widely impact in all aspects of American life. The U.S. banknotes, are printed "We Trust God." In the U.S. national anthem ,there is a sentence—"God Bless America". The inauguration of a president of US would hand on "the Bible" under oath. Each session of both houses of Congress begins with the prayer which is presided by the pastor. In American college campuses, student activities, there are a large number of religious groups. U.S. hospitals, prisons, airports and many other public and private institutions also have full-time or part-time religious professionals to provide religious services. In United States more than 85 percent students of private enroll in religious schools. Harvard, Yale, Princeton and many other prestigious universities were originally founded by the Church. American Church is much more prosperous than other Western countries. The most prominent feature is the coexistence of various religious sects; there are currently more than 250 different religious denominations, more than 222,000 local church groups.

American religion is like an endless flowing river, as long as the United States still exist, the river will not disappear. For an American, religion is more than a religion, and it has participated in all aspects of American social life. If an American participate in a religious organization, he would receive some in the community identity and status, so he realizes that he has in the social groups in a seat position and feels peace of mind. They often are dominated by this concept, they are willing and ideology in action on the people around with their consistent, rather than stay lonely. In many social groups, a non-religious people who may be subject to some criticism, are being regarded as having quirks and unapproachable person. Therefore, U.S. law allows people the freedom of believing religion or not. Religious freedom, in practice this freedom is often spontaneous preference for the social atmosphere of religious resistance. Even those who attempt to enter the government through the election of candidates, have often tried to express themselves on religious piety to win people's favor. Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter a protestant, participated in the 1976 Democratic campaign and had frequently mentioned religious issues. Once, he even said he prayed to God 20 times every day. Some people think that his devout religious attitude plays a certain role in the success of his campaign.

宗教深深植根于美国社会中，并广泛地影响着美国社会生活的方方面面。美国的钞票上，赫然印着“我们信仰上帝”。美国的国歌里，有“上帝保佑美国”的歌词。美国总统就职，要手按《圣经》进行宣誓。国会参众两院的每一届会议都是以国会牧师主持的祈祷开始。美国的大学校园里，活动着大量的学生宗教团体。美国的医院、监狱、机场及其他许多公共与民间机构中也都有专职或兼职的宗教职业人员提供宗教服务。美国85%以上私立中小学校的学生就读于教会学校。哈佛大学、耶鲁大学、普林斯顿大学等许多著名的美国大学最初都是由教会创办的。美国教会要比其他西方国家兴旺得多。最突出的特点是多种教派并存，目前共有250多个不同的宗教派别，22.2万多个地方性教会团体。

美国宗教犹如一条奔流不息的大河，只要美国存在，这条河就不会消失。宗教对美国人来说，绝不仅仅是一种信仰，而且还渗透在美国人生活的各个方面。如果一个美国人参加某个宗教组织，他便在社会上获得了某种身份和地位，使他意识到自己在社会团体中拥有一席之地而感到心安理得。他们往往为这种观念所主宰，愿意在行动上和思想意识上同自己周围的人保持一致，而不愿茕茕孑立，落落寡合。在许多社会团体中，一个不信教的人可能会受到人们的某种非难，被视为有怪癖和不易接近的人。所以美国法律规定人们有信仰宗教和信仰宗教的自由，实际上这种自由却常常为社会上自发的偏爱宗教的风气所抵制。甚至那些企图通过竞选进入政府的候选人，也得常常竭力表现自己对宗教的虔诚，以博得人们的好感。美国前总统卡特信奉新教，他在参加1976年民主党竞选时，曾频繁地提到宗教问题。有一次，他甚至说他每天都要向上帝祷告20多次。有人认为，他对宗教的这种虔诚态度对于他的竞选成功似乎起了一定的作用。

美国人对文学、艺术、戏剧、音乐等抱有十分浓厚的兴趣。这也充分反映了美国人的性格和他们的生活方式。可以说，休闲娱乐是助你了解美国人和美国文化的重要途径！

1. The Kingdom of Fairy Tale—Disneyland 童话王国——迪斯尼乐园

In 1955, imaginative and creative spirit of American animation pioneer Walt Disney in California, founded the first modern amusement park called Disneyland. 迪斯尼城堡

1955年，富于想象力和创造精神的美国动画片先驱沃尔特·迪斯尼在加利福尼亚州创办了第一座现代化的游乐园，取名迪斯尼乐园。这不仅是第一个迪斯尼乐园，同时也是世界上第一个现代意义上的主题公园。迪斯尼乐园将米老鼠等卡通人物重现于距洛杉矶35公里、占地64.7公顷的主题公园中。在有着真人大小卡通形象的乐园中，可以驾驶未来车、搭乘密西西比的船尾舢舨、嬉游于中世纪的城堡，或在美国大街上漫步。到今天，除了加州洛杉矶迪斯尼乐园外，还建造了奥兰多迪斯尼世界、巴黎迪斯尼乐园和其他主题公园。

● Hong Kong Disneyland 香港迪斯尼乐园

Hong Kong Disneyland is located on reclaimed land in Penny's Bay, Lantau Island. It is the first theme park located inside the Hong Kong Disneyland Resort. The park opened to visitors on 12 September 2005. Disney attempted to avoid problems of cultural backlash by attempting to incorporate Chinese culture, customs, and traditions when designing and building the resort, including adherence to the rules of "Feng Shui". For instance, a bend was put in a walkway near the Hong Kong Disneyland Resort entrance so good "qi" (chi) energy wouldn't flow into the South China Sea.

The park consists of five themed areas: Main Street, U.S.A., Fantasyland, Adventureland, Tomorrowland and Toy Story Land. The theme park's cast members speak in Cantonese, English, and Mandarin. Guide maps are printed in traditional and simplified Chinese as well as English, French, and Japanese.

香港迪士尼乐园位于大屿山竹篙湾的填海区，这是第一个位于香港迪士尼乐园度假村的主题公园。2005年9月12日，迪士尼乐园向游客开放。迪士尼试图避免文化冲击所带来的问题，在设计和建设这个景点时，结合了中国文化、习俗和传统，包括“风水”的理念。例如，在迪士尼乐园的入口处，一道“弧形”的设计与“气”的理念吻合，意在阻止中国南海的能量“涌入”。

公园由五个主题区域组成：美国街区、幻想世界、探险之地，明日世界与玩具大地。主题公园的演员讲粤语方言、英语和普通话。导游地图印有繁体和简体中文，以及英语、法语和日语。

● The Recollection of the Disneyland's First Visitor 迪斯尼乐园第一位游客追忆往昔时光

Dave MacPherson may have been the first paying guest at Disneyland when the theme park first opened its gates 50 years ago, but he didn't even have time for one ride. In a hurry to get back to campus for a college class, he instead visited a restroom after spending hours in line and left without as much as a souvenir.

Still, the honor of being the first paid admission came with a special perk  : a lifetime pass for four to Disneyland and other Disney parks as they opened.

"I was the most popular guy at the college," said MacPherson, now 72, a retired journalist living in Monticello, Utah, about 240 miles southeast of Salt Lake City.

He's taken full advantage of it scores of times, especially when he lived in California. Usage dwindled after he moved to Kansas City, Mo., to work for newspapers and radio.

But being closer to California has made it more useful and he last made the trip a year ago with his wife, Wanda. He receives a VIP renewal  every January.

MacPherson was watching televised coverage of the opening of Disneyland for the media and invited guests on July 17, 1955, a day before the park opened to the public.

"I said, Boy, I sure would like to go out there." said MacPherson, who figured he might draw a prize for standing first in line.

He drove his Simplex motorbike to Anaheim, arriving shortly before 1 a.m. to take his place in line an hour before anyone else showed up.

The crowd steadily grew overnight to about 6,000 people, and MacPherson made sure no one got in front of him. When the admission booth opened, a photographer for the Long Beach Press-Telegram captured him buying the first ticket.

Looking at the photo many years later, he realized he had his own camera but didn't use it.

"Why didn't I shoot some pictures?" he wonders. "I even forgot to ask Walt (Disney) for his autograph

. I must have been balmy or something after staying up all night."

50多年前，当迪斯尼主题公园首次对外开放时，戴夫·麦克弗森可能是第一位买票入园的游客。但是，当时他连在公园转一圈的时间都没有。在排队苦苦等候了几个小时后，他才进入公园，去了一趟公共厕所，就急急忙忙的赶回大学校园去上课。他走时甚至连一件像样的纪念品都没买。

尽管如此，这位第一位自己买票进入迪斯尼乐园的游客还是享有一些特殊的优惠：在他的一生中，他随时都可以免费游览迪斯尼乐园和其他迪斯尼公园，而且每次都可以免费获得四张门票。

“在大学里，我可是最受欢迎的人，”麦克弗森说。现年72岁的他是一位退休记者，住在犹他州的蒙蒂塞洛。这个小城位于盐湖城的东南方，相距约240英里。

他充分利用了自己的这一“特权”，曾多次光顾迪斯尼乐园，特别是他住在加利福尼亚时。后来，他搬到密苏里州的堪萨斯市为报纸和电台工作后，使用“特权”的次数才慢慢减少了。

不过，因为他住得离加利福尼亚州很近，这个特权就变得相当有用。他最近一次游览迪斯尼乐园是去年和妻子旺达一起去的。每年一月，他都会收到一张续签过的贵宾卡。

1955年7月17日，就在迪斯尼乐园对公众开放的前一天，迪斯尼邀请媒体和贵宾参加了乐园的开幕仪式。麦克弗森正好看到了相关的电视报道。

“我说，好家伙，我肯定得去逛逛，”麦克弗森说。他想如果排在最前面的话，可能会得到点奖品。

他骑上自己的那辆新普利斯摩托车驶往阿纳海姆，不到凌晨一点就已到了那里，开始排队。直到一个小时之后，其他人才陆续出现。

一晚上，人数逐渐增多，最后约有6,000人排队等候。麦克弗森始终排在第一位，没有人排在他的前面。当售票亭打开门卖票的时候，一名《长滩电讯日报》的摄影记者捕捉到了他购买第一张公园门票的镜头。

多年以后，当他看到这张照片的时候，他意识到自己当时也带着相机，却没用上。

“我怎么就没拍些照片呢？”他百思不得其解。“我甚至忘了向沃尔特·迪斯尼索要签名。肯定是因为站了一晚上累坏了，我当时变得稀里糊涂的，也许就是这样。”

2. Film Capital in the World—Hollywood 电影之都——好莱坞

● Universal City Studios 好莱坞环球影城

If a single place-name encapsulates  the LA dream of glamour , money and overnight success, it's Hollywood. Millions of tourists arrive on pilgrimages  ; millions more flock here in pursuit of riches and glory  . Hollywood is a weird combination of insatiable optimism  and total despair. It really does blur  the edges of fact and fiction, simply because so much seems possible and yet so little, for most people, actually is.

格雷塔·嘉宝

Hollywood suggests glamour, a place where the young star-struck teenagers could, with a bit of luck, fulfill their dreams. Hollywood suggests luxurious  houses with vast palm fringed swimming pools, cocktail bars and furnishings fit for a millionaire.

Hollywood located in the city of Los Angeles, California, U.S., whose name is synonymous  with the American film industry. Since the early 1900s, when movie making pioneers found in southern market, the image of Hollywood as the fabricator  of cinematic  dreams has been etched worldwide. The first house in Hollywood was an adobe building (1853) on a site near Los Angeles, then a small city in the new state of California. Hollywood was laid out as a real-estate subdivision in 1887 by Harvey Wilcox, a prohibitionist from Kansas who envisioned a community based on his sober religious principles. Real-estate magnate H. J. Whitley—known as the "Father of Hollywood," subsequently transformed Hollywood into a wealthy and popular residential area.

贾利·古柏

In 1908 one of the first storytelling movies, The Count of Monte Cristo, was completed in Hollywood after its filming had begun in Chicago. In 1911 a site on Sunset Boulevard was turned into Hollywood's first studio, and soon about 20 companies were producing films in the area. In 1913 Cecil B. DeMille, Jesse Lasky, Arthur Freed, and Samuel Goldwyn formed Jesse Lasky Feature Play Company (later Paramount Pictures). Hollywood had become the centre of the American film industry by 1915 as more independent filmmakers relocated there from the East Coast. The Hollywood studios, by means of advertising, turned starlets 注 into superstars. Many studio chiefs were tyrants 注 , determined to get their way at all costs, no matter how unscrupulous 注 the means.

Hollywood's fame and fortune reached its peak in the 1930s and 1940s, the golden days of the black and white movies. Most of the famous motion picture corporations of these days, Columbia and Warner Brothers are still very much in business and great stars like Greta Garbo, Marlene Dietrich, Charlie Chaplin, Gary Cooper, and many others besides, have become immorta 注 .

In those days, Hollywood was like a magnet 注 , drawing ambitious young men and women from all over the world. Most of them had only their good looks to recommend them and had no acting experience—or ability—whatever. Occasionally they got jobs, if they were lucky enough to be noticed. Gary Cooper was one of the few who were noticed. He started as a stunt 注 rider, and from there rose to be one of the great stars of the early westerns. But most of them hoped in vain 注 .

Hollywood is no longer the heart of the world's motion picture industry. Most movies today are filmed on location, that is to say, in the cities, in the countryside, and in any part of the world that the script demands. The Hollywood studios are still standing, but most of them have been leased. About eighty percent of all American TV entertainment comes from Hollywood. And Hollywood has not lost all its glamour yet.

好莱坞环球影城

如果说一个地方的名称可以概括洛杉矶魅力，金钱和一夜成名的梦想，那就是好莱坞。数以百万计的游客来这里朝圣；更多的人来这里追逐财富和荣耀。好莱坞是一个贪得无厌的乐观和彻底的绝望的怪异组合。这里已经模糊了现实与虚构的界限，因为对大多数人来说，这里有那么多的可能，但似乎又少的可怜，实际上确实如此。

好莱坞意味着魔力，这是一个追星族少年可能靠着一点运气就能实现梦想的地方。好莱坞也意味着只有百万富翁才能拥有的豪宅——棕榈树环绕的游泳池，鸡尾酒吧和其他适合富豪的装饰物。

好莱坞位于美国加利福尼亚州洛杉矶市，现在已经成了美国电影业的代名词。20世纪初，从制片人开拓者们南加州发现了这个气候温和，日照充足，地形多样且拥有大型劳动力市场的理想地点时起，好莱坞就以电影梦想制造者的形象被世界铭记。1853年，当时的好莱坞只有一间土坯建筑，位于洛杉矶附近，随后发展成加利福尼亚州的一个新兴小城市。1887年，哈维·威尔考克斯——一名来自萨斯州的禁酒主义者，买下了好莱坞这块地产，他设想在这里建立一个以清醒的宗教原则为基础的社区。后来房地产巨头H. J. 惠特利——被誉为“好莱坞之父”，将好莱坞变成一个富有和受欢迎的居住区。

1908年，第一部故事片的电影《基督山伯爵》在好莱坞完成拍摄，随后在芝加哥上映。1911年，日

落大道成为好莱坞的第一个工作室（电影制片厂），并很快有大约20家公司在该地区拍摄电影。1913年，塞西尔·B·德米尔，杰西·拉斯基，亚瑟·弗里德和塞缪尔·戈尔德温在好莱坞成立了特写播放公司（即后来的派拉蒙电影公司）。1915年，更多独立的电影制片人从东海岸搬到那里，好莱坞已经成为美国电影业的中心。好莱坞的电影公司，通过广告手段，将小明星打造成了超级巨星。许多电影公司老板都是独裁者，他们会不惜一切代价，不择手段的达到自己的目的。

好莱坞的声誉和财富在20世纪30和40年代达到顶峰——这是黑白电影的黄金时代。当时有名的大多数电影公司，如哥伦比亚电影公司和华纳兄弟电影公司如今仍运营良好。当时的著名影星如格雷塔·嘉宝、玛琳·黛德丽、查理·卓别林、贾利·古柏和其他很多影星都已成为不朽的巨星。

那时，好莱坞像个磁石吸引着全世界的野心勃勃的年轻男女。他们大多数只靠良好的相貌来自荐，而没有任何表演经验或能力。如果他们足够幸运的话，就会被发现而得到工作。贾利·古柏就是那些为数不多的被注意到的人之一，他先做特技骑手，而后逐渐成长为早期西方的巨星之一。但是他们中的大多数人都是徒劳。

好莱坞如今已经不再是世界电影业的中心，现在的大多数电影都是实地拍摄，也就是说，在城市，在乡村或在剧本所需要的世界上的任何地方。好莱坞的摄影棚依然存在，不过大都已被出租。大概80%的美国电视娱乐节目仍在好莱坞进行拍摄。好莱坞仍光芒闪耀。

● Charles Chaplin 查理·卓别林

Chaplin lost his father early, once earned living in the recreation field and the four theatrical troupe or does odd jobs. In 1913, along with the Ka Ernuo dumb theater troupe went to the United States for perform, is filled Nutter by American Director M. Sai Nate, began his film career. On February 28, 1914, wearing a bowler hat, holding bamboo canes, full board big boots, walks like a duck wandering Hanxiaerluo image first appeared in the film "between showers" in the. This image of a sign is Charlie Chaplin comedy, popular in Europe more than 20 years. He laid the foundation of modern comedy film, Chaplin wearing a bowler hat and the dress looks like almost a comedy film an important representative of many later artists are performing in his way.

From 1919, Chaplin independent producers, recording a total of 80 since the remnants of life comedy, in which the famous film in movie history with "Gold Rush", "City Lights," "Modern Times", "The Great Dictator" "Monsieur Verdoux", "Limelight" and so on. These films reflect a common humanist from Charlie Chaplin to a great master of realistic art criticism process. Chaplin superb performing arts have great sympathy for the lower labor, the capitalist society of the drawbacks for bitter irony, the fascist leader Adolf Hitler was ruthless flogging. In 1952, he was persecuted by McCarthyism, was forced to leave the United States and settled in Switzerland. In Switzerland, he shot a sharp satire of McCarthyism film "A King in New York." In 1972, Chaplin returned to the United States invited to a grand Hollywood, the Academy awarded him the Lifetime Achievement Award, said he was "in the film art of this century to make an invaluable contribution."

Chaplin's best role is a tramp appearance, the inner bearing is a gentleman, wearing a narrow dress, oversized pants and shoes, wearing a bowler hat, holding a bamboo stick, leaving the image of a write-mustache. Charlie Chaplin in the silent film era is the most talented and influential figures. His own writing, directing, and acting and release his film. From the Grand Theatre in the UK as a child actor on the stage to his death he was 88 years old in 70 years in the entertainment industry career. From Dickensian London childhood, the film industry has reached the top of the world, Chaplin's life is the life of the 20th century.

在无声电影时期卓别林是最有才能和影响最大的人物之一。他自己编写、导演、表演和发行他自己的电影。从在英国的大剧院作为孩童演员登台演出到他88岁高龄逝世，他在娱乐业从事了70多年的生涯。从狄更斯式的伦敦童年一直达到了电影工业的世界顶端，卓别林的一生是20世纪最引人注目的。

3. The King of Rock and Roll—Elvis Aron Presley 摇滚乐之王——埃尔维斯·普雷斯利

Elvis Aaron Presley (1935-1977), nicknamed "The Hillbilly Cat", American singer and actor, is one of the most popular and influential entertainers of the 20th century. Presley is renowned as an early pioneer of rock music, fusing the sounds of country music and rhythm-and-blues influences with what was then the new rock-and-roll style. His unprecedented, electrically charged performances also helped took Presley as one of the first mass idols of American popular culture.

Elvis Aaron Presley was born in the southern town of Tupelo, Mississippi on January 8th, 1935. His family was extremely poor. During his childhood, he sang in church with his parents. He also listened to music that influenced his later singing, including country, rhythm-and-blues, and religious music. He won a talent contest at the age of ten for the ballad Old Shep (1933), written by country singer Red Foley. After high school, Presley worked as a truck driver. In 1953, studio owner Sam Phillips signed Presley to his fledgling record label, Sun Records. In 1955, Presley switched to a major label, the Radio Corporation of America (RCA).

By the middle of the 1950's, Elvis Presley was known around the world as the young man who moved his hips in a sexual way as he sang rock and roll music. Presley's romantic, suggestive ballads were matched by his erotic gyrations on stage, a style that made him popular with teens but controversial with their parents and other authority figures.

He was a success in many different kinds of music-popular, country, religious, and rhythm-and-blues. Overall, Presley is credited with more than 100 singles that made the pop charts —far more than any other artist. Elvis Presley won three of the music industry's highest award, the Grammy. During a career spanning two decades Presley set and broke many sales records with over 100 top 40 hit singles including 18 number ones. Music industry experts say more than one-thousand-million of Elvis's recordings have sold throughout the world.

He made his first movie in 1956. It was Love Me Tender . The title song was a big hit. Elvis Presley was one of the highest paid actors in Hollywood for a number of years in the 1950's. He acted in thirty-one movies.

On August 16th, 1977, Elvis Presley died at Graceland Mansion in Memphis, Tennessee, at the age of 42. His death had some controversy, it has been officially attributed to heart failure, a likely result of Presley's chronic overuse of prescription barbiturates. Presley is buried at his mansion, Graceland, which is a major tourist site in Memphis.

After his death, hundreds of thousands of people still visit his home, Graceland, in Memphis every year. Fans continue to buy his music, making him the most popular artist. Elvis Presley remains the undisputed King of Rock and Roll.

猫王死了，但摇滚乐变得更加流行

埃尔维斯·普雷斯利（1935～1977年），被歌迷昵称为“来自南方的小猫”（通称为猫王），美国歌手和演员，是20世纪最流行和最有影响力的艺人之一，也是世界上著名的摇滚音乐先驱，将乡村音乐和布鲁斯音乐融会贯通，形成了新的摇滚风格，前所未有的触电般的表演也使普雷斯利成为美国流行文化的第一批偶像之一。

1935年1月8日，猫王普雷斯利出生于密西西比州南部的图佩洛镇。他家境极其贫困。孩提时代，他与父母一起在教堂里唱歌。他倾听乡村音乐、布鲁斯音乐及宗教音乐等多种音乐，这些音乐对他后来的歌唱有深远的影响，并在10岁时以一首乡村音乐歌手瑞德·佛利谱写的歌谣《老牧羊人》（1933）而获奖。高中毕业后，普雷斯利成为了卡车司机。1953年，工作室老板萨姆·菲利普斯将普雷斯利签到自己新兴的唱片公司——太阳唱片公司。1955年他就转到有实力的美国广播公司旗下。

至20世纪50年代中期，猫王作为一个演唱摇滚音乐时性感地扭臀的年轻人而举世闻名。普雷斯利浪漫、性暗示的民谣与在舞台上的色情回旋动作相配合，这种风格使他备受十几岁的人群所青睐，但家长和其他权威人物对此很有争议。

他在流行音乐、乡村音乐、宗教音乐以及布鲁斯音乐等多种不同的音乐方面都有建树。总体而言，普雷斯利有超过100首单曲登入流行音乐排行榜——远远超过了任何其他艺术家。普雷斯利三度荣获唱片业的最高奖项——格莱美奖。在普雷斯利二十年的艺术生涯中，他凭着超过100首的排名前40的歌曲打破了很多唱片销售纪录，其中有18首还曾位居第一。唱片业的专家说，普雷斯利的唱片在全世界的销量超过10亿张。

1956年他首演电影，电影名字叫《温柔爱我》，其主题歌曲名震一时。20世纪50年代，猫王普雷斯利是好莱坞在数年中支付薪金最高的演员之一。他共演过31部电影。

1977年8月16日，摇滚歌王埃尔维斯·普雷斯利死在田纳西州的孟菲斯格雷斯兰公寓里，享年42岁。他的去世，存在争议，官方认定他心脏衰竭而死，可能是普雷斯利长期过量使用巴比妥类（镇定剂）处方药物的结果。普雷斯利被安葬在他格雷斯兰公寓——这成为了孟菲斯的一个主要旅游景

点。

在他去世以后，每年仍然有成千上万的人参观他在孟菲斯的家——格雷斯兰公寓。歌迷们继续买他的唱片，使他成为最受欢迎的歌手艺人。猫王普雷斯利仍是无可争议的摇滚音乐之王。

4. The Blues 布鲁斯音乐

The Blues started in the 19th century as a form of folk music developed by the black slaves in the United States. The Blues is the most important musical form in Jazz and Jazz-related music.

The origin of Blues is not unlike the origin of life. For many years it was recorded only by memory, and relayed only live, and in person. The origins of the Blues and the specific place of its origin are a bit shrouded  , and at any rate are a matter of definition. (Some people believe that the Blues were born in the North Mississippi Delta after the Civil War.) Certainly African-Americans brought musical traditions with them from Africa, and even improvised  versions of African instruments  .

And certainly, these musical traditions, though they were repressed in some contexts  , starting blending very early with European-American music of all kinds, and in particular Christian religious understand that both traditions were remarkably various, that they blended in innumerable  ways and then the blends blended and so on, so that any simple proclamations should be resisted. The Blues are the essence  of the African American laborer, whose spirit is wed to these songs, reflecting his inner soul to all who will listen. Blues is the cornerstone  of all forms of African American music.

布鲁斯音乐鼻祖大个子

Influenced by African roots, ballads  , church music and rhythmic  dance tunes, The Blues evolved into a kind of unique music. Originally Blues were very loosely structured songs performed by individual singers, guitarists and banjo players. The lyrics were usually sad and dealt with every day issues of slave life.

Bad luck and trouble are always present in the Blues, and always the result of others, pressing upon unfortunate and down trodden poor souls, yearning to be free from troubles of life. Relentless rhythms repeat the chants of sorrow , and the pity of a lost soul many times over. This is the Blues. Despite its "sadness" blues is essentially a part and dance music and often mostly an occasion for celebration. But when the Blues spread from the country side to urban centers their content included more happy aspects.

The blues have strongly influenced almost all popular music including jazz, country, and rock and roll and continues to help shape music worldwide.

布鲁斯音乐始于19世纪，是美国黑人奴隶创造出来的一种民族音乐。布鲁斯音乐是爵士乐中最重要的音乐形式。

布鲁斯音乐的起源类似于生命的起源。很多年来，布鲁斯音乐由人口口相传，只依靠记忆流传至今。布鲁斯音乐起源的具体时间地点并没有定论。（有人认为，最早的布鲁斯音乐出现在南北战争后的北密西西比三角洲地区）。非洲裔美国人从非洲带来了他们的音乐传统和经过了改良的乐器。非洲音乐传统与欧美音乐特别是宗教音乐相结合，于是产生了布鲁斯。布鲁斯是非洲裔美国劳动者的结晶，他们用灵魂铸成了音乐，表现了渴望倾诉的内心的灵魂。布鲁斯为所有美国黑人音乐形式打下坚固的基石。

在非洲音乐传统、民谣、教堂音乐和节律舞蹈的影响下，布鲁斯音乐最后发展成为一种独特的音乐形式。最初布鲁斯音乐是由歌手、吉他手和班卓手演唱和演奏的结构松散的歌曲。歌词通常很忧伤，与奴隶日常生活相关。

布鲁斯通常表现某种坏运气和麻烦的遭遇，总是在蓝调现在，表达了受人压迫和践踏的可怜灵魂对解脱生活烦恼的渴望。无情的节奏重复悲伤的圣歌，一个可怜的灵魂在飘荡。这就是布鲁斯音乐。尽管布鲁斯曲调很忧伤，但作为重要舞曲经常在节日庆典上演奏。但当布鲁斯音乐从乡村传播到城市时，便增添了更多快乐的元素。

布鲁斯音乐的影响很大，几乎所有音乐都受其影响，如爵士乐，乡村音乐和摇滚乐，并继续影响着全球的音乐。

注 food, such as hot dogs, popcorn, and peanuts make going to a baseball game a favorite summer outing for many Americans.

No one is exactly sure how baseball began, but it seems to have its roots in the English game called "rounders" or "four-old-cat." The players stand at bases and one holds a ball. Rounders had many of the same features as baseball has today. The one major difference was that in rounders the fielder put the batter out by hitting him with the ball.

棒球场地

When a group in New York City got together in 1845 to regulate the rules of baseball, they decided that to get a base runner out, an opposing player need only tag him with the ball instead of hitting him with it. From then on, baseball was played using a hard ball, and soon the game began to be played on a much larger scale. Baseball became an organized sport in the 1840s and 1850s. People even played it during the Civil War.

Many early baseball teams were formed in New York City and Brooklyn. By 1860, baseball had replaced the British game of cricket as America's most popular game. At this time, baseball was an amateur sport, which meant that players were not paid to play. The Brooklyn Atlantics were the leading team in early baseball, winning championships in 1861, 1864, and 1865.

The first all-professional baseball team was the Cincinnati Red Stockings. It was considered a bold move to decide to openly pay players to play baseball, and it can be credited to Club President Aaron B. Champion, who came up with the idea. In 1869, the Reds' player-manager Harry Wright, known as the "Father of Professional Baseball," and his team toured the country and won 60 games without a single loss. Although the National Association didn't want to support the professional baseball movement, they were overruled. Major League baseball in America had begun.

On February 2, 1876, the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs, which comes to be more commonly known as the National League (NL), is formed. The American League (AL) was established in 1901 and in 1903, the first World Series was held. Between 1903 and 2007, AL teams were the winners in 61 of the 103 World Series played. The American League's New York Yankees have won more World Series championships 26 than any other team in baseball.

棒球，全美的休闲活动，几乎自第一个移民者到达时，即以某种形式在此国家成型；虽然它可能自一种英国游戏演变而来，但是现在已经被认为是独特的美式运动。从“小联盟”到“大联盟”，能力不同的棒球员勇于在“梦的领域”上测试他们的超凡本领。著名的棒球员、好记的歌曲及标准的球场食物，如：热狗、爆米花和花生等，使得观看棒球比赛成为许多美国人最爱的夏季户外活动。

没有人能够清楚知道棒球的由来，但它似乎是从英国的一种儿童游戏——圆场棒球或四只老猫演变而来的；运动员站在垒包上，有人手上握一个球；圆场棒球球员的许多作用及功能都跟现在的棒球员相同；唯一的差别在于圆场棒球的外野手以球击打打击手以使其出局。

1845年，纽约市的某一团体聚在一起制定了棒球规则，他们规定只需以球轻触跑垒者，而非击打跑垒者，即可使其出局；从此以后，棒球比赛改用硬球，而且比赛规模很快的就变大了；棒球在1840和1850年代成为一有组织的运动；甚至在内战期间，棒球比赛也未曾中断。

许多早期的棒球队伍成立于纽约市及布鲁克林区；1860年以前，棒球已经取代了英国的板球比赛，成为美国最受欢迎的运动项目；在这个时期，棒球仍是一项业余运动，即运动员出赛时不会收到任何酬劳；布鲁克林大西洋队是早期棒球的主要队伍，曾在1861、1864和1865年赢得冠军。

第一个全职棒球队是辛辛那提的红袜队；决定公开支付参赛球员被认为是一项大胆的举动，而且这项举动完全归功于提出此想法的俱乐部经理，亚伦·B·查姆频先生；1869年，著名的职业棒球之父，红袜队的球员经理哈里·莱特与其队伍环游全国参加比赛，不但赢得60场胜利，且完全无失败记录；虽然全国协会不想支持职业棒球运动，但是他们的决议完全无法生效；职棒大联盟已经在美国展开。

1876年2月2日，国家职业棒球俱乐部，也就是通常所说的国家联盟（NL）正式成立。美国联盟（AL）成立于1901年，1903年第一次世界职业棒球大赛隆重举行。1903年至2007年之间美国联盟队在103场世界职业棒球大赛中夺冠61次。美国联盟的纽约洋基队在世界职业棒球大赛中获胜26次，获胜次数超过任何其他棒球队。

1. Eating in America: McDonald's and KFC 吃在美国：麦当劳和肯德基

● McDonald 麦当劳

Overview 简况

McDonald's Corporation is the world's largest chain of hamburger fast food restaurants, serving around 64 million customers daily in 119 countries. Headquartered in the United States, the company began in 1940 as a barbecue restaurant operated by the eponymous Richard and Maurice McDonald. In 1948 they reorganized their business as a hamburger stand using production line principles. Businessman Ray Kroc joined the company as a franchise agent in 1955. He subsequently purchased the chain from the McDonald brothers and oversaw its worldwide growth.

McDonald's restaurant is operated by a franchisee, an affiliate, or the corporation itself. The corporation's revenues come from the rent, royalties and fees paid by the franchisees, as well as sales in company-operated restaurants. McDonald's revenues grew 27 percent over the three years ending in 2007 to $22.8 billion, and 9 percent growth in operating income to $3.9 billion.

McDonald's primarily sells hamburgers, cheeseburgers, and chicken, French fries, breakfast items, soft drinks, shakes and desserts. In response to changing consumer tastes, the company has expanded its menu to include salads, smoothies and fruit.

麦当劳公司是世界最大的汉堡快餐连锁店，每天为119个国家大约6亿4千万用户提供服务。公司总部设在美国，在1940年，是以一个理查德麦当劳和麦丽丝麦当劳两兄弟经营的烧烤餐厅起步的。在1948年，他们重组了其业务，启用了汉堡包生产线。1955年，商人雷克罗克作为一个专营代理机构加盟了公司。他随后从麦当劳兄弟手里购买了公司的整个产业链，随后其业务在全球范围内扩展。

麦当劳餐厅是由专营公司、子公司或公司本身运作的。该公司的收入来自租金、使用费和支付的特许经营费用，以及在公司经营的餐厅内销售的收入。麦当劳公司在2004到2007年的三年中，收入增长了27%，达到了228亿美元，营业收入增长了9%，达到39亿美元。

麦当劳主要销售汉堡包、三明治、鸡肉、炸薯条、早餐、软饮料和甜点。为了适应消费者的口味偏好，麦当劳公司增加了很多品种，包括沙拉、果汁和水果。

Memorabilia 大事记

Many people think that McDonald's was founded by Ray Kroc. But in fact, McDonald's is founded by McDonald brothers, but by Ray Kroc to flourish, expanding around the world. In 1948, the brothers founded the first McDonald's fast food restaurant, in 1928, just a small McDonald's high school graduates, he can't find a job, so they only can join his brother in California a large McDonald's. Two brothers from the stores began selling hot dogs, and finally gradually transformed into fast food chain selling fries, hamburger. McDonald's two brothers have the ability to create a cause; but have no capacity to McDonald's to flourish.

In 1954, McDonald's founder Ray Kroc first met the McDonald brothers. As Michael McDonald brothers can not expand the restaurant, so when they cause a modicum of success, the Ray Kroc will join their ranks.

In 1955, Ray Kroc became the first to join McDonald's operators. Ray Kroc was a man with lofty ambitions and aspirations. He was born in Chicago, wholesalers, discerning, he is very optimistic about the prospects for McDonald's, so cooperation with the Maxwell brothers established the first chain to join.

In 1961, Ray Kroc purchased the McDonald brothers trademark, operated McDonald's restaurant business. With courage and his spirit of adventure, the most in the economic downturn, McDonald's, Ray Kroc to two million dollars to buy McDonald's trademark, and technology-oriented business management McDonald's.

In 1965, McDonald's officially listed on the stock. As Ray Kroc McDonald's career was very successful business, under the golden arches of delicious burgers and friendly service, captured the hearts of many customers, McDonald's was in people's hearts in the possession of the place, the stock officially going on market.

In 1967, the first outside the United States—Canada McDonald's set up. McDonald's success, mainly because of: three "S" and "Q, S, C, V". In the operation and management, the "three S doctrine" that "simple", "standardized", "professional", which is McDonald's business philosophy. In philosophy, McDonald's is focusing on Q, S, C, V, is the quality, service, clean, and inexpensive.

Because the "3S" and "Q, S, C, V", in 1978, there're over 5,000 McDonald's stores in the world, and in 1988, McDonald's around the world increased to more than ten thousand, in short decade, McDonald's at an alarming rate extended to the whole world, and there is an average McDonald's every three hours around the world was born. Until now, McDonald's has been all over the world, and the number continues to increase.

1954年，麦当劳创始人雷克洛克初遇麦当劳兄弟。由于麦氏兄弟无法将麦当劳事业扩展，因此，当他们的事业小有成就时，雷克洛克便加入他们的行列。

1955年，雷克洛克成为麦当劳的第一位加盟经营者。柯洛克是一位具有远大志向及抱负的人。他出身于芝加哥批发商，独具慧眼的他，很看好麦当劳的前景，于是与麦氏兄弟合作成立了第一家加盟连锁店。

1961年，雷克洛克向麦当劳兄弟购买商标权，经营麦当劳餐厅事业。具有胆识及冒险精神的他，在麦当劳的景气最低迷时，柯洛克以二百万美金买进了麦当劳的商标权，并且以科技化的管理方式经营麦当劳。

麦当劳叔叔

1965年，麦当劳股票正式上市。由于柯洛克将麦当劳事业经营的十分成功，金色拱门下的美味汉堡及亲切的服务，虏获了不少顾客的心，麦当劳在人们的内心中占有了一席之地，股票正式上市。

1967年，美国以外的第一家——加拿大麦当劳成立。麦当劳成功的因素，主要是因为：三“S”与“Q、S、C、V”。在经营管理上，“三S主义”即“简单化”、“标准化”、“专业化”，这是麦当劳的经营理念。而在经营哲学上，麦当劳则注重Q、S、C、V，也就是品质、服务、整洁、及物美价廉。

因为“3S”与“Q、S、C、V”，在1978年，麦当劳在全世界已有五千家分店，而在1988年，全世界的麦当劳更增加至一万多家，在短短的十年里，麦当劳以惊人的速度扩展至全世界，而且平均每3小时就有一家麦当劳在世界各地诞生。直到现在，麦当劳快餐店已遍及全世界，且数目仍持续增加。

● KFC 肯德基

Overview 简况

KFC, also known as Kentucky Fried Chicken, is a chain of fast food restaurants based in Louisville, Kentucky, in the United States. KFC has been a brand and operating segment. Since 1997 company was spun off from PepsiCo as Tricon Global Restaurants Inc.

KFC primarily sells chicken pieces, salads and sandwiches. While its primary focus is fried chicken, KFC also offers a line of grilled and roasted chicken products, side dishes and desserts. Outside the USA, KFC offers beef based products such as hamburgers or kebabs, poutine, pork based products such as ribs.

The company was founded as Kentucky Fried Chicken by Colonel Harland Sanders in 1952, though the idea of KFC's fried chicken actually goes back to 1930. Although Sanders died in 1980, he remains an important part of the company's branding and advertisements, and "Colonel Sanders" or "The Colonel" is a metonym for the company itself. The company adopted KFC, an abbreviated form of its name, in 1991.

肯德基，也被称为肯塔基炸鸡，是一个总部位于美国肯塔基州路易斯维尔的连锁快餐店。肯德基是一个品牌，也是一种经营模式。从1997年开始，肯德基隶属于百胜餐饮集团。

肯德基主要销售鸡块、色拉和三明治。虽然它主要销售肯德基炸鸡，但也提供一系列烧烤和烤鸡食品、小菜和甜品。在美国之外，肯德基提供牛肉食品，如汉堡包或烤肉串，后来，猪肉成为了主要的食品原料，如烤肋骨。

肯德基公司成立于1952年，是哈兰德·桑德斯上校建立的，尽管建立肯德基的想法可以追溯到1930年。虽然桑德斯在1980年去世，但他对于公司的品牌和广告来说，仍然是一笔财富。“桑德斯上校”或“上校”是成为了公司的代名词。1991年，肯德基公司名称采用了桑德斯上校的缩写。

History 历史

Born and raised in Henryville, Indiana, Sanders passed through several professions in his lifetime. Sanders first served his fried chicken in 1930 in the midst of the Great Depression at a gas station he owned in North Corbin, Kentucky. The dining room was named Sanders Court & Café and was so successful that in 1935 Kentucky Governor Ruby Laffoon granted Sanders the title of honorary Kentucky Colonel in recognition of his contribution to the state's cuisine. The following year Sanders expanded his restaurant to 142 seats, he bought the place across the street and added a motel. When Sanders prepared his chicken in his original restaurant in North Corbin, he prepared the chicken in an iron skillet, which took about 30 minutes to do, it's too long for a restaurant operation. In 1939, Sanders altered the cooking process for his fried chicken to use a pressure fryer, resulting in a greatly reduced cooking time comparable to that of deep frying. In 1940 Sanders devised what came to be known as his Original Recipe.

The Sanders Court & Café generally served travelers, often those headed to Florida, so when the route planned in the 1950s for what would become Interstate 75 bypassed Corbin, he sold his properties and traveled the U.S. to sell his chicken to restaurant owners. The first to take him up on the offer was Pete Harman in South Salt Lake, Utah; they opened the first "Kentucky Fried Chicken" in 1952. By the early 1960s, Kentucky Fried Chicken was sold in over 600 franchised outlets in both the United States and Canada. The company owned many diner-style restaurants in Northern Ohio, the last of which closed in 2004.

Sanders sold the entire KFC franchising operation in 1964 for $2million USD, equal to $15,000,000 today. Since that time, the chain has been sold three more times: to Heublein in 1971, to R.J. Reynolds in 1982 and most recently to PepsiCo in 1986, which made it part of its Tricon Global Restaurants division, which in turn was spun off in 1997, and has now been renamed to "Yum!".

肯德基创始人，哈兰山德士上校

桑德斯庭院和咖啡厅一般服务于经常前往佛罗里达州的游客，在20世纪50年代所规划的75号洲际公路将会绕过科尔宾，因此他变卖了他的家产，并把他的鸡肉卖给了餐厅的老板。第一个接受了这个建议的是生活在犹他州南盐湖地区的哈曼。1952年，他们一起开设了第一个“肯塔基炸鸡”店。在20

世纪60年代早期，肯塔基炸鸡在美国和加拿大拥有了超过600家加盟店。公司在北俄亥俄州拥有许多家有点像正餐餐厅的店，其中最后一家在2004年关闭。

1964年，桑德斯以200万美元的价格出售了整个肯德基的特许经营权，相当于今天的1.5千万美元。自那时以来，肯德基已经被转让了很多次：1971年转让至胡布莱公司。1982年转让至雷诺兹公司，最近一次是1986年转让至百事可乐公司，使其部分的从属于百胜全球餐饮部，1997年百胜从百事可乐公司分离，更名为“Yum!”。

2. Three Wives, A Father—The Concept of Family in America 三个新娘一个老爸——美国家庭观

The traditional American family is the "nuclear family." The so-called nuclear family is composed from a husband, wife and their children. Today, the average American household has two or three children (They perhaps raises some pets). In some cultures, the people live in a big family, even the generations are living together. In the U.S, just in rare cases, several generations are living together.

American values are very popular within the family. Many families are democratic; every family member has the right of voice. Families in the United States are full of the concept of equality. Children and their parents become a good friend who would not fear them. Husband and children are to share the housework. In most cases, the children have the privacy. They take the responsibility for little time to manage their own money. They may get some pocket money every week or even day they have a job on short time. Parents often let children have the freedom to make their own decisions. Preschool children choose what kind of clothes to wear or what to buy toys. Young people can choose their own jobs and can choose partner by themselves.

Like other families in the country of different cultures, American families face many problems. Social pressure make more and more American families apart. More than half of marriage in the United States disintegrate as a way of divorce. More than a quarter of American children grow up in singleparent families. So, many people believe that American families came into a corner.

The United Nations proclaimed the year in 1994 is the "International Family Year." Not only in the United States, but throughout the world, people recognize the importance of strong families. How to strengthen family ties? They do special thing for each other, communicate, entertainment, study with each other, there's another thing that's thanks each other.

传统的美国家庭是“核心家庭”。所谓的核心家庭是指由丈夫、妻子和他们的孩子组成的家庭。今天，一般美国家庭有两到三个孩子（或许还养些宠物）。在某些文化的国度里，人们生活在一个大家庭里中，甚至是几代人生活在一起。而在美国，只有在极少数情况下几代人才生活在同一个屋檐下。

美国人的价值观在家庭内部很受欢迎。许多家庭都很民主，每一位家庭成员都有发言权。在美国的家庭中充满了平等的观念。孩子们会把父母当做好朋友，而不是惧怕他们。丈夫和孩子分担家务。在多数情况下，孩子们享有隐私权。他们在很小的时候就担负起自己管理钱财的责任。他们可能每

周都会得到一些零用钱甚至自己打点短工。父母经常让孩子们有自己做决定的自由。学龄前儿童自己选择该穿什么样的衣服或该买什么样的玩具。青年人既可以自主择业，也可以自己选择伴侣。

正如其他不同文化国度中的家庭一样，美国的家庭也面临许多问题。社会压力使越来越多的美国家庭分崩离析。美国有半数以上的婚姻以离婚的方式解体。超过四分之一以上的美国孩子在单亲家庭中长大成人。于是，许多人认为美国的家庭陷入了困境。

联合国宣布1994年为“国际家庭年”。不仅是在美国，世界各地的人们认识到了稳固的家庭的重要性。如何加强家庭纽带呢？互相为对方做一些特别的事情，互相交流，一起娱乐，共度时光，还有一件就是：彼此感谢对方。

● Food 美式食物

"You are what you eat." Nutrition experts often use this saying to promote better eating habits. What we put in our mouths does become a part of us. But we can look at this statement another way. What we eat reflects who we are--as people and as a culture. Do you want to understand another culture? Then you ought to find out about their food. Learning about American food can give us a real taste of American culture.

What is "American food"? At first you might think the answer is easy as pie. To many people, American food means hamburgers, hot dogs, fried chicken and pizza. If you have a "sweet tooth," you might even think of apple pie or chocolate chip cookies. It's true that Americans do eat those things. But are those the only kind of vittles you can find in America?

Except for Thanksgiving turkey, it's hard to find a typically "American" food. The United States is a land of immigrants. So Americans eat food from many different countries. When people move to America, they bring their cooking styles with them. That's why you can find almost every kind of ethnic food in America. In some cases, Americans have adopted foods from other countries as favorites. Americans love Italian pizza, Mexican tacos and Chinese egg rolls. But the American version doesn't taste quite like the original!

As with any large country, the U.S.A has several distinct regions. Each region boasts its own special style of food. Visit the South and enjoy country-style cooking. Journey through Louisiana is for some spicy Cajun cuisine. Take a trip to New England and sample savory seafood dishes. Travel through the Midwest, "the breadbasket of the nation," for delicious baked goods. Cruise over to the Southwest and try some tasty TexMex treats. Finish your food tour in the Pacific Northwest with some gourmet coffee.

Americans living at a fast pace often just "grab a quick bite." Fast food restaurants offer people on the run everything from fried chicken to fried rice. Microwave dinners and instant foods make cooking at home a snap. Of course, one of the most common quick American meals is a sandwich. If it can fit between two slices of bread, Americans probably make a sandwich out of it. Peanut butter and jelly is an all-time American favorite.

The busy Americans also like to eat a lot of "junk food." Potato chips, candy bars, soft drinks and other goodies are popular treats. Many people eat too many of these unhealthy snacks. But others opt for more healthy eating habits. Some even choose "all natural." They refuse to eat any food prepared with chemicals or additives.

American culture is a good illustration of the saying "you are what you eat." The variety of foods in the U.S. reflects the diversity of personal tastes. The food may be international or regional. Sometimes it's fast, and sometimes it's not so fast. It might be junk food, or maybe its natural food. In any case, the style is allAmerican.

“吃什么就成为什么样子。”营养专家经常使用这句话来倡导更好的饮食习惯，入嘴的东西确实会成为我们的一部分。但我们也可以从另一个角度来理解这句话，从我们所吃的就能反映出我们是人类本身或一种文化。你了解另一种文化吗？那你应该去认识他们的食物。认识美国食物可以让我们得知美国文化的精髓。

何谓“美式食物”？乍听之下人们可能认为答案很简单。对许多人而言，美式食物就是汉堡、热狗、炸鸡和披萨。如果是好吃甜食的人，可能会想到苹果派或巧克力片饼干。美国人确实吃这些东西，但这些就是在美国唯一找得到的食物吗？

确实，除了感恩节火鸡以外，很难找到典型的美国食物。美国是个移民之地，所以美国人吃的食物来自许多不同的国家，当人们移居美国，他们也将自己的烹调带了过来。这也是为什么在美国人们几乎可以看到所有不同民族的食物。在某些情况中，美国人把外国的食物视为最爱。美国人爱吃意大利披萨，墨西哥的玉米饼和中国的春卷，但是这些东西的味道不是原滋原味的。

和许多大国一样，美国有数个截然不同的地区，每个地区都以自己特有的食物夸口。走访美国南部享受乡村式的烹调；到路易斯安纳州品尝辛辣的凯郡式料理；走一趟新英格兰试尝它美味的海鲜；再到中西部“美国的面包之乡”品尝可口的烘培食品；乘船游览至西南部尝试一些好吃的墨式德州小吃，最后到太平洋西北岸，啜饮美食家的咖啡，作为美食之旅的句点。

生活在快速步调之下的美国人通常只能“很快地吃几口”。快餐店提供给赶时间的人们各种食物，从炸鸡到炒饭应有尽有。微波炉晚餐和实时餐点使得在家烧饭省事又快速。当然，最平常的美式速餐之一就是三明治。任何能夹在两片土司中间的东西，美国人就可以把它作成一份三明治，花生酱和果酱更是一直都深受美国人的喜爱。

忙碌的美国人也趋向于吃一大堆“垃圾食物”。薯片、糖果、汽水和其他好吃的东西都颇受欢迎。许多人吃了太多这类不健康的零食，但是其他人则选择较健康的饮食习惯，有些人甚至选择“纯天然”的食物，他们拒绝吃任何有化学制品或添加物的食物。

美国文化是“你吃什么就成为什么样子”这句话的最佳写照。在美国可享受到的各式食物正反映出个人品味的多样化。这食物可能是国际性也可能是地区性的；有时是快餐，但也不见得快；它可能是垃圾食物，也可能是天然食品。然而无论如何，它们都是美式的。

● Food and Cooking 美食烹饪

At a local supermarket, two women push half-filled grocery carts. The ladies are good friends, but they couldn't be more different. One is a stay-at-home housewife who loves to create culinary masterpieces from scratch. The other is a training supervisor at a prestigious advertising agency. Household chores, particularly those in the kitchen, are not her fun. The two ladies stop for a moment in the frozen foods section. "I'm so tired," sighs the professional woman. "I don't know what to do about supper." Her friend suggests, "What about a microwave dinner?" The weary professional sighs, "No, I don't feel like cooking tonight."

If you think American cooking means opening a package and tossing the contents into the microwave, you must change your mind. On the one hand, it's true that Americans thrive on cold cereal for breakfast, sandwiches for lunch and instant dinners. From busy homemakers to professional people, many Americans enjoy the convenience of prepackaged meals that can be ready to serve in 10 minutes or less. On the other hand, many Americans recognize the value of cooking skills. Parents-especially mothers see the importance of training their children, especially daughters in the culinary arts. Most Americans will admit that there's nothing better than a good home-cooked meal. But with cooking, as with any other skill, good results don't happen by accident.

Probably every cook has his or her own cooking way. But there are some basic techniques and principles that most people follow. For example, baking is a primary method of cooking in America. The dinner menu often has casseroles, roast meats and other baked goods. For that reason, Americans would find it's impossible to live without an oven. American cooks give special attention to the balance of foods, too. Before planning a big meal, they try to add a meat, several kinds of vegetables, some bread or pasta and often a dessert. They also like that the meal is colorful. Having several different colors of food on the plate, it's considered a healthy meal.

For those who need guidance in their cooking, or for those who have just run out of ideas, recipes are lifesavers. Recipes list all the ingredients for a dish (generally in the order used), the amount of each to use, and a description of how to put them together. Finding recipes in America is as easy as pie. Most good cooks have a shelf of cookbooks.

For experienced cooks, true artists that they are, recipes are merely reference points. They often make adjustments as they go along, depending on the quantity of people they need to serve, the ingredients they have available and their personal taste. Some cooks use recipes very little, preferring instead to depend on their intuition as they add a pinch of this and a dash of that to create just the right flavors.

Of course, Americans don't have a corner on the market when it comes to good cooking. Wherever you go in the world, people love to eat. As a result, every culture and nationality has its own share of mouth-watering delicacies. And America, as a "land of immigrants," has imported practically all varieties of cooking. Most good cooks in America are "fluent" in several cooking "dialects": Mexican, Italian, Chinese and old American style, just to name a few.

在一间本地的超市里，两位女士推着半满的购物车。这两位女士是好朋友，但两人之间的差异是大得不能再大了。一位是持家的主妇，她喜欢大展厨艺，从全生的作料，一步一步创造佳肴杰作。另一位是在一家颇具声望的广告公司任职人事训练主管。家务琐事特别是厨房事，并非她乐趣所在。二位女士在冷冻食物区前停了一会儿。职业妇女叹道：“我好累，我不知晚餐要做什么好。”她的朋友建议说：“何不来一顿微波炉晚餐。”这位疲惫的职业妇女又叹道：“不，我今晚不想做饭。”

假如你以为美式烹饪就是打开一个料理盒而将里头的东西抛进微波炉加热，那你得改变想法了。从某一方面来说，美国人以早餐的冷麦片、午餐的三明治及快餐晚餐而发育健壮，这倒是真的。从忙碌的家庭主妇到上班族，许多美国人喜欢享受事先包装好的便餐所带来的方便，这些速餐在不到10分钟内就可上桌。从另一个角度来看，许多美国人都认同厨艺的价值。父母亲——特别是母亲会看到训练孩子尤其是女儿，烹饪艺术的重要性。大多数的美国人都承认没有什么比得上一顿自家做的

餐点。而谈到烹饪，一如其他的技巧并非偶然天成的。

大概每一位厨师都有自己的烹饪方式。但仍有一些基本方法和原则是大多数的人遵行的。例如，烘培在美国是烹饪的一种主要方法，晚餐菜单上通常有“焗烤菜”，烤肉及其他的烘培食物。因此，美国人会觉得没有烤箱几乎是无法过活。美国厨师们也特别留意食物的均衡。在计划一顿大餐时，他们会试着加入肉，几样蔬菜，一些面包或面食，而且通常还有甜点。他们也喜欢使餐点色彩亮丽。若盘中有不同色彩的食物，通常令人觉得是健康的一餐。

对于那些在烹饪方面需要指导或已江郎才尽的人，食谱就是救星。食谱列出做每一道菜所需要的所有材料（通常是依照使用的顺序列出），每一种的用量以及如何将它们搭配的说明。在美国寻找食谱可谓易如反掌。大多数的好厨师们都有一架子的食谱。

对于经验丰富的厨师，他们是真正的艺术家，食谱仅仅是作为参考，他们常常一边做菜，一边依照他们宴请的人数，现有的作料以及个人的口味，来调整食谱。有些厨师们很少参照食谱，反而比较喜欢凭自己的直觉加一点这个，加一点那个，来作出恰当的味道。

当然，谈到好厨艺，美国人并非独占鳌头，无论到世界何处，人们总是爱吃。所以，每一个文化及国家都有它特有的、令人垂涎三尺的佳肴。而美国，这个“移民之地”实际上也引进了各式的烹调。在美国大多数的名厨对于几种烹饪“方言”都很“流利”。随便举几个例子：墨西哥、意大利、中国以及传统美国风味。

● American Home 美国人的家

Home, few words in the English language have such a special meaning. Home is a place where you can relax and just be yourself. Just about everyone has a strong opinion of what makes a house a home. And for most people in America, home should be, above all, comfortable.

家，在英文中没有几个字有这样特别的意义。家是一个可以放松、让你身心愉悦的地方。大概每个人对于如何把一间屋子变成一个家都非常有主见。对大多数的美国人来说，家最重要的应该是舒适。

Home Design 家的设计

Americans like their homes to reflect their personal tastes. Many do-it-yourselfers enjoy fixing up their house and making it more "livable." They often try to create a cozy atmosphere when they're at home, they'll really feel "at home." Sofas and lounge chairs may be heavily padded and arranged in groupings conducive to relaxed conversation. The bathroom even receives special attention. Carpeted floors, scented soaps, colorful wallpaper and decorative curtains adorn the "comfort room" in many homes. And on average, Americans have more bathrooms than any other people in the world.

Lisa Marie Odegard, an interior designer in Bozeman, Montana, said that "Home is a haven. People want an open, easy feeling to make their homes comfortable." For that reason, many new homes now have big, open kitchens and vaulted ceilings.

Americans try to make the most use of their space, too. The majority of homes have built-in closets and shelves, and people spare no pains to add dressers, filing cabinets and closet organizers to maximize their storage space. Although keeping the house neat is often a constant battle, Americans feel it's a battle worth fighting.

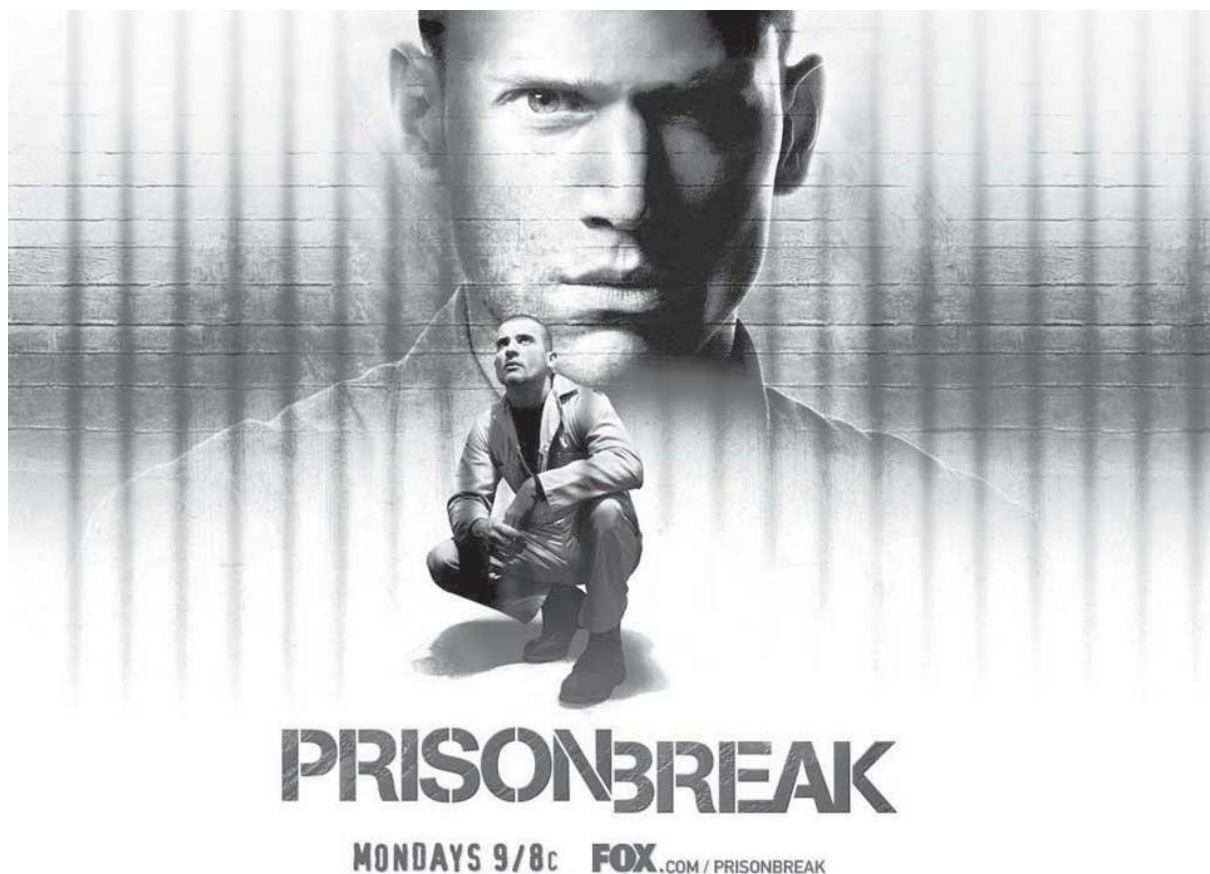

美国人喜欢让家反映出他们个人的品味。许多喜欢自己动手做的人沉醉于修补他们的房子并让它更“适于居住”。他们常试着营造一个温暖而舒适的气氛，这样当他们待在家时，会真的感觉到“毫无拘束”。沙发及安乐椅可能会被铺上厚厚的垫子，并运用不同空间组合的摆设，让坐的人可以轻松谈话。甚至连浴室也颇费心思：铺有地毯的地板、香气四溢的肥皂、彩色的壁纸及装饰窗帘，如此就打扮出了许多家庭的“舒服之地”。平均来说，美国人拥有的浴室比世界上其他的人都多。

蒙大拿州柏斯曼的一位室内设计师丽莎区迪嘉谈到：“家是一个避难所。人们想要一个开放、轻松的感觉来让他们的家变得很舒适。”因为这个原因，现在许多新房子都有大而开放的厨房以及拱形的屋顶。

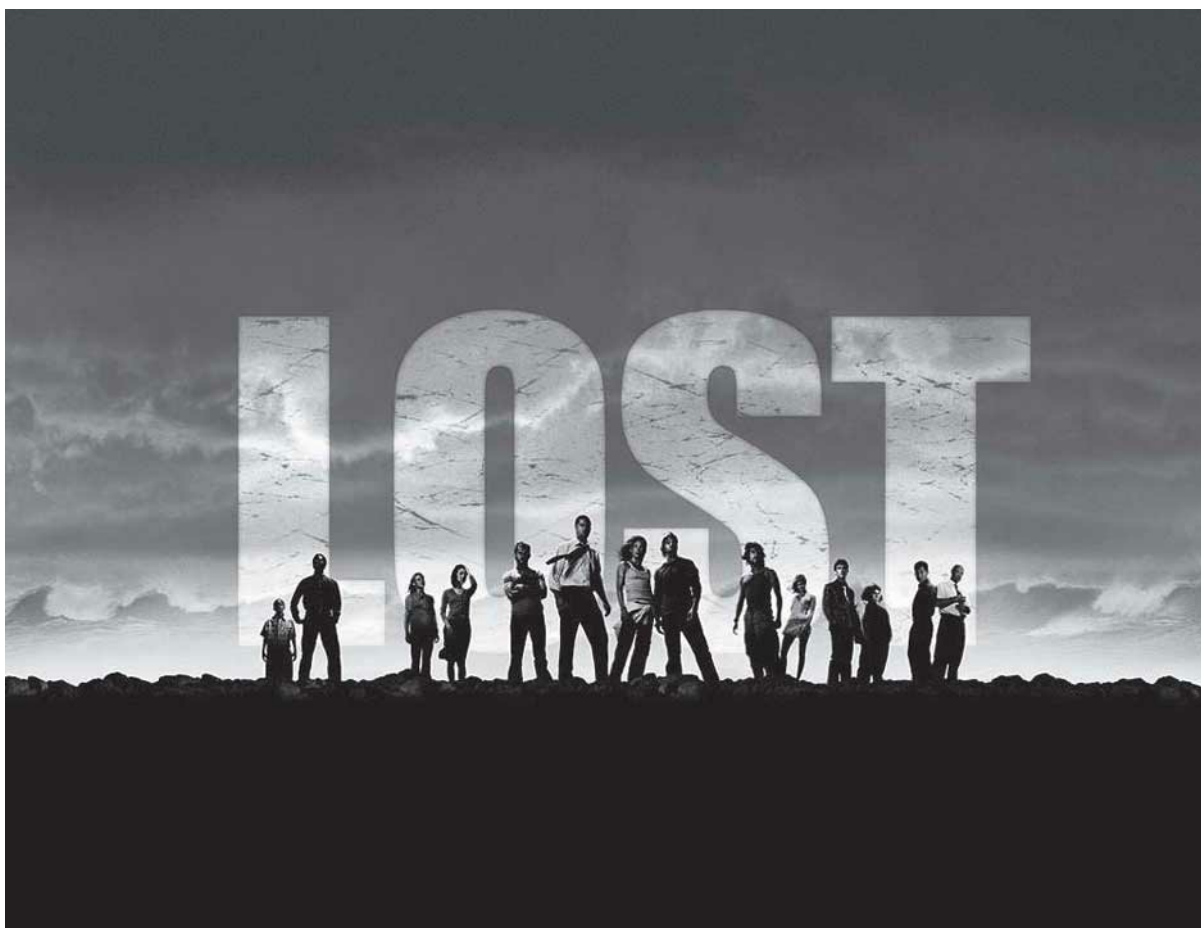

美国人也试着将空间做最佳的利用。大多数的家庭都有壁橱以及架子，人们也不辞辛劳的添加橱柜、文件柜以及壁柜分隔架来加大储藏空间。虽然让房子维持整洁像是一场永无止尽的长期战役，美国人觉得这是一个值得打下去的战役。

4. American TV Show: From Prison Break to Lost 美剧：从《越狱》到《迷失》

"American TV" is the abbreviation Chinese people called on the U.S. TV series. In 1980s, a film shoot in 1970's "The man from the Atlantic", become the window Chinese spy the United States, Mike Harris face the yurt became a sign of youth fashion. Garrison death squads that is a barometer of the change of Chinese concept. Growing Pains let us go to the American family, to experience the possibility of intergenerational communication and the underlying Americanstyle humor. All these have become the culture slices of that era. In the long course of development, many tradition of the American TV has been gradually established, where "season" is mode of operation of the most modern Chinese audiences to understand. ● Denver 丹佛

The sprawling metropolis at the foot of the rugged Colorado Rockies is an important cultural center that draws artists and performers from around the nation and the world.

The area's diverse population supports culture through the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District (SCFD), a special tax district within the state of Colorado that provides funding for art, music, theater, dance, zoology, botany, natural history, or cultural history organizations in the Denver metropolitan area. The SCFD, created by voters in 1988, gives millions of dollars in tax funds each year to local organizations.

Today, Denver's main art and cultural hub is the Golden Triangle Museum District that includes the Denver Art Museum, the Denver Public Library, the Colorado History Museum, the Colorado Ballet and scores of other theaters, galleries and artists' studios.

The Denver Art Museum, with a gravity-defying new wing designed by architect Daniel Libeskind, exhibits its magnificent collections of pre-Columbian, American Indian, American Western and Buddhist art. The Denver Performing Arts Complex, or simply "the Plex," is said to be the second-largest performing arts center in the world, after New York's Lincoln Center.

Each June and August, Denver hosts the Aspen Music Festival and School, one of the largest classical music events in the United States.

丹佛位于崎岖陡峭的科罗拉多落基山脉腹地，布局分散，逶迤绵延，属重要的文化中心，聚集着来自全国和全世界其他地区的艺术家和表演人才。

该地区多样性的人口借助科学和文化设施区支持文化事业。科学和文化设施区作为科罗拉多州境内

的特别税赋区，为丹佛地区的艺术、音乐、戏剧、舞蹈、动植物园、自然历史或文化历史团体提供资金。科学和文化设施区由选民于1988年投票建立，每年发放数百万美元的税金支持当地的有关团体。

今天，丹佛艺术和文化的中心区是金三角博物馆区，其中包括丹佛艺术博物馆、科罗拉多公立图书馆、科罗拉多历史博物馆、科罗拉多芭蕾舞团以及其他数十处剧院、画廊和艺术家工作室。

丹佛艺术博物馆主要展出有关前哥伦比亚时期、美国印第安人、美国西部和佛教艺术的展品。建筑师丹尼尔·利贝兹康德新设计的分馆采大跨度悬挂式造型，颇有摆脱地球引力之势。丹佛演出艺术中心被誉为世界第二大演出艺术中心，仅次于纽约林肯中心。

每年6月和8月，丹佛主办阿斯彭音乐节和讲座活动，成为美国规模最大的古典音乐盛事之一。

● Austin, Texas 得克萨斯州奥斯汀

Austin, Texas, calls itself "the live music capital of the world" because it is home to many musicians and music venues. The eclectic and progressive lifestyles of its residents have prompted them to adopt the slogan "Keep Austin Weird." As the slogan suggests, Austin's residents take pride in their eccentricity and diversity.

The city has an impressive live music scene and boasts more music venues per capita than any other U.S. city. Austin City Limits, the longest-running concert music program on American television, is videotaped on the University of Texas at Austin campus. The Austin City Limits Music Festival is held annually at Zilker Park in Austin, and the city's Urban Music Festival is held every year in April, as is the Austin Reggae Festival. Austin also hosts the annual Austin Film Festival and stages an annual film/music/multimedia festival called South by Southwest.

Ballet Austin is the fourth-largest ballet company in the United States. The Austin Lyric Opera is widely admired, and the city also has a strong theater culture.

该市的现场音乐会规模宏伟，音乐场所的人均拥有率高于美国其他城市。“奥斯汀城区”是美国播出时间最长的电视音乐会节目，录像在得克萨斯大学奥斯汀分校完成。奥斯汀城区音乐节每年在市内的济尔克公园举办一次，该市还在每年4月举办城市音乐节以及奥斯汀“雷鬼乐”音乐节。该市还每年举办一次奥斯汀电影节和以“南方偏西南”为名的电影/音乐/多媒体节。

奥斯汀芭蕾舞团是美国第四大芭蕾舞团。奥斯汀清歌剧团受到人们普遍欢迎，该市的戏剧文化也十分发达。

第十章

美国特有的礼仪

美国是个移民国家，聚集了世界上150多个民族的后裔。人与人交往是常事，但在这交际过程中，他们自己特有的风俗习惯。所谓入乡随俗，如果我们接触美国人或者在美国生活，一定要了解他们特有的礼仪。

1. Wedding Etiquette 婚礼礼仪

"I do." To Americans those two words have great meaning. It can even change people's life. Especially if people say it at their own wedding. Making wedding vows is like signing a contract. Now Americans don't really think marriage is a business deal. But marriage is a serious thing.

It all begins with engagement. Traditionally, a young man asks the father of his sweetheart for permission to marry with her. If the father agrees, the man later proposes to her. Often he tries to give her a surprise by "popping the question" in a romantic way. Sometimes the couple just decides together that the time is right to get married. The man usually gives his fiancée a diamond ring as a symbol of their engagement. They may be lasted for weeks, months or even years. As the big day approaches, the good friends of bride and bridegroom before the wedding parties provide many useful gifts. Today many couples also receive counseling during engagement. This prepares them for the challenges of married life.

At last, it's time for the wedding. Although most weddings follow longheld traditions, there's still room for American individualism. For example, the usual place for a wedding is in a church, but some people get married outdoors in a scenic spot. A few even have the ceremony while sky-diving or riding on horseback! The couple may invite hundreds of people or just a few close friends. They choose their own style of colors, decorations and music during the ceremony. But some things rarely change. The bride usually wears a beautiful, long white wedding dress. She traditionally wears "a little old, a little new, a little borrowed and a little blue". The groom wears a formal suit or tuxedo. Several close friends participate in the ceremony as attendants, including groomsman and bridesmaid.

As the ceremony begins, the groom and his attendants stand with the minister, face the audience. Music signals, the bridesmaid entrance, followed by the beautiful bride. Nervously, the young couple repeats their vows. Traditionally, they promise "for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health we love each other forever." But sometimes the couple has composed their own vows. They give each other a diamond ring to symbolize their marriage commitment. Finally the minister announces the big moment: "I now pronounce you man and wife. You may kiss your bride!"

At the wedding reception, the bride and groom greet their guests. Then they cut the wedding cake and feed each other a bite. Guests can enjoy cake, punch and other treats. Later the bride throws her bouquet of flowers to a group of single girls. It's said that the one who catches the bouquet will be the next to marry. During the reception, playful friends "decorate" the couple's car with tissue paper, tin cans and a "Just Married" sign. When the reception is over, the newlyweds run to their "decorated" car and speed off. Many couples take a honeymoon, a one or two-weeks vacation trip, to celebrate their new marriage.

Almost every culture has rituals to signal a change in one's life. Marriage is one of the most basic life changes for people of all cultures. So it's no surprise to find many traditions about getting married... even in America. Yet each couple follows the traditions in a way that is unique.

美国的婚礼

“我愿意。”这句话对美国人来说包含深远的意义。它甚至可以改变一个人的生活，特别是如果人们在自己的婚礼上说出这句话。结婚誓言就如同签订契约一般，今天的美国人认为婚姻并不是一宗商业交易，它确实是件严肃的事。

一切从订婚开始。在传统上，年轻男子先要请求女朋友的父亲允许自己娶她。如果女方的父亲答应，然后男方才能向女方求婚。男方通常尝试以浪漫的方式“蹦出这个问题”，给女方一个惊喜。有时双方一起决定，该是结婚的时候了。男方通常会送给未婚妻一只钻石戒指作为订婚的象征。订婚期可以持续几个星期、几个月，甚至几年。当大喜的日子临近时，双方各自的好友在婚前派对上会赠送许多实用的礼物。今天，许多未婚夫妻在订婚期间还听取咨询意见，以此为应付婚姻生活的挑战作好准备。

最后就该举行婚礼了。虽然大多数的婚礼沿袭一贯的传统，但是仍有发挥个性的余地。例如，通常举行婚礼的地点是在教堂，但是有些人却在户外的风景点举行婚礼，少数人甚至在跳伞或骑马时举办仪式！新人可以邀请几百个客人，也可以只邀请几个最要好的朋友。婚礼的色调风格、布置和音乐都由他们自己决定。但有些事情很少会变化。新娘通常都穿一件漂亮的长长的白色结婚礼服。按传统习惯，新娘的穿着要包括“一点旧的，一点新的，一点借来的和一点蓝色的东西”。新郎则穿着一套正式的西装或晚礼服。几位亲密的朋友在婚礼中作陪伴，包括伴郎和伴娘。

婚礼开始时，新郎和陪伴他的好友与牧师站在一起，面对着来宾。当音乐响起时，伴娘入场，后面紧跟着美丽的新娘。一对新人紧张地说出他们的誓言。按传统习惯，双方许诺，“不管贫穷还有富有，不管疾病还是健康，我们都相依相偎，相惜相爱。”但有时两人也可以说出自己的誓言。他们

互赠钻戒象征婚姻的承诺。最后，牧师宣布重大时刻的到来：“我现在宣布你们结为夫妻。你可以亲吻你的新娘！”

在结婚喜宴上，新娘和新郎向宾客表示欢迎。然后他们切开结婚蛋糕并互喂对方一口。来宾们一边享受蛋糕、美酒和美食，一边相互交谈。之后，新娘将她的花束投向一群单身女孩。相传抓到花束的女孩会成为下一个结婚的人。喜宴期间，爱闹的朋友用薄纸、锡罐和写着“新婚”的标牌来“装饰”新人的小汽车。宴会结束后，新婚的小两口就跑向他们“被装饰好的”小汽车，迅速地驶走。许多新人会去度蜜月，即一两个星期的度假旅行，以庆祝他们的新婚。

几乎每一种文化都有仪式来标志一个人生活的变化。婚姻对于各种文化的人而言都是最基本的生活变化之一。因此发现关于结婚的许多传统习俗就不足为奇了.....在美国也不例外。然而每对新人都会以自己独特的方式来继承传统。

2. Social Etiquette 社交礼仪

● To the America's Home 去美国人家做客

An American friend has invited you to visit his family. You've never been to an American's home before, and you're not sure what to do. Should you take a gift? How should you dress? What time should you arrive? What should you do when you get there? Glad you asked. When you're the guest, you should just make yourself at home. That's what hospitality is all about: making people feel at home when they're not.

The question of whether or not to bring a gift often makes guests squirm. Giving your host a gift is not just a social etiquette in some cultures — it's expected. But in American culture, a guest is not obligated to bring a present. Of course, some people do bring a small gift for appreciation to their host. Appropriate gifts for general occasions might be flowers, candy, if the family has small children toys. If you choose not to bring a gift, don't worry, no one will even notice it.

American hospitality begins at home — especially when it involves food. Most Americans agree that good home cooking is better than restaurant food any day. When invited for a meal, you might ask, "Can I bring anything?" Unless it's a potluck, where everyone brings a dish, the host will probably respond, "No, just you." For most informal dinners, you should wear comfortable, casual clothes. Plan to arrive on time, or else call to inform your hosts of the delay. During the dinner, it's customary to compliment the hostess on the wonderful meal. Of course, the biggest compliment is to eat lots of food!

When you've had plenty, you might offer to clear the table or wash the dishes. But since you're the guest, your hosts may not let you do it. Instead, they may invite everyone to move to the living room for dessert, tea or coffee. After an hour or so of general chit-chat, it's probably time to head for the door. You don't want to wear out your welcome. And above all, don't go snooping around the house. It's more polite to wait for the host to offer you a guided tour. But except for housewarmings, guests often don't get past the living room.

Americans usually like to have advance notice when people come to see them. Only very close friends drop by unannounced. This is especially true if the guests want to stay for a few days. Here's a good rule of thumb for house guests: Short stays are best. As one 19th century French writer put it, "The first day a man is a guest, the second a burden, the third a pest." Even relatives don't usually stay for several weeks at a time. While you're staying with an American family, try to keep your living area neat and tidy. Your host family will appreciate your consideration. And they may even invite you back!

Most Americans consider themselves hospitable people. Folks in the southern United States, in particular, take pride in entertaining guests. In fact, "southern hospitality" has become legendary. But in all parts of America, people welcome their guests with open arms. So don't be surprised to find the welcome mat out for you. Just don't forget to wipe your feet.

一位美国朋友邀请你去他家。你以前从未去过美国人的家，你不确定该怎么做。该带礼物吗？该穿什么？该几点到？到了那里该做什么？很高兴你发问。你若是客人，只要使自己感到自在就好了。待客之道就是这样：让客人有宾至如归的感觉。

是否带礼物的问题常使客人举棋不定。在某些文化中，送主人礼物不只是社交礼节——还是必要的。但是在美国文化中，客人并不一定要带礼物。当然，有些客人的确会带表示感谢的小礼物给主人。一般来说，花和糖果都是适宜的礼物，如果这家有小孩，就可以送玩具。如果你不打算带礼物，别担心，甚至没有人会注意到你是空手而来。

美国人的待客之道从家里开始——尤其和食物有关。大多数美国人一致认为，好的家常菜胜过餐馆的菜。受邀吃饭时，你或许可以问：“需要我带些什么吗？”除非是每人带一道菜的聚餐，否则主人很可能会回答：“不用，你来就可以了。”在大多数非正式的聚餐会上，你应该穿舒适、轻便的衣服。尽量准时到，或者打电话告诉主人你会晚点到。用餐时，习惯上人们会称赞女主人烹调的美食。当然，最大的赞美是多吃！

当你吃饱的时候，你可以主动表示帮忙清理桌子或清洗碗盘。但因为你是客人，主人可能不会让你

这样做的。他们或许会邀请大家到客厅吃点心、喝茶或咖啡。聊个大约一小时或许就该离去了，你可不希望变得不受欢迎吧。最重要的是，不要在屋子里四处窥探。待主人邀请你后再参观才比较礼貌。除了乔迁喜宴之外，客人通常都只待在客厅里。

美国生活

美国人通常喜欢访客事先通知他们，只有非常亲密的朋友才可以不请自来，尤其当访客要待好几天时更是如此。最好不要久留——这是给访客的经验之谈。如同19世纪一位法国作家所写的：“第一天是客人，第二天是负担，第三天就是讨厌鬼了。”即使是亲戚通常也不会一次待上几个星期。当你住在美国人家里时，设法使你住的地方保持整齐清洁。主人一家将会感谢你的体贴，他们甚至会再次邀请你！

大多数美国人都认为自己是好客之人。尤其是美国的南方人更以款待客人而自豪。事实上，“南方的好客”是非常出名的。不过在美国各地，人们都会展开双臂欢迎他们的客人，所以当你发现为你准备的“WELCOME”字样的门垫时，不要惊讶，只是别忘了在垫子上把你的鞋蹭干净就行了。

● This Is a Secret 不能说的“秘密”

Americans prefer informal: In general, Americans prefer informal greetings and use first names or nicknames when speaking with colleagues and acquaintances.

Public Behavior 注意公共场合的行为

握手

Shake hands: Americans shake hands when greeting each other. This is true for both men and women. Other forms of greeting such as kissing on the cheeks, etc., is generally not appreciated.

Look your partner's eyes: Americans look each other in the eyes when they are speaking as a way of showing that they are sincere.

Don't hold hands: Same sex friends do not usually hold hands or put their arms around each other in public in the United States.

Smoking: Smoking, especially in public places, is strongly disapproved of by most Americans in the modern United States.

美国人不拘小节: 通常情况下，美国人喜欢非正式的问候，提到他们的同事或者熟人的时候喜欢用昵称。

握手: 美国人相互致意的时候喜欢握手，这是男女通用的。其他的比如亲吻脸颊之类的方式是非常不推荐的。

看对方的眼睛: 美国人想要表达关注的时候会在说话的时候看着对方的眼睛。

别拉手: 在美国，同性朋友们在公共场合不太会手拉手或者挽住对方的胳膊。

吸烟: 在当代的美国，吸烟尤其是在公共场合吸烟，是非常不被大众接受的行为。

Standard English Tips 标准英语小贴士

Speaking English is not only about using proper grammar. To use English effectively, you need to understand the culture in which it is spoken. Here are a number of important tips to remember when speaking English in the United States.

Most Americans only speak English: While it is true that more and more Americans speak Chinese, most Americans only speak English. Don't expect them to understand your native language.

Americans have difficulties in understanding foreign accents: Many Americans are not used to foreign accents. This requires patience both of you!

说英语不仅仅要语法正确。想要有效地使用英语，你需要了解语言使用国的文化。如果你在美国说英语，那么下面这些注意事项是你应该了解的。

大部分美国人只说英语: 现在越来越多的美国人能说汉语是事实，但是大部分的美国人只说英语，所以别指望他们能听懂你的母语。

美国人理解外国口音有困难: 很多美国人不习惯外国口音，所以你们交谈双方都需要有耐心。

Conversation Tips 交谈沟通秘籍

美国文化交流

Speaking about location: Americans like to talk about location. When speaking to a stranger, ask them where they are from and then find a connection with that place. For example: "Oh, I have a friend who studied in Los Angeles. He says it's a beautiful place to live." Most Americans will willingly talk about their experiences of living or visiting cities or areas.

Talk about work: Americans commonly ask "What do you do?" It's not considered impolite (as in some countries) and is a popular topic of discussion between strangers.

Talking about sports: Americans love sports! However, they love American sports. When speaking about football, most Americans can understand "American Football", not soccer.

Be careful when expressing ideas about race, religion or other sensitive topics: The United States is a multicultural society, especially in the last few years, Americans are sensitive about other cultures and ideas. Talking about sensitive topics like religion or beliefs, are often avoided in order to be sure not to offend someone of a different belief system.

谈论地点：美国人喜欢谈论地点。和陌生人说话的时候，可以问问他们从哪里来然后找到自己跟那个地方的联系。比如可以说：“啊，我有个朋友在洛杉矶学习，他说那地方很漂亮。”这时大部分美国人就会很愿意谈起他们居住或者到过的那些地方的经历。

谈论工作：美国人通常会问“What do you do?”在某些国家会被认为这是不礼貌的，但美国不是的，这只是陌生人之间聊天的一个流行话题。

谈论运动：美国人超爱运动！不过，他们喜欢美国的运动。如果说到足球，大部分美国人会理解成橄榄球而不是足球。

说到种族、宗教或者其他敏感话题要小心：美国是一个多文化的社会，特别是近几年，美国人对其他文化和观点非常特别的敏感。像宗教或者信仰之类的敏感话题通常都不会在谈话中提及，以免冒犯别人。

Addressing People 称呼

Use last names with people you do not know: Using their title (Mr, Ms, Dr) and their last names.

Always use "Ms" when addressing women: It is important to use "Ms" when addressing a woman. Only using "Mrs" when the woman has asked you to do !

Many Americans prefer first names: Americans often prefer using first names, even dealing with people in very different positions. Americans will generally say, "Call me Tom." and then expect you to remain on a first name basis.

对不认识的人要称呼他们的姓：用他们的头衔（先生、女士、博士等）加上他们的姓。

称呼女性的时候通常用“Ms”：称呼女性的时候用“Ms”，这很重要。如果对方要求你称呼“Mrs”那再照办好了。

很多人喜欢被叫名字：美国人通常喜欢用他们的名字，即使是和身份非常不同的人打交道。他们通常会说，“叫我Tom”，他们希望你用他们的名字来称呼他们。

美国节假日

说起美国的节假日，你一定能想到很多，“圣诞节”、“万圣节”、“感恩节”、“母亲节”和独立日等对于美国人来说都是不可忽略的。每个节日背后都有美丽的传说与感人的故事。

1. Thanksgiving Day 感恩节

● The Origin of Thanksgiving Day 感恩节的由来

On September 6, 1620, the Mayflower carried 102 men, women and children, who lived in the dark, damp, cold cargo decks below the crew's quarters set sail for Virginia colony. They landed in November and faced winter with meager supplies of food that dwindled rapidly. Thus, many people began to get very sick from the cold and the wet. About half the people on the Mayflower died that first winter from common illnesses such as colds, coughs and fevers.

朝圣者建造的房子

On one spring morning, Squanto, a Native American, who lived with the Wampanoag tribe, came to the little village of the Pilgrim and taught the Pilgrims how to catch eel and grow corn and served as an interpreter for them (Squanto had learned English while enslaved in Europe and during travels in England). Additionally the Wampanoag leader Massasoit had caused food stores to be donated to the fledgling colony when supplies brought from England were insufficient. Because the summer was blessed with rain and the autumn harvest was plentiful, the pilgrim colony, appropriately grateful, established a day of thanksgiving and invited the local Indians to share their bounty . This “first Thanksgiving” was a feast in order to celebrate the harvest, thank the Lord for his goodness, and regale and impress the Indians. The food mainly includes Cornbread, English Cheese Pie, Venison, Ducks and Geese, Wild Turkey, Garlic and Onions, Pumpkin Pudding, Indian pudding, salad, etc.

Supposedly, this is the origin of the holiday known as Thanksgiving and it is so pure and holy that everyone can now observe the Thanksgiving Day with a clear conscience.

1620年9月6日，五月花号载着男人，妇女和儿童共102人挤在黑暗，潮湿，冰冷的船员宿舍的甲板上开始了去往弗吉尼亚殖民地的旅程。他们在11月登陆，面临的是微薄的食物供应急剧减少的冬天。因此，许多人因寒冷潮湿而得病。在到新大陆的第一个冬天，五月花号上大约一半的人死于感

冒，咳嗽和发烧等常见疾病。

据说，这就是众所周知的感恩节的由来，这个节日是如此纯洁和神圣以至于每个人都心安理得的遵从感恩节的习俗。

● The Date and Custom of Thanksgiving Day 感恩节日期和习俗

The custom of Thanksgiving spread throughout the colonies, but each region chose its own date. Finally, in 1863, President Lincoln issued a White House proclamation calling on the "whole American people" wherever they lived to unite "with one heart and one voice" in observing a special day of thanksgiving. Setting apart the last Thursday of November for the purpose, the President urged prayers in the churches and in their homes to "heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and union." He also stated that they express heartfelt thanks for the "blessing of fruitful fields and healthful skies."

The Thanksgiving legacy has been alive for hundreds of years. The first Thanksgiving lasted three days. Today, for many Americans, it is a four-day holiday. The customs we see in American today remind us of ancient celebrations of harvest, thankfulness for peace, and the kindness of Native Americans. Everyone follows the custom of family dinner and reunion religiously every year. Distances don't really matter as relatives drive down to be with their family. Feasts are usually held at home. It is a time to enjoy their favorite "Roasted Turkey" with the family. (So that Thanksgiving is sometimes referred to as "Turkey Day"). Many vegetarians or vegans eat tofurky, a meatless turkey that is made of tofu. People pray whenever meal time on that day. It is a time, when mankind thanks God for all his blessings and grace. It is also a day to show gratitude to your friends and relatives for all the good deeds.

感恩节的传统已有数百年。第一个感恩节持续了三天，对于许多今天的美国人来说，这是一个为期4天的假期。如今美国的这一习俗使我们想到先人对丰收的庆祝、对和平的感恩以及印第安人的友善。每个人都笃信地遵从家庭晚宴的习俗回家团聚。亲朋好友们都开车赶回家中，路程的遥远算不了什么。宴席通常在家里举行，这是与家人共同享受最美味的“烤火鸡”的时间（以至于感恩节有时被称为“火鸡节”）。许多素食者或素食主义者则吃豆腐火鸡——一种用豆腐做的素食火鸡。白天人们在各种用餐时间祈祷。这是人们感谢主的恩泽的时间，同时也是向所有帮助过你的亲戚和朋友表达谢意的日子。

2. Halloween 万圣节

Halloween originated as a celebration connected with evil spirits. Witches flying on broomsticks, ghosts, goblins and skeletons have all evolved as symbols of Halloween. Bats, owls and other nocturnal animals are also popular symbols of Halloween. They were originally feared because people believed that these creatures could communicate with the spirits of the dead.

耶稣

Black cats are also symbols of Halloween and have religious origins as well. Black cats were considered to be reincarnated beings with the ability to divine the future. During the middle Ages it was believed that witches could turn themselves into black cats. Thus when such a cat was seen, it was considered to be a witch in disguise. All these are popular trick-or-treat costumes and decorations for greeting cards and windows.

Black is one of the traditional Halloween colors, probably because Halloween traditions and ceremonies took place at night.

Pumpkins are also a symbol of Halloween. The pumpkin is an orange-colored squash, and orange has become the other traditional Halloween color. Carving pumpkins into Jack-o-lanterns is a Halloween custom also dating back to Ireland. A legend grew up about a man named Jack who was so stingy that he was not allowed into heaven when he died, because he was a miser. He couldn't enter hell because he had played jokes on the devil. As a result, Jack had to walk on the earth with his lantern until Judgment Day. So Jack and his lantern became the symbol of a lost or damned soul.

To scare these souls away on Halloween, the Irish people carved scary faces out of turnips, beets or potatoes representing "Jack of the Lantern," or Jack-o-lanterns. When the Irish brought their customs to the United States, they carved faces on pumpkins because in the autumn they were more plentiful than turnips. Today Jack-o-lanterns in the windows of a house on Halloween night let costumed children know that there are goodies waiting if they knock and say "Trick or Treat!"

万圣节起源于与邪恶幽灵相关的庆祝活动，所以骑着扫帚的女巫、幽灵、小妖精和骷髅都是万圣节的标志。蝙蝠、猫头鹰和其他夜间活动的动物也是万圣节的普遍标志。起初，这些动物让人觉得非常可怕，因为人们认为这些动物能和死者的幽灵进行交流。

黑猫也是万圣节的标志物，并且也有一定的宗教起源。人们认为黑猫可以转生，具有预言未来的超能力。在中世纪，人们认为女巫可以变成黑猫，所以人们一看到黑猫就会认为它是女巫假扮的。这些标志物都是万圣节服装的普遍选择，也是贺卡或橱窗上很常用的装饰。

黑色是传统的万圣节颜色，这可能是因为万圣节前夜的各种传统或仪式都是在晚上举行。

南瓜也是万圣节的标志性象征。南瓜是橘黄色的，所以橘黄色也成了传统的万圣节颜色。用南瓜雕刻南瓜灯也是万圣节传统，其历史也可追溯到爱尔兰。传说有一个名叫杰克的人非常吝啬，因而死后不能进入天堂，而且因为他取笑魔鬼也不能进入地狱，所以，他只能提着灯笼四处游荡，直到审判日那天。于是，杰克和南瓜灯便成了被诅咒的游魂的象征。

人们为了在万圣节前夜吓走这些游魂，便用芜菁、甜菜或马铃薯雕刻成可怕的面孔来代表提着灯笼的杰克，这就是南瓜灯的由来。爱尔兰人迁到美国后，便开始用南瓜来进行雕刻，因为在美国秋天的时候南瓜比芜菁更充足。现在，如果在万圣节的晚上人们在窗户上挂上南瓜灯就表明那些穿着万圣节服装的人可以来敲门捣鬼要糖果。

3. Christmas Day 圣诞节

Christmas Day of December 25, which celebrates the birth of Jesus Christ, the founder of the Christian religion, is the biggest and bestloved holiday in the United States.

According to the Bible , the holy book of Christians, God decided to al-low his only son, Jesus Christ, to be born to a human mother and live on the earth so that people could understand God better and learn to love God and each other more. "Christmas"means "celebration of Christ"—honors the time when Jesus was born to a young Jewish woman Mary.

Mary was engaged to be married to Joseph, a carpenter, but before they came together, she was found to be with child. Because Joseph, her husband, was a righteous man and did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly. But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in his dream and said, "Do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

Although the exact date of the birth of Jesus nearly 2,000 years ago is not known, the calendar on the supposed date divides all time into B.C.(Before Christ)and A.D.(a Latin phrase, Anno Domini, "in the year of our Lord")For the first 300 years, Jesus' birthday was celebrated on different dates. Finally, in the year 354 A.D.church leaders chose December 25 as his birthday.

12月25日的圣诞节是庆祝基督教创始人耶稣基督生日的日子，是美国最大、人们最喜爱的节日。

据基督教徒的圣书《圣经》上说，上帝决定让他的独生子耶稣基督投生人间，找个母亲，然后就在人间生活，以便人们能更好地了解上帝、学习热爱上帝和更好地相互热爱。“圣诞节”的意思是“庆祝基督”——庆祝一个年轻的犹太妇女玛丽亚生下耶稣的时刻。

尽管耶稣的确切生日并不清楚，大约是在2000年前，但是日历按着假定日期把时间分为公元前（耶稣基督诞生前）和公元后（A. D. 是拉丁文缩写，意思是“有了我们主——耶稣的年代”）。在公元后的头300年，耶稣的生日是在不同的日子庆祝的。最后，在公元354年，教堂的领导人把12月25日定为耶稣基督的生日。

4. Other Important Holidays 其他重要节日

● Mother's Day 母亲节

The history of Mother's Day can go back to the times of ancient Greeks, who held festivities to honor Rhea, the mother of the gods. The early Christians celebrated the Mother's festival on the fourth Sunday of Lent to honor Maria, the mother of Christ. Interestingly, later on a religious order stretched the holiday to include all mothers, and named it as the Mothering Sunday. The English colonists settled in America discontinued the tradition of Mothering Sunday because of lack of time. In 1872 Julia Ward Howe organized a day for mothers. It is a landmark in the history of Mother's Day.

In 1907, Anna M. Jarvis (1864-1948), a Philadelphia school teacher, began a movement to set up a national Mother's Day in honor of all mothers. She solicited the help of hundreds of legislators and prominent businessmen to create a special day to honor mothers. The first Mother's Day was held in a church. Anna put her mother's favorite white flowers in funeral, they represent sweetness, purity, and patience. Anna's hard work finally paid off in the year 1914, when President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the second Sunday in May as a national holiday in honor of mothers.

Gradually the Mother's day became very popular and gift giving activity increased. All this commercialization of the Mother's day infuriated Anna, she believed that the day's sentiment was being sacrificed at the expense of greed and profit.

Regardless of Jarvis's worries, Mother's Day has flourished in the United States. Actually, the second Sunday of May has become the most popular day of the year. Although Anna may not be with us but the Mother's day lives on and has spread to various countries of the world. Many countries throughout the world celebrate Mother's Day at various times during the year, but some such as Denmark, Finland, Italy, Turkey, Australia, and Belgium also celebrate Mother's Day on the second Sunday of May.

母亲节的历史可以追溯到几百年前的古希腊，当时，人们都会举行庆祝活动纪念瑞亚，她是古希腊的众神之母，她是主神宙斯和天后赫拉的母亲。早期的基督徒在大斋节的第四个星期日庆祝母亲节来纪念基督的母亲玛利亚。有趣的是，宗教秩序的改革使得这一节日包括了全体的母亲，并将这一日命名为“母亲节”。后来，在美国定居的英国殖民者由于缺少时间停止了这项传统。1872年朱丽娅·伍德·霍夫致力于为母亲们设立一个节日。这是母亲节在历史上的里程碑。

1907年，一位费城教师，安娜·M. 贾维斯（1864-1948），开始了一项在全国范围内纪念母亲的节日。她征求了数以百计的立法者和商界翘楚一起来创立一个特殊的日子来纪念母亲。第一个母亲节是在一个教堂为安娜母亲举办的。安娜在仪式上摆放了她母亲最喜爱的白色花朵，这是甜蜜、纯洁、耐心的化身。安娜的努力终于在1914年得到了回报，时任总统伍德·罗·威尔逊宣布将五月的第二个星期天作为母亲。

渐渐地，母亲节变得非常流行，送礼活动日趋增加。所有这一切商业化的活动激怒了安娜，她认为这一天的情绪都因为贪婪和利益所玷污了。

尽管安娜对此很担忧，但母亲节已盛行于美国。事实上，这一天已成为一年当中最受欢迎的日子了。虽然安娜现在已不在我们身边了，但母亲节成立了，而且已蔓延到世界各国。世界上的许多国家都在一年的不同时期庆祝着母亲节，但如丹麦、芬兰、意大利、土耳其、澳大利亚和比利时等还是在第五月第二个周日庆祝母亲节。

● Independence Day 美国独立日

Independence Day, commonly known as the Fourth of July, is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, declaring independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain. Independence Day is commonly associated with fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, fairs, picnics, concerts, baseball games, family reunions, and political speeches and ceremonies. Independence Day is the national day of the United States.

Independence Day is a national holiday marked by patriotic displays. Similar to other summer-themed events, Independence Day celebrations often take place outdoors. Independence Day is a federal holiday, so all non-essential federal institutions (like the postal service and federal courts) are closed on that day. Many politicians make it a point on this day to appear at a public event to praise the nation's heritage, laws, history, society, and people.

Families often celebrate Independence Day by hosting or attending a picnic or barbecue. Decorations (e. g., streamers, balloons, and clothing) are generally colored red, white, and blue, the colors of the American flag. Parades are often in the morning, while fireworks displays occur in the evening at such places as parks, fairgrounds, or town squares.

美国庆祝独立日

众所周知，美国独立日是7月4日，它是美利坚合众国的联邦节日，是美国1776年7月4日脱离英国获得独立的标志。独立日通常与烟花、游行、烧烤、野餐、嘉年华、展销会、演唱会、棒球比赛、家人团聚、政治演讲和仪式相联系，独立日即美国的国庆节。

独立日是表现爱国情节的国家节日。与其他夏季的主题活动相似，独立日的庆祝活动通常在露天举行。由于独立日是一个全国性的假期，因此所有非必要的联邦机构（如邮政服务机构和联邦法院）都在这一天放假。在这一天，许多政治家利用这个机会，出现在公共活动中，赞颂国家的伟大遗产、法律、历史、社会和人民。

家庭往往通过举办或参加野餐和烧烤派对来庆祝独立日。装饰物（例如，彩带、气球和服装）通常由组成美国国旗的红色、白色和蓝色组成。游行通常在早上进行，在晚间的公园、游乐场和城市广场通常会燃放烟火。

● The American Labor Day 美国的劳动节

Labor Day is a "grass roots" holiday. It hails the dignity of man and salutes his individual efforts.

Labor Day was first celebrated on the first Monday in September, 1882. On September 5th of that year the first Labor Day parade was held in New York City. The occasion quickly gained support within the organized labor movement, and it was designated an official holiday by Congress in 1895 for the first Monday in September.

In September of 1882, the New York World reported that after a mass meeting in Union Square 20, 000 cheering and singing workers marched up Broadway with banners that read:

ELGHT HOURS FOR WORK;

ELGHT HOURS FOR REST;

ELGHT HOURS FOR RECREATION!

LABOR CREATES ALL WEALTH!

The demands raised at that first Labor Day celebration seemed visionary and caused the editor of the New York Times to warn that an eight-hour day would bankrupt industry and that the resulting idleness would increase crime. But labor has marched a long way since then and without the terrible results predicted.

劳动节是“老百姓”的节日。它庆祝人的尊严得到尊重，欢呼靠自我奋斗取得胜利。

第一次庆祝美国劳动节是在 1882 年 9 月的第一个星期一。那年的 9 月 5 日，在纽约举行了第一次劳动节游行。这件事很快赢得了有组织的劳工运动的支持。1894 年，美国国会把 9 月的第一个星期一正式定为节日。

1882 年 9 月份的《纽约世界》杂志报道说，在联邦广场聚会后，2 万名工人唱着歌欢呼着，举着旗帜沿百老汇大街行进。旗帜上写着：

八小时工作；

八小时休息；

八小时娱乐！

劳动者创造全部财富！

在第一次庆祝劳动节时就提出这样的要求似乎是幻想，以致《纽约时报》的编辑警告说，八小时工作制会造成工业破产，致使工人懒散而导致犯罪。然而，自那以来劳工们走过了漫长的路，并没有产生编辑们所预测的可怕后果。

美国的文学与教育

虽然美国的建国史不长，但是其文学和教育取得了很大的成就，海明威、欧·亨利、马克·吐温等这些我们耳熟能详的文豪都来自于美国。而美国的教育更处于全世界领先地位，其中“常春藤”高校联盟在世界教育界中享有盛誉。

1. Washington Irving: the Father of American Literature 华盛顿·欧文：美国文学之父

Washington Irving (April 3, 1783 ~ November 28, 1859) was an American author, essayist, biographer and historian in the early 19th century. He was best known for his short stories The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and Rip Van Winkle, both of which appear in his book The Sketch Book of Geoffrey Crayon, Gent. His historical works include biographies of George Washington, Oliver Goldsmith and Muhammad, and so on.

He is one of the earliest romantic writers in America. Known for his sketches, short stories and biographies, Irving is the first American writer who has attained international reputation. Absorbing the cream of European culture and literature, Irving created his unique style that is fresh, natural, humorous and musical. In his short stories and other fields, Irving has made great contributions to the independent American literature. It is Irving who activated the writing potential of American literature and laid solid foundations for its future development.

华盛顿·欧文（1783年4月3日～1859年11月28日）是一个19世纪美国的作家、小说家、传记作家和历史学家。他因《睡谷的传说》和《瑞普范温克尔》而著名，这两部作品都收录于他的书《见闻札记》中。他的历史著作包括乔治华盛顿、奥利弗史密斯和穆罕默德的传记，等等。

他是美国最早的浪漫主义作家之一。他以笔记、小说和传记而闻名，是第一位获得国际声誉的美国作家。欧文汲取欧洲文化和文学的精华，创造了自己独特的风格，其文笔清新、自然、诙谐、富于乐感。欧文在短篇小说等诸多方面为独立的美国文学做出了巨大贡献，可以说是欧文激活了美国文学的创作潜力，为美国文学的发展奠定了坚实基础。

2. Mark Twain: the Humorist 马克·吐温：幽默大师

Samuel Langhorne Clemens, better known by his pen name Mark Twain, was an American humorist, novelist, writer, also a famous orator, the 19th century the latter part of the United States an outstanding representative of realistic literature. Although Mark Twain had small wealth, non-destructive his superb sense of humor, wit and fame. He was known as one of America's most prominent and has been promoted as "American literary giant", good at writing satire. The dating is very broad, Disney, Wei Weide, Nikola Tesla Helen Keller Henry Roger dwellers, are all his friends. He was known as the literary history of Lincoln. Helen Keller once said: "I like Mark Twain - who does not like him? Even God will love him, given his wisdom, and drawing out a rainbow of love and faith in their hearts" William Faulkner called him "the first truly American writer, we are all inherited from him. "He was in 21 has died April 1910, aged 75, buried in Elmira, New York.

3. Hemingway: the Old Man and Sea 海明威：老人与海

Ernest Miller Hemingway was an American writer and journalist. He was the 1920s' expatriate community in Paris, and the veterans after World War I known as "the Lost Generation." He received the Nobel Prize in 1954 for The Old Man and the Sea.

Hemingway had four marriages through his whole life with the unrest and painful emotional life. This led to his polar attitude to female; in his works, female characters often lacked reality. Hemingway's private life was very bohemian and full of love. The man who had four marriages had been spread the rumor with many female, several girl friends of his criticized "he was a man who had illicit intercourse at the beginning and deserted them at the end." However, in Hemingway's emotional life, he kept a pure love with the actress of Hollywood Marlene Dietrich.

Hemingway was a Christian, and suicide in Christianity was a great sin. What is the reason that caused Hemingway finally choosing suicide? It should be said, the despair that could not be created any more was the root cause of suicide to Ernest Hemingway. Only the physical ailments cannot beat the tough man. The day before Hemingway's death, he wrote a letter to his old friend Fuentes who was a fisherman: "The greatest satisfaction in one's life is not the income, love, marriage and family life satisfaction, but the satisfaction to his own." Couldn't satisfy with him and couldn't meet himself finally resulted in Hemingway shooting to himself.

海明威一生经历了四次婚姻，感情生活动荡而痛苦。这导致了他对女性的两极态度，他作品中的女性人物往往缺乏现实感。他的私生活极为放荡不羁，一生风流韵事不断。有过四次婚姻的他与众多女性传出过绯闻，并被数名女友斥为“始乱终弃的负心人”。然而，在这位情感浪子的一生中，唯独对好莱坞女星玛琳·黛德丽始终保持着纯洁如一的爱。

4. Public and Private: Education System in American 公立与私立： 美国的教育系统

Education in the United States is mainly provided by the public organization and nation, with control and funding come from three levels: federal, state, and local. Child education is compulsory.

Public education is universal. School curricula, funding, teaching, employment, and other policies are set together through the local school directors with school and legislatures. School districts are usually separate from other local jurisdictions, with independent officials and budgets. Educational standards and standardized testing are usually decided by state governments.

The ages for compulsory education is different in some state. It begins from five to eight and ends from fourteen to eighteen.

Compulsory education requirements can generally be satisfied by educating children in public schools, state-certified private schools, or an approved home school program. In most public and private schools, education is divided into three levels: elementary school, middle school (sometimes called junior high school), and high school (sometimes referred to as secondary education). Almost all schools at these levels, children are divided by age groups into grades, ranging from kindergarten (followed by first grade) for the youngest children in elementary school, up to twelfth grade, the final year of high school. The exact age range of students in these grade levels varies slightly from area to area.

Post-secondary education, better known as "college" in the United States, is generally governed separately from the elementary and high school, and is described in a separate section below.

美国的公共教育，主要是由国家和公共机构负责，管理和资金来自于三个方面：联邦中央，州和地方。少儿教育是义务教育。

公共教育非常普及。学校课程，教育资金，教学工作，教师就业以及其他政策都由本地选出的学校董事会同学校与州议会共同决定。学校通常是单独的行政机构，具有独立的官员系统和预算系统。教学和测试的标准通常由州政府决定。

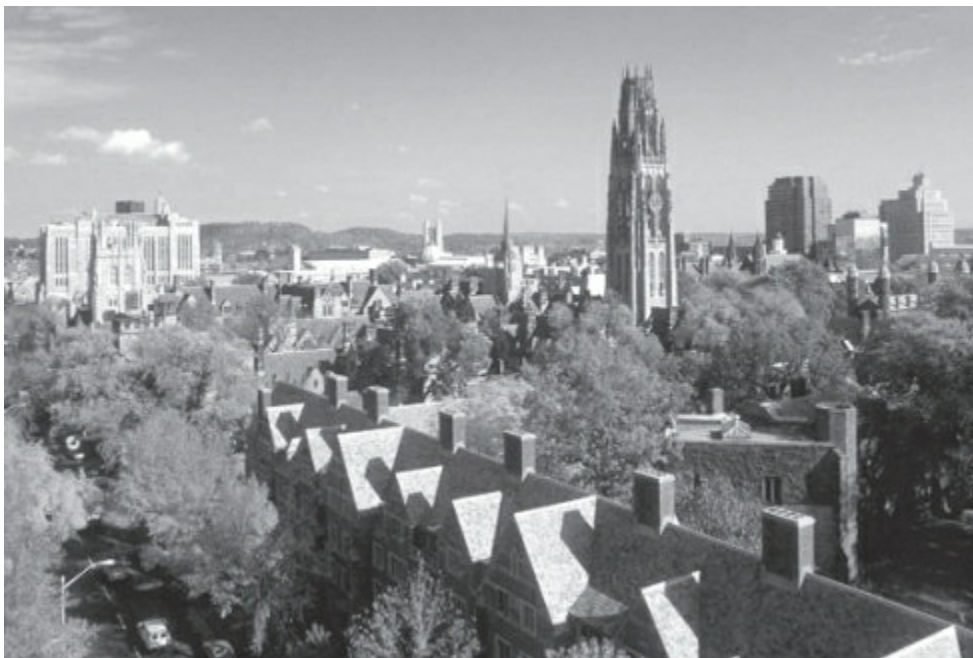

美国每州的义务教育年龄有所不同。入学年龄是5岁到8岁，结束从14岁至18岁。

义务教育由可以满足儿童教育的公立学校，国家认可的私立学校，或批准的家庭学校计划进行。在大多数公立和私立学校，教育分为三个层次：小学，中学（有时称为初中）和高中（有时称为中等教育）。几乎所有的学校都以儿童的年龄划分等级，从最年轻的儿童在幼儿园，其次是小学，到第十二年级为高中的最后一年。义务教育的学生在这些级别的确切年龄范围在各地区有所不同。

高等教育，在美国一般被称为“大学”，通常是有别于小学和中学的教育系统，作为教育系统的单独一环。

● The Different Sino-US Education System 中美教育体制的不同

Teacher-student relationship: In China, the role of teachers and students lead to the relationship between teachers and students also compared alienation. For example, I study in Chinese high school, students in school can't call teacher's name, unless they're privately close friends, or teachers have only just graduated from university as young people, but not in public places such "unbridled." In the United States, many teachers think students call directly their names, for granted. But they're still respected by the students, the majority of students not only see their mentor as a guide, and even more to them as their friends, so in the United States, the relationship between teachers and students is not a mere formality for comparison.

The different structure: in China, most of the children go to school in the 7-year-old. Six years of elementary school, junior high school in three years, the high school three years before university. Only a few areas, the children in the 5-year-old when school. But there's the same basic education system. The United States does not like, here, in general, the United States adopted a four-year high school, junior high school is three years, and the primary school is five years. However, some school districts, from primary one to sixth grade, junior high relatively is from the seventh to the eighth grade. However, the Chinese students come to the United States with study, or any other country to study, they must read the year “pre-university”, it is necessary to converge the previous year, as well as to make students better grasp English. This is necessary; of course, you can not apply for university matriculation unless you submit TOEFL or IELTS high performance.

Points Means: Points are usually two ways: one is using digital law, but not universal. In China, it would be 60 minutes passing. One is the English way, the A B C D E F for grading. A means the highest grade, F representatives failed. Some schools also use A + or A-part of this as a success. If students do not pass a course, there will be a report card on the record; he must repair before it could be passed this course.

Male-female relationships: Here, men and women friends in the campus are too affectionate, kiss on the playground, if they're caught by the administrative staff, they will only have verbal warnings. Even ordinary teacher does not handle. Do not be severely punished. But if it is in China, even universities, are estimated by the criticism and punishment. In particular the high school, they're very strict for their students "Puppy Love" phenomenon. Boys and girls in front of teachers, we must keep a distance.

University of applications and submission: Applications University in the United States, in addition to "regular school" approach, there are "early entry permit" approach and "early action." After only two latter applications for universities, students can advance to a period of about one month hearts of the ideal university to apply (for the first choice), then in December about whether they knew and were admitted. The difference of "Advance permission enrollment" and "early action" is that advance permission is binding, meaning that once they are admitted, must be registered; By contrast, early action is only allowing students to apply early. However, only two private universities can apply for this approach: Stanford University provide "advance permission enrollment" program.

美国成人教育之父——卡耐基

记分方式：记分方式通常分两种：一种是用数字法，但不普遍。中国的话，是60分及格。一种是英文方式，A B C D E F 来分等级。A表示最高的等级，F代表不及格。有些学校还会用A+或者A-这样作为成绩的一部分。如果学生有一门课不及格，成绩单上便会有个记录，他就必须要重修才能通过这一课。

男女关系：在这里，男女朋友在校园里过分亲热，在操场上接吻等，如果被行政人员抓到，只会口头警告。普通老师甚至不会处理。不会受到严厉的处分。但如果是在中国，哪怕是大学，都估计要受批评和处分了。特别是高中，对待学生的“早恋”现象是非常严格的。男生和女生在老师面前，一定要保持距离。

5. The Ivy League 常春藤盟校

The Ivy League was founded in 1954. It's a university association consisting of 8 American universities and one American school (Harvard, Yale, University of Pennsylvania, Princeton, Columbia, Brown, Dartmouth and Cornell). The 8 universities are all topmost in America. They have a long history. They are serious in academics. Many famous scientists, political celebrities, business elites graduated there. In America, Ivy League is the synonym of topmost school.

常春藤盟校徽标

These elite schools maintain a strict admission policy. The students who are fortunate enough to be there are naturally good in study and character. The school has already been choosing slate of students in different high schools, and those who have got national excellent student prize and are rich in talents become its targets. But an academic grade is not the only factor for admission. One of the most important factors they'll take into consideration is the sense of independence of the students, and whether or not they can quickly adapt to the stressful life of freshman year.

常春藤盟校成立于1954年，是由美国的8所大学和一所学院（哈佛、耶鲁、宾夕法尼亚大学、普林斯顿、哥伦比亚、布朗、达特茅斯和康乃尔）组成的一个大学联合会。这8所大学都是美国首屈一指的大学，历史悠久，治学严谨，许多著名的科学家、政界要人、商贾巨子都毕业于此。在美国，常春藤学院被作为顶尖名校的代名词。

这些名校都有严格的入学标准，能够入校就读的学生，自然是品学兼优的好学生。学校很早就去各个高中挑选合适的人选，许多得到全国优秀学生奖并有各种特长的学生都是他们网罗的对象。不过学习成绩并不是学校录取的惟一因素，学生是否具有独立精神并且能否快速适应紧张而有压力的大一新生生活也是他们考虑的重要因素。

● Harvard 哈佛大学

Harvard College was established in 1636 by vote of the Great and General Court of Massachusetts Bay Colony, and was named for its first benefactor, John Harvard of Charlestown, a young minister who upon his death in 1638, left his library and half his estate to the new institution.

Harvard University has grown from 9 students with a single master to an enrollment of more than 18,000 degree candidates' including undergraduates' and students in 10 graduate and professional schools. An additional 13, 000 students are enrolled in one or more courses at the Harvard Extension School. Over 14,000 people work at Harvard, including more than 2,000 faculty. There are more than 7,000 faculty appointments in affiliated teaching hospitals.

During its early years, the College offered a classic academic course based on the English University model but consistent with the prevailing Puritan philosophy of the first colonists. Although many of its early graduates became ministers in Puritan congregations throughout New England, the college never formally affiliated with a specific religious denomination.

Six presidents of the United States—John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Theodore and Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Rutherford B. Hayes, and John Fitzgerald Kennedy—were graduated in Harvard University. Its faculty has produced 34 Nobel Laureates.

Under president Pusey (1953—71), Harvard undertook what was then the largest fundraising campaign in the history of American higher education, the $82.5 million Program for Harvard College. The Program strengthened faculty salaries, broadened student aid, created new professorships, and expanded Harvard's physical facilities. A similar but greatly expanded fundraising effort, the Harvard Campaign (1979—84), was conducted under the leadership of Derek Bok (1971—1991) and raised $356 million by the end of 1984.

Neil L. Rudenstine took office as Harvard's 26th president in 1991. It was as a part of an overall effort to achieve greater coordination among the University's schools and faculties. Rudenstine set in motion an intensive process of University-wide academic planning, intended to identify some of Harvard's main intellectual and programmatic priorities. Rudenstine has stressed the University's commitment to excellence in undergraduate education, the importance of keeping Harvard's doors open to students from across the economic spectrum, the task of adapting the research university to an era of both rapid information growth and serious financial constraints. And the challenge of living together in a diverse community committed to freedom of expression.

哈佛大学建立于1636年，由当时的马塞诸塞湾殖民地选举产生。学校是以它的第一个捐赠者查里斯顿郡的约翰·哈佛命名的。约翰·哈佛是一位年轻的牧师。1638年他去世的时候，将他的藏书以及地产的一半捐赠给这所新建的学校。

哈佛大学一开始只有九名学生、一名硕士生。现在包括在校本科生与其他学生在内共有18,000千多人，有十所研究院与专业学院，在哈佛的分校中，还有13,000千名学生在哈佛分校选修了一门或多门课程，哈佛共有14,000千名工作人员，其中有2,000多名教职人员，以教学为目的的附属医院中还有7,000多名教职员工。

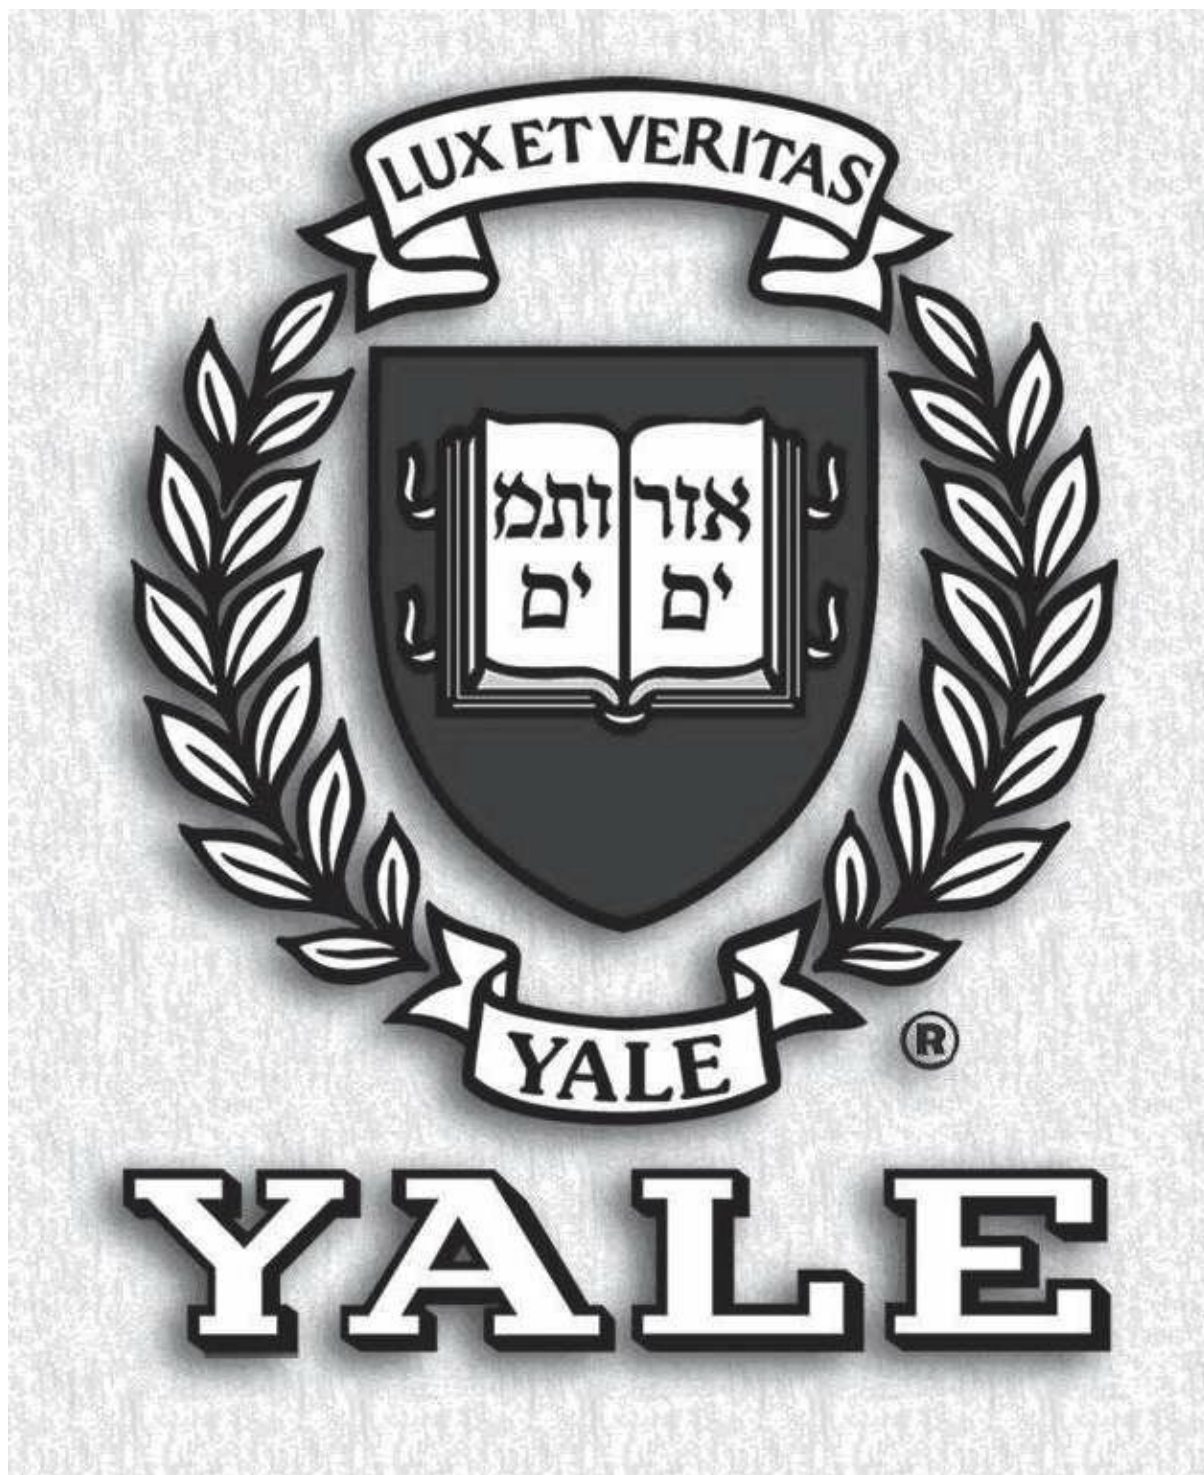

在建校之初，课程设置依循英国大学的模式，以传统的学院式的课程为主，但又与当时美州盛行的第一批移民的清教思想相一致。尽管许多早期的毕业生成为新英格兰清教教会的高级官员，哈佛大学从没有正式与任何一种宗教信仰建立联系。

哈佛培养了约翰·亚当斯、约翰·昆西·亚当斯、西奥多及富兰克林·德来诺·罗斯福、罗斯福德·B·海斯和约翰·弗斯杰罗涛·肯尼迪六位美国总统，并产生了三十四位诺贝尔奖获得者。

在蒲西校长在职的1953至1971年间。哈佛经历了美国高校历史上最大的筹款活动。共筹得82,500,000美元。这项活动提高了教师工资，增加了学生资助项目，设置了新的教授职位，增设了哈佛的体育设施，另一项类似然而更广泛的筹款活动于1979~1984年间展开，当时的领导人是德里克·福德（1971~1991年），到1984年底共筹得356,000,000美元。

1. The "Father of the United States" —George Washington 美国国父——乔治·华盛顿

George Washington (1732-1799) was a founding father and the commander of the Continental Army in the American Revolutionary War from 1775 to 1783. He was elected as the first president of the United States of America - the only president ever to win a unanimous vote in the Electoral College and served two terms before retiring. Because of his significant role in the revolution and in the formation of the United States, he is often revered by Americans as the "Father of Our Country".

Born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, George Washington was a son of a colonial plantation owner. As a youth, Washington worked as a surveyor and in 1752 he joined the British army and served as a lieutenant in the French and Indian War. When the war ended, Washington left the army and returned home to Virginia to manage Mount Vernon, the plantation he had recently inherited upon the death of his older brother. He married a wealthy widow, Martha Dandridge Custis, in 1759. Although the couple had no children, Washington adopted Martha's son and daughter from her previous marriage. While in Virginia, Washington like many of his compatriots grew increasingly frustrated with colonial rule by the British government. Marriage and the responsibilities of running a plantation helped him mature emotionally and intellectually. By 1770 he was an experienced leader—a vestryman, a justice of the peace, and a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses.

The Continental Congress appointed Washington commander-in-chief of the American revolutionary forces in 1775. Part of his success in the Revolutionary War was due to his shrewd use of what was then considered the "ungentlemanly," but effective, tactic of "guerrilla" warfare, in which stealthy "hit-and-run" attacks foiled British armies. During the war Washington suffered several defeats, but he held his forces together. In fact, Washington led almost as many losing battles as he won, but his successes at Trenton, Princeton and Yorktown proved pivotal for the Continental Army and the emerging nation. His leadership and sense of strategy made him a superb commander in chief. When the war ended, Washington returned to Mount Vernon and the life of a tobacco planter. But he was called out of retirement to preside at the Constitutional Convention in 1787 at Philadelphia. In 1789, because of the leadership he displayed during the war and his great prestige supported the new government, which made his election as the first president of the United States almost inevitable. Washington was elected the first American president under the new U.S. Constitution.

乔治·华盛顿

In Washington's first term, an opposition began to make itself heard, and in his second term, the outlines of the first party system, composed of the Democratic-Republican and Federalist parties, became clear.

Washington never understood the need for political parties, seeing something sinister in them. Fatigued and somewhat discouraged, he retired to Mount Vernon after he left the presidency.

On December 12, 1799, he rode out into the freezing sleet to survey business affairs on his estate. He returned home late for a dinner engagement and refused to take the time to change out of his wet clothes. On December 13, he developed a severe respiratory infection. On December 14, 1799, George Washington died at his Mount Vernon estate in Virginia. His last words were,

"Tis well." The nation plunged into a state of mourning. He was described by fellow soldier Henry Lee as "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen".

乔治·华盛顿（1732～1799年），美国开国之父，美国独立战争（1775～1783年）大陆军总司令。他是美利坚合众国第一任总统，美国有史以来唯一一位经总统选举团全票通过的总统，退休前曾连任两届总统。鉴于华盛顿在美国革命和建国过程中的贡献，被美国人尊称为“美国国父”。

乔治·华盛顿生于弗吉尼亚州威斯特摩兰县，是一个殖民地种植园主的儿子。华盛顿年轻时做过土地测量师。在1752年，他加入英国军队，在法国和印度战争中将担任中尉。战争结束后，华盛顿离开军队，回到弗吉尼亚州的家里继承了哥哥的遗产，接管弗农山庄。1759年他娶了富孀玛莎·丹德里奇·卡斯蒂斯。虽然他们没有孩子，但华盛顿接受了玛莎与前夫的儿子和女儿。在弗吉尼亚州，华盛顿和他的许多同胞一样，对英国政府殖民统治的厌恶之情与日俱增。婚姻和经营种植园的责任使他在情感和理智上成熟起来。到了1770年，他已经是一位经验丰富的领导者——教区委员，正义法官以及弗吉尼亚州伯吉西斯众议员。

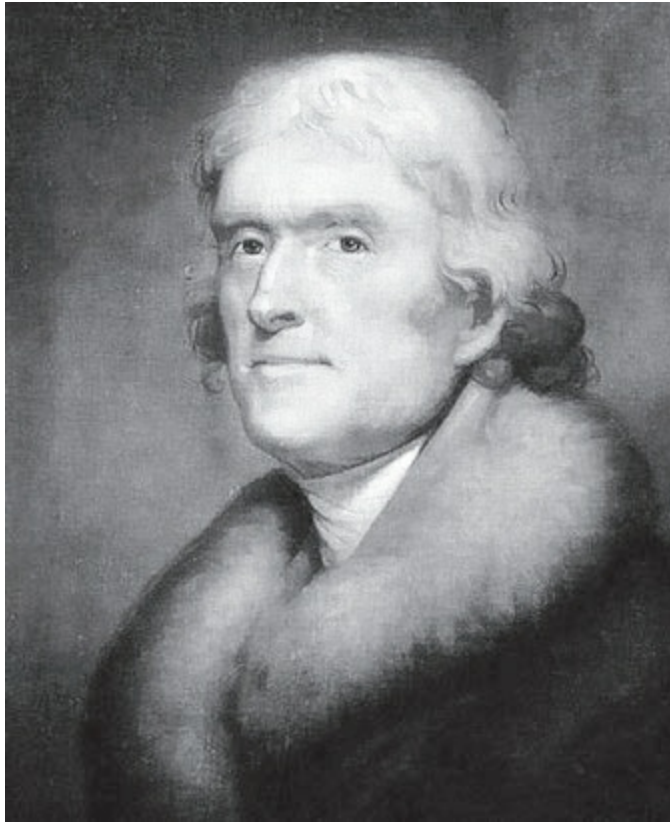

1775年，大陆会议推选华盛顿为美国大陆军总司令。他打赢革命战争的原因在于高明的采取了当时认为“非君子”却十分有效的“游击”战争策略，即：以偷偷摸摸的“打了就跑”方式挫败英国军队。在战争期间，华盛顿遭受几个败仗，但他始终和他的部队在一起。事实上，华盛顿打得败仗和胜仗一样多，但他在特伦顿，普林斯顿和约克镇战役中的胜利却对大陆军和新兴国家起了关键作用。他的领导才能和战略意识使他成为出色的首席指挥官。战争结束后，华盛顿回到弗农山庄并过着烟草种植园主的生活。但1787年他重新出山，主持召开费城制宪会议。1789年，华盛顿因战争期间所显示的领袖气魄和他支持新政府的巨大威望，使他当选美国第一任总统成为必然。在美国新宪法的支持下，华盛顿成为美国第一任总统。

在华盛顿总统第一个任期时，反对派就开始发出自己的声音，第二任期内，由民主-共和与联邦主义政党构成的一党系统轮廓变得清晰。华盛顿从未理解政党的需要，发觉他们险恶的行径。第二任期期满后，疲劳、沮丧的华盛顿离开总统宝座，回到弗农山庄。

1799年12月12日，他骑马冒着冻结雨夹雪去调查他的地产商业事务。由于每每聚餐回家很晚，并拒绝换掉湿衣服。12月13日，他患了严重的呼吸道感染。1799年12月14日，乔治·华盛顿在弗吉尼亚州的弗农山庄逝世，他留下的最后一句话是“很好。”整个国家都陷入悲痛。他昔日的革命战争伙伴哈瑞·李这样描述他：“他是一个公民，他是战争中的第一人，也是和平时时代的第一人，也是他的同胞们心目中的第一人。”

2. Pioneer of American Democracy—Thomas Jefferson 美国民主的先行者——托马斯·杰斐逊

● The Life of Thomas Jefferson 托马斯·杰斐逊生平

Thomas Jefferson (April 13, 1743 – July 4, 1826) was the third President of the United States (1801–1809), the principal author of the Declaration of Independence (1776), and for his promotion of the ideals of republicanism in the United States, one of the most influential Founding Fathers. Major events during his presidency include the Louisiana Purchase (1803) and the Lewis and Clark Expedition (1804–1806), as well as escalating tensions with both Britain and France that led to war with Britain in 1812, after he left office.

As a political philosopher, Jefferson was a man of the Enlightenment and republicanism, and was the author of the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom (1779, 1786). He was the eponym of Jeffersonian democracy and the co-founder and leader of the Democratic-Republican Party, which dominated American politics for 25 years. Jefferson served as the wartime Governor of Virginia (1779–1781), the first United States Secretary of State (1789–1793), and the second Vice President of the United States (1797–1801).

托马斯·杰斐逊（1743年4月13日~1826年7月4日）为美利坚合众国第三任总统（1801年~1809年）。同时也是美国独立宣言（1776年）主要起草人，倡导美国共和主义，成为开国元勋中最具影响力者之一。其任期中之重大事件包括路易西安那购地案（1803年），路易斯与克拉克探勘（1804~1806）以及加剧了美国与英法的紧张关系，在他离职后于1812年爆发了对英战争。

身为政治学家，杰斐逊秉持古典自由主义与共和主义，制定了维吉尼亚宗教自由法（1779，1786）。杰斐逊式民主因他而得名。他创立并领导民主共和党（今日民主党之前身），统治美国政治达四分之一世纪。杰斐逊曾为第二任维吉尼亚州州长（1779年~1781年）、第一任美国国务卿（1789年~1793年）、与第二任美国副总统（1797年~1801年）。

● Jefferson's Early Career 杰斐逊早年生涯

Thomas Jefferson was born on April 13, 1743 into a family closely related to some of the most prominent individuals in Virginia, the third of ten children. Jefferson's father was Peter Jefferson, a planter and surveyor in Albemarle County and had a farm named Shadwell. His mother was Jane Randolph, daughter of Isham Randolph, a ship's captain and sometime planter, first cousin to Peyton Randolph. When Colonel William Randolph, an old friend of Peter Jefferson, died in 1745, Peter assumed executorship and personal charge of William Randolph's estate in Tuckahoe as well as his infant son. That year the Jeffersons relocated to Tuckahoe where they would remain for the next seven years before returning to their home in Albemarle.

Jefferson studied at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg and began practicing law in 1767. In 1768, Jefferson stood as a candidate for the Virginia House of Burgesses; he entered the legislature just as opposition was building to the taxation policies of the British government. That same year, Jefferson began building Monticello, his hilltop estate in Albemarle County; he would later greatly expand his holdings in land and slaves through his marriage to Martha Wayles Skelton in 1772. In 1774, Jefferson wrote A Summary View of the Rights of British America, in which he claimed that the colonies were tied to the king only by voluntary bonds of loyalty. Published as a political pamphlet without Jefferson's permission, this document extended Jefferson's reputation beyond Virginia. In the spring of 1775, shortly after skirmishes broke out between colonial militiamen and British soldiers at Lexington and Concord, the Virginia legislature sent Jefferson as a delegate to the Second Continental Congress in Philadelphia.

杰斐逊出生于富足兴旺之家，在十名手足间排行第三。父亲名彼得·杰斐逊，为农民兼测量员，在维吉尼亚的阿尔伯马尔郡拥有一座名为沙德维尔的农场；母亲珍·蓝道夫，为伊沙汉·蓝道夫（船长，有时从事种植者）之女，培顿·蓝道夫之表亲。1745年彼得·杰斐逊的老朋友上校威廉蓝道夫去世，将自己在塔卡霍的房地产留给了彼得·杰斐逊和成为孤儿的儿子。同年，杰斐逊一家迁往塔卡霍，他们七年后重返阿尔伯马尔郡。

杰斐逊就读于威廉斯堡的威廉与玛丽学院，并于1767年开始从事律师工作。1768年，杰斐逊成为弗吉尼亚的伯吉西斯众议员候选人，以英国政府税收政策反对派的身份进入立法机关。同年，杰斐逊开始在阿尔伯马尔建造他的森林别墅——蒙蒂塞洛；1772年，他与守寡的玛莎·韦尔斯·斯凯尔顿结婚，这极大的增加了他的土地和奴隶数量。1774年，他写下《英属美洲民权概观》，声称殖民地只是由于忠诚才自愿与国王捆绑在一起。未经杰斐逊的许可就被印成政治小册子出版，本文使杰斐逊赢得了广泛的声誉，已超出弗吉尼亚州的范围。1775年春天，殖民地民兵和英国士兵在列克星敦和康科德发生了小规模战斗，弗吉尼亚立法机关派杰斐逊作代表去费城参加大陆会议。

● At the Second Continental Congress 第二次大陆会议

The 33-year-old Jefferson may have been a shy, awkward public speaker in Congressional debates, but he used his skills as a writer and correspondent 注 to support the patriotic cause. By the late spring of 1776, more and more colonists favored an official and permanent break from Great Britain; in midMay, eight of the 13 colonies said they would support independence. On June 7, Richard Henry Lee of Virginia formally presented a resolution before the Congress, stating that “These United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States, that they are absolved 注 from all allegiance 注 to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to

On June 11, Jefferson was appointed to a five-man committee alongside John Adams of Massachusetts, Roger Sherman of Connecticut, Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania and Robert R. Livingston of New York--that was charged with drafting a formal statement justifying the break with Great Britain. Jefferson was the only southerner on the committee, and had arrived in Philadelphia accompanied by three of his many slaves. Still, it was he who was given the task of drafting the Declaration of Independence, which would become the foremost statement of human liberty and equality ever written. According to an account Jefferson wrote in 1823, the other members of the committee “unanimously pressed on me alone to undertake the draught. I consented; I drew it; but before I reported it to the committee I communicated it separately to Dr. Franklin and Mr. Adams requesting their corrections... I then wrote a fair copy, reported it to the committee, and from them, unaltered to the Congress.”

The body of Jefferson's draft contained a list of grievances against the British crown, but it was its preamble that would strike the deepest chords in the minds and hearts of future Americans: “We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.”

The Continental Congress reconvened on July 1, and the following day 12 of the 13 colonies adopted Lee's resolution for independence. The process of consideration and revision of Jefferson's declaration (including Adams' and Franklin's corrections) continued on July 3 and into the late morning of July 4, during which Congress deleted and revised some one-fifth of its text. The delegates made no changes to that key preamble, however, and the basic document remained Jefferson's words. Congress officially adopted the Declaration of Independence later on July 4 (though most historians now accept that the document was not

杰斐逊

6月11日，杰斐逊受命进入五人委员会——其他人分别为马萨诸塞州的约翰·亚当斯一起，康涅狄格州的勒格·谢尔曼，宾夕法尼亚州的本杰明·富兰克林和纽约的罗伯特·R·利文斯顿——负责起草一份脱离英国的正式声明。杰斐逊是该委员会中唯一的南方人，在他的三名奴隶的陪同下抵达费城。同样由他起草了《独立宣言》——关于人类自由和平等的最重要的书面文件。杰斐逊1823年的记录中写道：该委员会的其他成员一致认为我应该独自承担撰写草案的任务。我同意了，我写了，但我在上交委员会之前分别给富兰克林博士和亚当斯先生过目，要求其改正……我当时写了一个公平的副本，报告给委员会，并一字不改的提交了国会。

杰斐逊故居

7月1日大陆会议重新召开，第二天来自13个殖民地的12名代表通过理查德·亨利·李的独立决议。7月3日至4日上午，审议和修改杰斐逊的宣言书（包括亚当斯和富兰克林的更正），在大会修订期间该宣言内容改动了五分之一。然而，代表们并没有改动关键的序言，基本文件仍然是杰斐逊的原文。7月4日，《独立宣言》由国会正式签署。（虽然大多数历史学家都认为该文件直到8月2日才签署）。当时，《独立宣言》被视为是大陆会议集体成员努力的结果；18世纪90年代之后，杰斐逊才被认为是该宣言的主要作者。

3. The Great Man of the Century—Abraham Lincoln 世纪伟人：亚伯拉罕·林肯

● The Life of Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) 亚伯拉罕·林肯生平

Today, Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) is remembered as a visionary 注 leader, a gifted orator and one of America's greatest presidents. In his life time, however, he faced harsh 注 criticism for his commanding of the Civil War and his expansion of executive power. Lincoln was the first president to be assassinated—he was shot by actor John Wilkes Booth on April 14, 1865, just six days after Robert E. Lee's surrender at Appomattox, and died the next morning.

Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth president of the United States, was born in Kentucky in 1809. He is classed with Washington in greatness of deeds, but he is nearer the hearts of all Americans because he sprang from the ranks of the common people, to the White House.

Because his family was pioneers in the newly settled West, he didn't get regular education, but he held firmly to his purpose to secure knowledge in every possible way. There were many stories told of how he walked miles to secure a book, and studied by the light of the hearth fire at night after a hard day at farm work. After a hard struggle he succeeded in passing the bar examinations, and became a lawyer in Springfield, Illinois.

亚伯拉罕·林肯

In 1846, he was elected to Congress. In 1858, he might have gained his place in the United States Senate had he not taken his stand against slavery in the famous debates which he entered with Stephen A. Douglas. These debates spread his fame throughout the country and led the way for his election to the presidency in 1860. Very shortly after his election the secession of certain Southern states led to the Civil War, which in turn induced Lincoln to free the slaves on January 1, 1863, by the Emancipation Proclamation. His second inaugural speech gives his plan for building up the peace of the nation, but he did not live to accomplish his desire.

如今，亚伯拉罕·林肯作为一个有远见的领导者、一个天才的演说家和美国最伟大的总统之一，铭记在世人心。但是，在他的有生之年，他却因指挥南北战争和扩张行政权力而饱受严厉的指责。林肯是第一位被暗杀的总统——1865年4月14日，在罗伯特·E·李于阿波马托克投降仅6天后，林肯总统就遭到演员约翰·威尔克斯·布斯的暗杀，并于第二天早上离世。

亚伯拉罕·林肯接受一个非洲裔美国家庭的感谢致意

美国第16任总统亚伯拉罕·林肯，1809年出生于肯塔基州。由于他杰出的贡献，人们将他和华盛顿总统相提并论，但是在所有美国人民的心中，出身平民，最终入主白宫的他更亲近美国人民的心。

当时西部刚刚有人定居，他的家就迁移过去，所以他几乎没有受过正规教育，然而他却坚持不懈，通过各种可能的途径获取知识。许多故事描述了他如何步行几里路去买一本书，以及在农场辛苦劳作一天后还在壁炉边的灯光下学习的情况。经过一番艰苦奋斗，他成功地通过了律师资格考试，成为伊利诺斯州普林菲尔德市的一名律师。

1846年，林肯当选进入国会。1858年，如果不是在同史蒂芬斯·A·道格拉斯几场有名的辩论中，他主张废除农奴制，他原本可以入选参议院。但这些辩论却使他闻名全国，也为他在1860当选总统铺平了道路。林肯上任不久，南方某些州脱离了联邦政府，引起了内战。结果这场战争促使林肯于1863年1月1日颁了《解放奴隶宣言》，解放了黑奴。在他的第二篇就职演说中，林肯阐述了要在全美国建立和平的计划，但是在他生前，这个愿望没有实现。

● Evaluation about Lincoln 对林肯的评价

Lincoln is justly considered one of the greatest presidents. He was a masterful politician, sensitive and constantly shaping public opinion, skilled at balancing competing considerations, and extraordinarily adept at getting rival groups to work together for a common goal. His leadership qualities were demonstrated in his brilliant handling of the border slave states at the beginning of the fighting. Never losing sight of the larger aims of the war, he remained flexible in his approach to problems, as evidenced by his evolving policies on emancipation and Reconstruction. Nevertheless, the toll of the war was visible in his haggard face: he stoically endured more than any other president personal slights, public ridicule, and criticism beyond the bounds of all decency, had his hopes dashed by one humiliating military defeat after another, and suffered deep personal anguish over the mounting casualty lists. Yet he never faltered his resolution of victory.

注

注

Lincoln enunciated the nation's loftiest ideals during its darkest moment — incorruptible politic.

注

The Gettysburg Address had become the supreme statement of the meaning of the war, and his second inaugural was testimony to his humanistic spirit. For the American people, his life from log cabin to White House epitomizes the American experience, and he has become the national symbol of democracy .

注

注

注

注

《林肯和宠物》

公正地讲，林肯是最伟大的总统之一。他是一个精明的政治家，对民意敏感并能不断地影响民意，善于权衡竞争性并能出人意料地同竞争对手联合起来为了共同的目标努力。他的领导素质体现为他在战斗开始时出色地处理了边界蓄奴州问题。他从未放弃战争的远大目标，仍然以灵活的方式处理问题，从他解放奴隶和重建南方不断变化的政策中可见一斑。然而，战争的伤亡明显的刻在他憔悴的脸上：与任何其他总统相比，他坚忍地承受了更多的个人轻视，公开嘲笑，不体面的批评，接连战败的屈辱打破了他的希望，不断增长的伤亡名单给他带来巨大的个人痛苦。但他坚持胜利的决心却从来没有动摇过。

林肯在其最黑暗的时刻阐述了国家的崇高理想——政治清廉。葛底斯堡演说成为战争最高意义的声明，他的第二次就职演说彰显了他的人文精神。在美国人民心中，他从小木屋到白宫的人生经历成为美国的缩影，他已成为了民主国家的象征。

● Presidential Anecdotes 总统轶事

1865年4月4日总统亚伯拉罕·林肯进入弗吉尼亚州里士满

As a young man, he impressed others with his sheer 注 physical strength—he was a legendary 注 wrestler 注 in Illinois and entertained friends and strangers alike with his dry, folksy 注 wit, which was still in evidence years later. Exasperated 注 by one Civil War military defeat after another, Lincoln wrote to a lethargic 注 general “if you don't use the army I should like to borrow it for a while.” As an animal lover, Lincoln once declared, “I care not for a man's religion whose dog and cat are not the better for it.” Fittingly, a variety of pets took up residence at the Lincoln White House, including a pet turkey named Jack and a goat called Nanko.

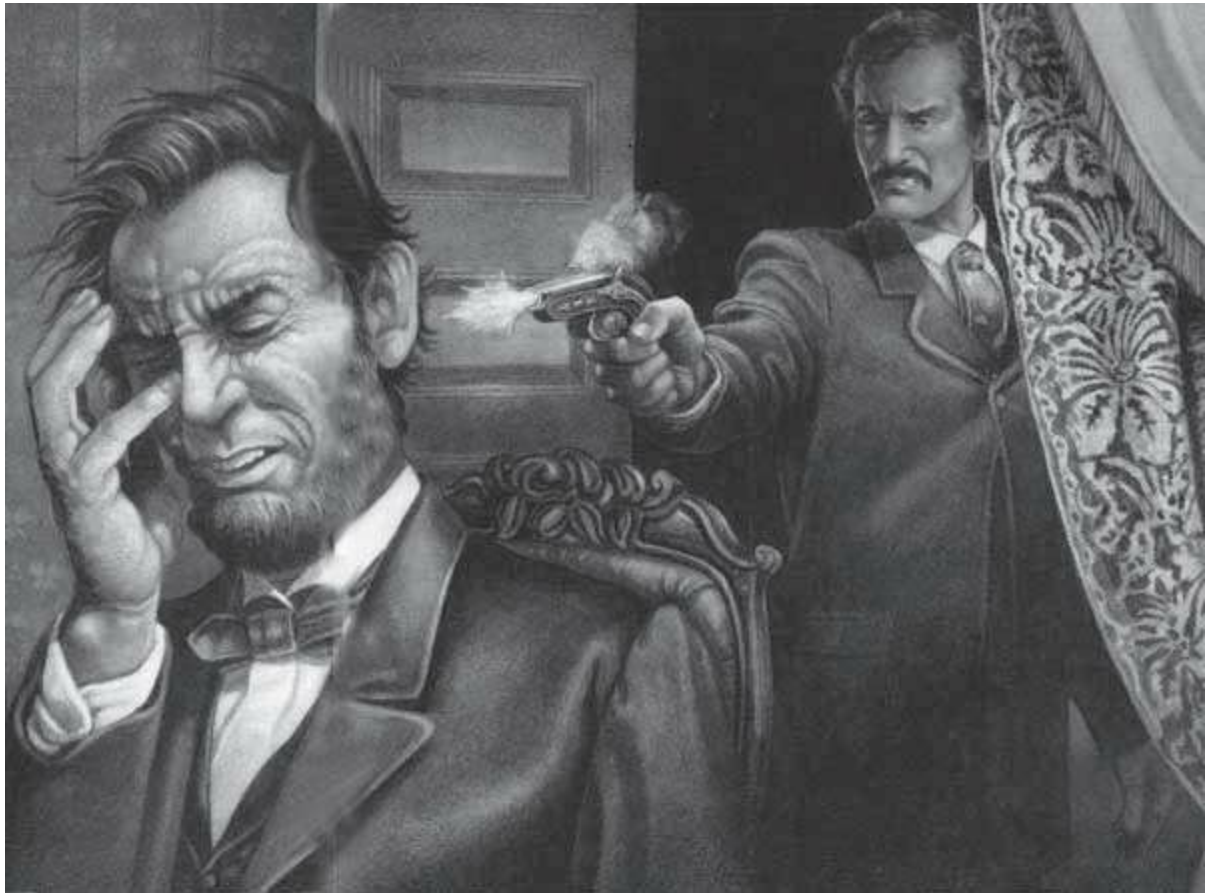

Lincoln's sense of humor could have helped him to hide recurring bouts 注 of depression 注 .

He admitted to friends and colleagues that he suffered from “intense melancholia 注 ” and hypochondria 注 most of his adult life. Perhaps in order to cope with it, Lincoln engaged in self-effacing 注 humor, even chiding himself about his homely 注 looks. When an opponent in an 1858 Senate race debate 注 called him "two-faced," he replied, "If I had another face do you think I would wear this one?"

林肯遭暗杀

Lincoln was remembered as "The Great Emancipator." Although he waffl e 注 on the subject of slavery in the early years of his presidency, his greatest legacy was his work to preserve the Union and sign the Emancipation Proclamation. To Confederate sympathizers, however, signing of the Emancipation Proclamation reinforced his image as a hated despot and ultimately led John Wilkes Booth to assassinate him on April 14, 1865. His favorite horse, Old Bob, pulled his funeral hearse 注 .

青年时期，林肯惊人的体力令人印象深刻——他在伊利诺伊州是个传奇的摔跤选手。同时他的朋友及陌生人经常被他那不动声色、平易近人的机智逗笑，这在很多年后都留有证据。内战中军队接连战败，愤怒的林肯写信给一位昏昏欲睡的将军“如果你不使用军队，我想借用一段时间了。”林肯作为动物爱好者曾经放言：“如果他的宗教比他的狗和猫都重要，我对他嗤之以鼻。”巧的是，各种宠物都来林肯白宫官邸安家，包括一只名为杰克的宠物火鸡和南光的山羊。

林肯的幽默感可以帮助他抑制反复发作的抑郁症。他向朋友和同事承认自己成年后的大部分时间都承受着“严重的忧郁症”的痛苦。也许是为了抵抗抑郁症，林肯变得谦虚幽默，他甚至就自己其貌不扬的相貌自嘲。1858年参议员竞选对手辩论时称他为“两面派”，他回答说，“如果我有另外一张脸的话，你认为我还会要这张脸吗？”

林肯“伟大的解放者”的身份令人铭记。虽然他当总统的最初几年在奴隶制问题上优柔寡断，但是他最大的贡献在于他维护了联邦统治和签订了《解放奴隶宣言》。然而，在南部联盟同情者的眼中，签署《解放奴隶宣言》的林肯则是令人痛恨的暴君，这最终导致约翰·威尔克斯·布斯于1865年4月14日暗杀了他。最终，林肯最喜欢的马，老鲍勃，拉着他的灵车，送了主人最后一程。

4. Franklin D. Roosevelt—The King of American “美国王”——富兰克林·D·罗斯福

Franklin D. Roosevelt (1882-1945) became president in 1933. The United States was then at the depth of the Greet Depression. Roosevelt used his powers to create jobs and to help those who needed helps. Many of Roosevelt's ideas of government are still part of the law of the land. He went on to serve four terms, more than any other U.S. president in history.

富兰克林·德拉诺·罗斯福

Born in Hyde Park, New York, Roosevelt was the only child in an affluen  patrician  family. He was inspired by his fifth cousin, the former president Theodore Roosevelt, to pursue a career in politics. In 1920 Roosevelt was the Democratic candidate for vice president in a Republican year (finished in failure). Struck down by poliomyelitis 注 in 1921, he never recovered the use of his legs. Encouraged by his wife, he returned to politics and in 1928 was elected governor of New York. In 1932, at the bottom of the Great Depression, Roosevelt defeated Herbert Hoover in the presidential election. A

注 quarter of the labor force was out of work, the economy was in collapse , and the nation was in despair. Facing the emergency, no one knew the answer, Roosevelt regarded the national government as

注 the instrument of the general welfare and experiment as the method of democracy. Theodore Roosevelt's New Nationalism, with its emphasis on federal regulation of big business, was reborn in Franklin Roosevelt's first term; and Wilson's New Freedom, with its emphasis on antitrust policy,

注 restored national morale and remolded 注 the landscape of American life. After a sharp recession

注 in 1937, Roosevelt turned to Keynesian deficit 注 spending policies to revive the economy.

注 as a gallant 注 , joyous, and eloquent 注 , even sometimes crafty 注 and devious

注 president. He led the nation greatly through two of its deepest crises—the Great Depression and the World War II and reshaped its domestic polity, its role in the international order, and the office of the presidency itself.

富兰克林·罗斯福别针

富兰克林·D·罗斯福在（1882～1945年）1933年成为总统。当时美国正陷于世界性的经济危机之中。罗斯福以他的能力为人民创造就业机会并带去援助。他的许多施政观点至今仍是美国治国方针的一部分。他连任4届，成为美国历史上执政时间最长的总统。

1945年4月12日罗斯福死于严重的脑出血。他的死标志着美国与苏联的关系的转折，因为他的继任者，哈里·S·杜鲁门，决定对苏联采取更强硬的立场。争议随着他的去世而消失，他被视为英勇、乐观雄辩有时也要点儿小聪明的总统，他带领美国度过两次最严重的危机——经济大萧条和第二次世界大战，重塑了国内的政治体系，在国际秩序中的作用以及总统职务本身。

5. War Comes to Europe—Herbert Clark Hoover's Famous Speech 战争降临欧洲——赫伯特·克拉克·胡弗著名演说

● Brief Introduction to the Speaker 演讲者简介

Herbert Clark Hoover (August 10, 1874 ~ October 20, 1964) was the 31st President of the United States (1929–1933). Hoover was originally a professional mining engineer and author. As the United States Secretary of Commerce in the 1920s under Presidents Warren Harding and Calvin Coolidge, he promoted partnerships between government and business under the rubric "economic modernization". In the presidential election of 1928, Hoover easily won the Republican nomination, despite having no previous elected office experience. Hoover is the most recent cabinet secretary to be elected President of the United States, as well as one of only two Presidents (along with William Howard Taft) to have been elected without previous electoral experience or high military rank. America was prosperous and optimistic at the time, leading to a landslide victory for Hoover over Democrat Al Smith.

赫伯特·胡弗

Hoover, a trained engineer, deeply believed in the Efficiency Movement, which held that the government and the economy were riddled with inefficiency and waste, and could be improved by experts who could identify the problems and solve them. When the Wall Street Crash of 1929 struck less than eight months after he took office, Hoover tried to combat the ensuing Great Depression with volunteer efforts, public works projects such as the Hoover Dam, tariffs such as the Smoot-Hawley Tariff, an increase in the top tax bracket from 25% to 63%, and increases in corporate taxes, none of which produced economic recovery during his term. The consensus among historians is that Hoover's defeat in the 1932 election was caused primarily by failure to end the downward economic spiral. As a result of these factors, Hoover is ranked poorly among former US Presidents.

赫伯特·克拉克·胡弗（1874年8月10日～1964年10月20日）是美国第31任总统（1929~1933年）。他原本是一个专业的采矿工程师和作家。在1920年代根据总统沃伦·哈丁的提名担任美国商务部长，他提倡建立国家政府之间的伙伴关系和“经济现代化”。尽管之前没有选举活动的经验，但在1928年的总统选举中，轻松赢得共和党提名。胡弗是以内阁部长身份被选为最年轻的美国总统，除他之外只有塔夫脱总统在当选总统前没有选举的经验或高级军衔。当时美国处于繁荣和乐观的时期，使胡弗在和民主党人史密斯的选战中获得了压倒性胜利。

胡弗是一个训练有素的工程师，深信效率的作用，认为政府和经济充斥着低效和浪费，并寻找专家找出问题并解决它们。在1929年证券市场崩溃后，胡弗试图解决经济大萧条，开始兴建公共工程项目，如胡弗大坝，制订斯穆特-霍利关税，将最高税率从25%提高到63%，并增加企业税，但这些都未能使经济在他的任期内产生复苏。大多数历史学家认为，胡弗在1932年大选中失败的原因主要是未能制止经济衰退。由于这些因素，胡弗在美国历任总统的排名中的名次很低。

● War Comes to Europe—Herbert Hoover's Famous Speech 战争降临欧洲——赫伯特·胡弗著名演说

War Comes to Europe

(Herbert Hoover)

Sept. 1, 1939

Fellow Americans of the radio audience, this is one of the saddest week that has come to humanity in a hundred years. A senseless war seems inevitably forced upon hundreds of millions of people. The whole world still prays for some miracle that might deliver us. For war means the killing of millions of the best and the most courageous of men who might contribute something to human's progress. It means the killing and starvation of millions of women and children. It means another quarter of a century of impoverishment for the whole world. And it will likely be a long war, it is possible that the brave people of Poland may be overrun in a few months, but there seems no point of access from which an overwhelming attack can be delivered from the British and French on one side, to the Germans on the other, which might quickly end this war. It's likely to be a war of slow attrition, and the fate of Poland will depend upon its ending. The air defenses of France and England, their greatly superior naval strength, their manpower, their resources, their resolution, make it certain that they can defend themselves. And it is true that vast fleets of airplanes on both sides contribute a new and uncertain factor, but there is nothing which proves that even the superiority in airplanes can win the war. And while assurances have been given that there will be no bombing of women and children, there may come a time of desperation when all restraints go to the winds. It's likely to be the most barbarous war that we have ever known.

This situation in the world today is not the act of the German people themselves, but it's the act of a group who hold them in subjection. The whole Nazi system is repugnant to the American people. The most of American sympathy will be to the democracies, but whatever our sympathies are, we can not solve the problems of Europe. America must keep out of this war. The President and the Congress should be supported in their every effort to keep us out. We can keep out, if we have the resolute national will to do so. We can be of more service to Europe and to humanity if we preserve the vitality and strength of the United States for use in the period of peace which must sometime come. And we must keep out if we are to preserve for civilization the very foundations of democracy and of free men.

(赫伯特·胡弗)

1939.9.1

赫伯特·胡弗老年

收音机前的美国同胞们，这是近百年来人类最悲痛的一个星期。一场毫无意义的战争看来已不可避免地将强加到亿万人民头上。整个世界仍在祈求奇迹出现，能拯救众生。因为战争意味着数百万可能为人类进步做出贡献的最优秀、最勇敢的栋梁之才牺牲；意味着数百万妇女儿童惨遭杀害，饥饿而死；意味着本世纪的接下来的25年世界将陷入穷困。这极可能是旷日持久的战争。几个月后，勇敢的波兰人民也许就会遭人蹂躏。但无论是英法方面，还是德国方面看来都没有绝对的优势可以尽快结束这场战争。波兰的命运将取决于这场漫长的消耗战的结束。英国和法国牢固的空中防御，强大的海上力量，充裕的人力物力和不屈不挠的精神，确保了他们自卫的能力。但同时，双方庞大的战机队，也给战争带来新的、不确定的因素。当然战争的胜负不仅仅取决于空中的力量。虽然双方都保证绝不将炸弹投向妇女和儿童，然而一旦双方都毫无顾忌时，可怕的日子将随之而来。这将会是一场我们所知道的最残忍的战争。

美国的企业在全世界同样占有重要的地位，如著名的微软公司，它技术先进，在世界软件领域中占据主要地位。而“可口可乐”、“沃尔玛”、“耐克”和“通用汽车”等企业同样享有盛名。

1. "Software Empire"—Microsoft Corporation “软件帝国”——微软公司

● Microsoft Corporation 微软公司

Microsoft is the world leader in the PC software developed by Bill Gates and Paul Allen founded in 1975. Its headquarter locates in Redmond, Washington (near Seattle). 微软公司是世界PC机软件开发的先导，由比尔·盖茨与保罗·艾伦创始于1975年，总部设在华盛顿州的雷德蒙市（邻近西雅图）。目前是全球最大的电脑软件提供商。其主要产品为Windows操作系统、Internet Explorer网页浏览器及Microsoft Office办公软件套件。微软在1999年推出了MSN Messenger网络即时信息客户程序，2001年推出Xbox游戏机，参与游戏终端机市场竞争。微软公司于1992年在中国北京设立了首个代表处，此后，微软在中国相继成立了微软中国研究开发中心、微软全球技术支持中心和微软亚洲研究院等科研、产品开发与技术支持服务机构。如今微软在华的员工总数有900多人，形成以北京为总部、在上海、广州、武汉设有分公司的架构，微软中国成为微软公司在美国总部以外功能最为完备的子公司。

● Introduction of Bill Gates 比尔·盖茨生平

Born on Oct. 28, 1955, Gates grew up in Seattle with his two sisters. Their father, William Gates II, is a Seattle attorney. Their mother, Mary Gates, was a schoolteacher regent of University of Washington, and chairwoman of United Way International.

Gates attended public elementary school and then the private Lakeside School. There, he discovered his interest in software and began programming at age 13.

In 1973, Gates entered Harvard University as a freshman, where he make a good relationship with Steve Ballmer, who is Microsoft's chief executive officer. While at Harvard, Gates developed a version of the programming language BASIC for the first microcomputer - the MITS Altair.

比尔·盖茨

In his junior year, Gates left Harvard to devote his energies to Microsoft, a company he had begun in 1975 with his childhood friend Paul Allen. Guided by a belief that the computer would be a valuable tool on every office desktop and in every home, they began developing software for personal computers. Gates' foresight and his vision for personal computing have been central to the success of Microsoft and the software industry.

Under Gates' leadership, Microsoft's mission has been to continually advance and improve software technology, and to make it easier, more cost-effective and more enjoyable for people to use computers. The company is committed to a long-term view, reflected in its investment of approximately $6.2 billion on research and development in the 2005.

In 1999, Gates wrote Business @ the Speed of Thought, a book that shows how computer technology can solve business problems in fundamentally new ways. The book was published in 25 languages and was issued in more than 60 countries. Business @ the Speed of Thought has received wide praise, and was listed on the best-seller lists of the New York Times, USA Today, the Wall Street Journal and Amazon.com. Gates' previous book, The Road Ahead, published in 1995, held the No. 1 spot on the New York Times bestseller list for seven weeks.

Gates has donated the proceeds of both books to nonprofit organizations that support the use of technology in education and skills development.

In addition to his love of computers and software, Gates founded Corbis, which is developing one of the world's largest resources of visual information - a comprehensive digital archive of art and photography from public and private collections around the globe.

Philanthropy is also important to Gates. He and his wife, Melinda, have endowed a foundation with more than $28.8 billion (as of January 2005) to support philanthropic initiatives in the areas of global health and education, with the hope that in the 21st century, advances in these critical areas will be available for all people. The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has committed more than $3.6 billion to organizations working in global health; more than $2 billion to improve learning opportunities, including the Gates Library Initiative to bring computers, Internet Access and training to public libraries in low-income communities in the United States and Canada; more than $477 million to community projects in the Pacific Northwest; and more than $488 million to special projects and annual giving campaigns.

盖茨就读于公立初中，然后又到了私立湖边学校，他在那里发现了自己对软件感兴趣并且从13岁开始进行计算机编程。

1973年，盖茨进入哈佛大学读书，他和史蒂文·鲍尔成为好朋友，现在，史蒂文在微软担任首席执行官。在哈佛，他为第一台微型计算机——麻省理工的Altair开发了BASIC编程语言的第一个版本。

大学三年级的时候，盖茨离开哈佛投身于他与幼时好友保罗·艾伦于1975年一起创建的微软。抱着计算机应该成为每一个办公室和每一个家庭的有用工具的信念，他开始为个人计算机（PC）开发软件。盖茨对PC的远见和见解已经成为微软和软件业成功的核心。

在盖茨的领导下，微软的使命已经成为不断的提高和改进软件技术，让用户使用计算机更加容易，更加高效，给人更多的享受。公司着眼于长期的发展，2005年公司用于研发方面的投资大约62亿美元。

1999年，盖茨写了本名为《未来时速》的书，这。《未来时速》受到了广泛的赞誉，并且被《纽约时报》、《今日美国》、《华尔街日报》和美国亚马逊列为畅销书。此前盖茨1995年出版了《未来之路》，销量在《纽约时报》连续7周排第一位。

比尔·盖茨

盖茨把两本书的收益全部捐赠给了公益组织，支持在教育和技能拓展中使用技术。

除了热爱计算机和软件，盖茨对他的Corbis公司也很钟爱。Corbis公司正在开发世界上最大的可视化信息资源——来自全球各地的公共收藏和私人收藏的艺术品和照片的综合数字档案。

盖茨也热心于慈善事业。他和他的妻子梅林达创立了一个基金会，截止到2005年1月已经捐资超过288亿美元，以支持全球的健康和教育事业，期望能够在21世纪，让所有的人都能够从这两个关键领域的改善中受益。盖茨夫妇基金会已经捐赠给全球健康事业超过36亿美元；捐赠超过20亿美元用于改善学习机会，其中包括为盖茨图书馆购置电脑，为美国和加拿大的低收入区的公共图书馆提供因特网接入和培训；将超过4.77亿美元用于西北太平洋地区的社区建项目；将超过4.88亿美元用于

特定的项目和每年的活动上。

● Bill Gates's Motto 比尔·盖茨名言

1. Life is not fair, get used to it.
 2. The world won't care about your self-esteem. The world will expect you to accomplish something before you feel good about yourself.
 3. You will not make 40 thousand dollars a year right out of high school. You won't be a vice president with a car phone, until you earn both.
 4. If you think your teacher is tough, wait till you get a boss. He doesn't have tenure.
 5. Flipping burgers is not beneath your dignity. Your grandparents had a different word for burgerflipping; they called it opportunity.
 6. If you mess up, it's not your parents' fault, so don't whine about our mistakes, learn from them.
 7. Before you were born, your parents weren't as boring as they are now. They got that way from paying your bills, cleaning your clothes and listening to you talk about how cool you are. So before you save the rain forest from the parasites of your parents generation, try "delousing" the closet in your own room.
 8. Your school may have done away with winners and losers, but life has not. In some schools they have abolished failing grades; they'll give you as many times as you want to get the right answer. This doesn't bear the slightest resemblance to anything in real life.
 9. Life is not divided into semesters. You don't get summers off and very few employers are interested in helping you find yourself. Do that on your own time.
 10. Television is NOT real life. In real life people actually have to leave the coffee shop and go to jobs.
1. 生活是不公平的；你要去适应它。
 2. 这世界并不会在意你的自尊。这世界指望你在自我感觉良好之前先要有所成就。
 3. 高中刚毕业你不会一年挣4万美元。你不会成为一个公司的副总裁，并拥有一部装有电话的汽车，直到你将此职位和汽车电话都挣到手。
 4. 如果你认为你的老师严厉，等你有了老板再这样想。老板可是没有任期限制的。
 5. 烙牛肉饼并不有损你的尊严。你的祖父母对烙牛肉饼可有不同的定义；他们称它为机遇。
 6. 如果你陷入困境，那不是你父母的过错，所以不要尖声抱怨我们的错误，要从中吸取教训。
 7. 在你出生之前，你的父母并非像他们现在这样乏味。他们变成今天这个样子是因为这些年来他们一直在为你付账单，给你洗衣服，听你大谈你是如何的酷。所以，如果你想消灭你父母那一辈中的“寄生虫”来拯救雨林的话，还是先去清除你房间衣柜里的虫子吧。
 8. 你的学校也许已经不再分优生和劣等生，但生活却仍在作出类似区分。在某些学校已经废除不及格分；只要你想找到正确答案，学校就会给你无数的机会。这和现实生活中的任何事情没有一点相似之处。
 9. 生活不分学期。你并没有暑假可以休息，也没有几位雇主乐于帮你发现自我。自己找时间做吧。
 10. 电视并不是真实的生活。在现实生活中，人们实际上得离开咖啡屋去干自己的工作。

2. "Century-old Shops"—Coca Cola “百年老店”——可口可乐

● History 历史回顾

可口可乐

Coca-Cola was born in Atlanta, Georgia, USA on May 8, 1886. A local pharmacist, Dr John Styth Pemberton invented the drink at his home. His partner first used the now famous trademark “Coca-Cola.” The first year, sales averaged 9 drinks per day. Each drink sold for 5 cents. Today billions of gallons are consumed each year. “Coke” for short, is sold in 155 countries around the world. To protect the trade name, “Coca-Cola, Coke,” and the “familiar shaped bottle” are registered trademarks.

● Coke for the World 行销全球的可乐

The Coca-Cola Company offers more than 500 brands in over 200 countries, besides its namesake Coca-Cola beverage.

Tab was Coca-Cola's first attempt to develop—a diet soft drink, using saccharin as a sugar substitute. Introduced in 1963, the product is still sold today, although its sales have dwindled since the development of Diet Coke.

The Coca-Cola Company also produces a number of other soft drinks including Fanta (introduced circa 1941) and Sprite. Fanta's origins date back to World War II when Max Keith, who managed Coca-Cola's operations in Germany during the war, wanted to make money from Nazi Germany but did not want the negative publicity. Keith resorted to producing a different soft drink, Fanta, which proved to be a hit, and when Coke took over again after the war, it adopted the Fanta brand as well.

During the 1990s, the company responded to the growing consumer interest in healthy beverages by introducing several new non-carbonated beverage brands. These included Minute Maid Juices to Go, Powerade sports beverage. In 2001, Minute Maid division launched the Simply Orange brand of juices including orange juice.

In 2004, perhaps in response to the burgeoning popularity of low-carbohydrate diets such as the Atkins Diet, Coca-Cola announced its intention to develop and sell a low-carbohydrate alternative to Coke Classic, dubbed C2 Cola. C2 contains a mix of high fructose corn syrup, aspartame, sucralose, and Acesulfame potassium. C2 is designed to more closely emulate the taste of Coca-Cola Classic. Even with less than half of the food energy and carbohydrates of standard soft drinks, C2 is not a replacement for zero-calorie soft drinks such as Diet Coke. C2 went on sale in the U.S. on June 11, 2004, and in Canada in August 2004. C2's future is uncertain due to disappointing sales.

Coca-Cola is the best-selling soft drink in most countries, and was recognized as the number one global brand in 2010. Coca-Cola nonetheless holds almost 25% market share and had double-digit growth in 2003. In Japan, the best selling soft drink is not cola, as (canned) tea and coffee are more popular. As such, the Coca-Cola Company's best selling brand there is not Coca-Cola.

The company announced a new "negative calorie" green tea drink, Enviga. On May 25, 2007, Coca-Cola announced it would purchase Glaceau, a maker of flavored vitamin-enhanced drinks (vitamin water), flavored waters, and Burn energy drinks, for $4.1 billion in cash.

On September 3, 2008, Coca-Cola announced its intention to make cash offers to purchase China Huiyuan Juice Group Limited (which has a 42% share of the Chinese pure fruit juice market) for US$2.4bn (HK$12.20 per share). China's ministry of commerce blocked the deal on March 18, 2009, arguing that the deal would hurt small local juice companies, could have pushed up juice market prices and limited consumers' choices.

Cola-Cola operates a soft drink themed tourist attraction in downtown Atlanta, Ga; the “World of Coca-Cola” is a multi-storied exhibition of the many flavors sold by the company as well as a museum to the history of the company.

可口可乐公司在全球200多个国家中，拥有除了其同名的可口可乐饮料外的500多个品牌。

可乐是可口可乐公司的第一次尝试生产——软饮料，使用糖精作为糖的代用品。至今该产品依然还在销售，虽然它的销售量自健怡可乐出现后，已经有所减少。

可口可乐公司也生产其他软饮料，其中包括芬达和雪碧。芬达的起源可以追溯到二战时的基思，它在战争期间在德国开展业务，想从纳粹德国获得市场活力，但不希望造成负面的效应。基思是使用不同材料生产的软饮料，这证明是一个创举，当可口可乐在战争结束后占领了德国的汽水市场后，将品牌名字改为芬达。

在20世纪90年代，该公司通过引入一些新的非碳酸饮料品牌以回应消费者越来越关心健康的问题。这些包含美汁源果汁，动乐运动饮料等。2001年，美汁源公司推出了单一的橙色品牌果汁，其中包括橙汁。

2004年，也许是为了回应新兴流行的潮流，如低碳水化合物饮料。可口可乐宣布开发和销售低碳水化合物饮料替代传统的可口可乐，称为C2可乐。其成分含有高果糖玉米糖浆、甜味剂、蔗糖和安赛蜜。其目的是更好地模仿经典可口可乐的味道。C2可乐于2004年6月11日在美国开始销售，并于八月在加拿大销售。但由于令人失望的销售业绩，C2可乐的未来令人堪忧。

可口可乐在大多数国家都是畅销的饮料品牌，它在2010年被公认为全球第一品牌。可口可乐，持有近25%的市场份额，2003年拥有两位数的增长。在日本，最畅销的软饮料不是可乐，作为（罐头）茶和咖啡更受欢迎。因此，可口可乐公司最畅销的品牌并不是可口可乐。

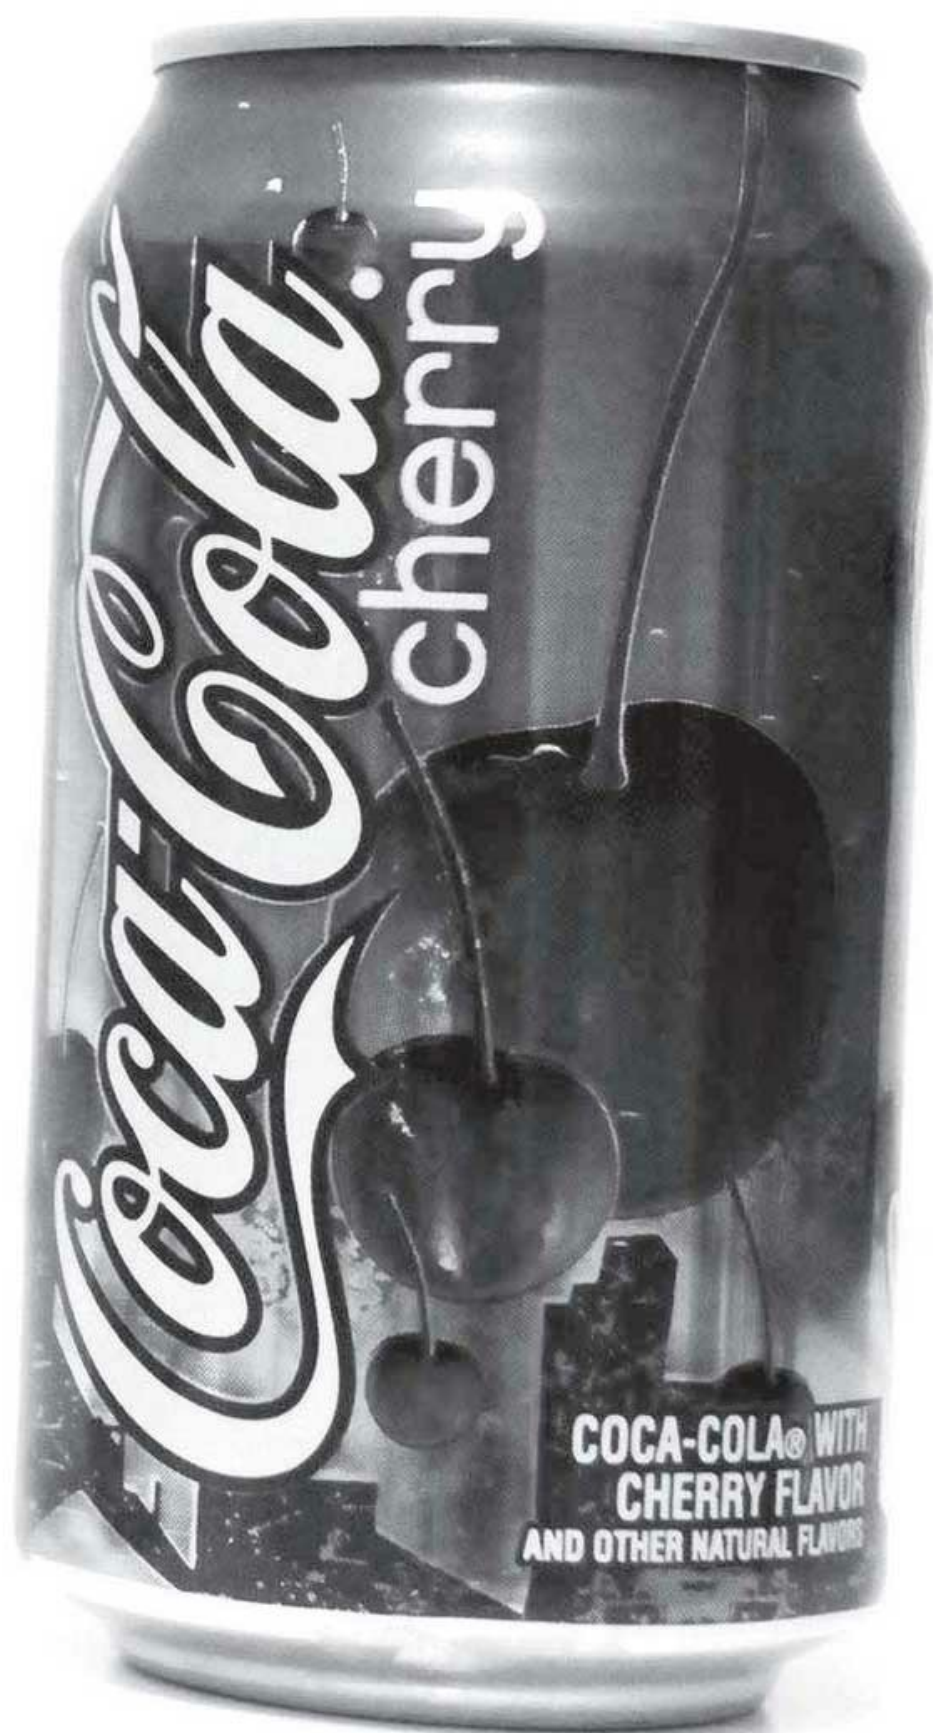

该公司宣布了一项新的“负热量的”绿色茶饮料，恩维加。2007年5月25日，可口可乐宣布将以41亿美元的价格购买格拉西奥公司，该公司是维生素增强型（维生素）的调味饮料、加味饮料和运动功能饮料的生产商。

2008年9月3日，可口可乐宣布以24亿美元价格并购中国汇源果汁集团有限公司（拥有42%股份的中国纯果汁市场）。中国商务部否决了2009年3月18日的交易，认为该交易将损害当地的小公司的利益，可能会影响果汁市场价格和消费者的选择。

可口可乐在佐治亚州，亚特兰大的市中心有一个软饮料为主题的旅游景点；“世界的可口可乐”是一个多层展览历史博物馆。

● Today's Nike 今天的耐克

Today, Nike's production and business activities, spread all over the world on six continents, the total number of employees reached 22,000, with the company's suppliers, shippers, retailers and other service personnel, close to 100 million people. Nike has been around the world will inspire every athlete and offer the best products as its glorious task. Nike's language is the language of movement. Many years later, the company has committed to create every opportunity to show themselves. Nike knows: Only the use of advanced technology to produce the best products. So all along, Nike put a lot of manpower and material resources for the New Products development and research. Nike's first Air technology to the sports world has brought a revolution. The use of this technology to produce shoes can well protect the athlete's body, especially the ankle and knee, to prevent its movement as violent sprain, reducing the impact on knees and wear. Using air cushion technology, once introduced to the shoes popular. Ordinary consumers and professional athletes love it. In 2001, the Nike Air technology in the developed and then introduced a new type called Shox cushioning technology. Produced using this technology of sports shoes is also popular, sales skyrocketed. In addition to other sports shoes, Nike clothing is lack of innovation. For example: use of FIT technology to produce high-performance textiles can effectively help athletes in any weather conditions for training and competition. Nike and other sporting goods manufacturing, such as: watches, glasses, etc. are all hightech crystal.

如今，耐克公司生产经营活动遍布全球六大洲，其员工总数达到了22,000人，与公司合作的供应商、托运商、零售商以及其他服务人员接近100万人。耐克公司一直将激励全世界的每一位运动员

● Nike SWOT Analysis 耐克SWOT 分析

Strengths.

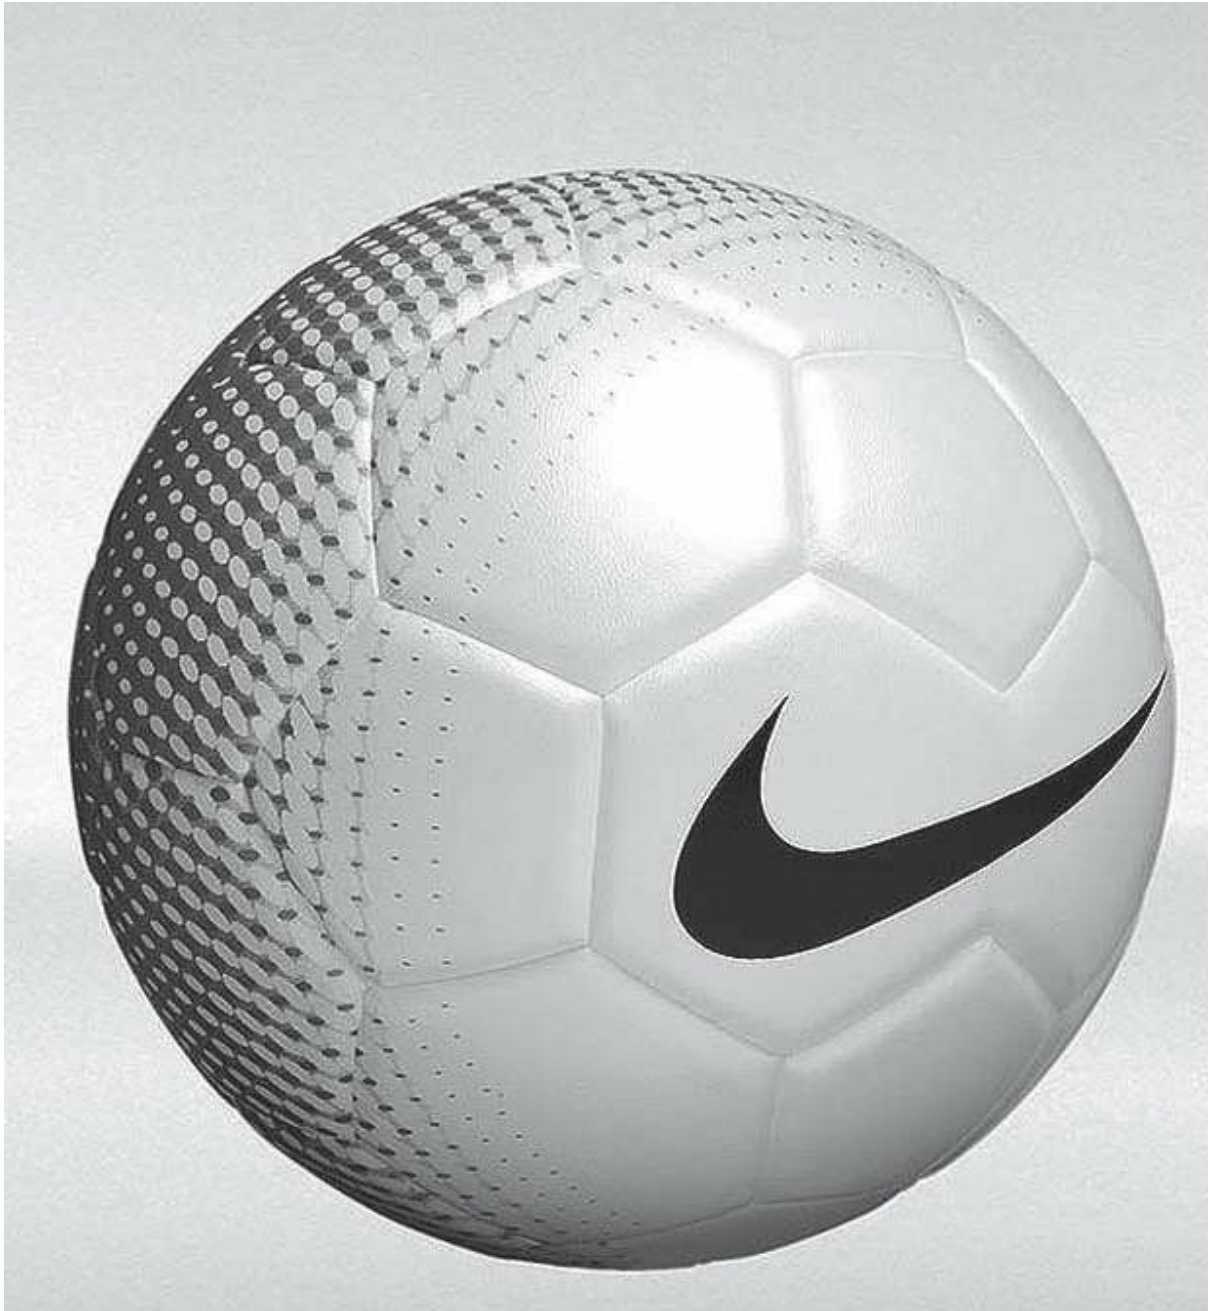

Nike is a very competitive organization. Phil Knight (Founder and CEO) is often quoted as saying that , Business is war without bullets., Nike has a healthy dislike of its competitors. At the Atlanta Olympics, Reebok went to the expense of sponsoring the games. Nike did not. However Nike sponsored the top athletes and gained valuable coverage.

Nike has no factories. It does not tie up cash in buildings and manufacturing workers. This makes a very lean organization. Nike is strong at research and development, as is evidenced by its evolving and innovative product range. They then manufacture wherever they can produce high quality product at the lowest possible price. If prices rise, and products can be made more cheaply elsewhere (to the same or better specification), Nike will move production.

Nike is a global brand. It is the number one sports brand in the World. Its famous , Swoosh, is instantly recognisable, and Phil Knight even has it tattooed on his ankle.

Weaknesses.

The organization does have a diversified range of sports products. However, the income of the business is still heavily dependent upon its share of the footwear market. This may leave it vulnerable if for any reason its market share erodes.

耐克足球

The retail sector is very sensitive to price. Nike does have its own retailer in Nike Town. However, most of its income is derived from selling into retailers. Retailers tend to offer a very similar experience to the consumer. Can you tell one sports retailer from another? So margins tend to get squeezed as retailers try to pass some of the low price competition pressure onto Nike.

Opportunities.

Product development offers Nike many opportunities. The brand is fiercely defended by its owners whom truly believe that Nike is not a fashion brand. However, like it or not, consumers that wear Nike product do not always buy it to participate in sport. Some would argue that in youth culture especially, Nike is a fashion brand. This creates its own opportunities, since product could become unfashionable before it wears out, it means consumers need to replace shoes.

There is also the opportunity to develop products such as sport wear, sunglasses and jewellery. Such high value items do tend to have associated with them, high profits.

The business could also be developed internationally, building upon its strong global brand recognition. There are many markets that have the disposable income to spend on high value sports goods. For example, emerging markets such as China and India have a new richer generation of consumers. There are also global marketing events that can be utilised to support the brand such as the World Cup (soccer) and The Olympics.

Threats.

Nike is exposed to the international trade. It buys and sells in different currencies and so costs and margins are not stable over long periods of time. Such an exposure could mean that Nike may be manufacturing and/or selling at a loss. This is an issue that faces all global brands.

The market for sports shoes and garments is very competitive. The model developed by Phil Knight in his Stamford Business School days (high value branded product manufactured at a low cost) is now commonly used and to an extent is no longer a basis for sustainable competitive advantage. Competitors are developing alternative brands to take away Nike's market share.

As discussed above in weaknesses, the retail sector is becoming price competitive. This ultimately means that consumers are shopping around for a better deal. So if one store charges a price for a pair of sports shoes, the consumer could go to the store along the street to compare prices for the exactly the same item, and buy the cheaper of the two. Such consumer price sensitivity is a potential external threat to Nike.

耐克是一家极具竞争力的公司。耐克公司创建者和CEO菲尔·耐特最常提及的一句话便是“商场如战场”。耐克公司不会敌视它的竞争对手。亚特兰大奥运会时，锐步公司是奥运会的赞助商，而耐克公司并不是。然而，耐克公司赞助了顶级的运动员，并得到了有价值的报导。

耐克公司没有自己的工厂。它不会为厂房和工人们所束缚，这使耐克得以成为一个精简的组织。耐克公司的优势在于研发，这一点可以从它不断发展和创新的产品系列可以看出。然后耐克会在任何用可能的最低成本生产高质量产品的地方进行外包生产。如果当地生产成本上升了，而其他地区生产更为便宜（相对于同样或更好的产品规格），耐克就会转移到那里外包生产。

耐克是一个全球品牌，它是世界上排行第一的运动品牌。耐克的著名标志“Swoosh”一经问世，迅速为世人所知，菲尔·耐特甚至把它纹在脚踝处。

耐克公司的运动产品范围广泛、多样。然而，公司的收入仍然主要依赖于它在鞋类市场的份额。如果为任何原因鞋类的市场份额萎缩，会使其受到很大影响。

耐克鞋

零售部门对价格非常敏感。耐克公司在Nike Town里有它自己的零售商。然而，耐克的主要收入源于向其他零售商提供产品。零售商们趋向于向顾客提供非常相似的经历体会。你能区别出不同的零售商吗？所以，当零售商们设法将一部分低价竞争压力转嫁给耐克公司时，公司的利润就会遭受挤压。

机会：

产品的不断研发给耐克公司带来了许多机会。耐克品牌有很多坚定的拥护者，他们坚信耐克不是一个流行品牌。然而，无论喜不喜欢，那些使用耐克产品的消费者并不总是购买该产品参加体育运动。另一些人会持反对观点，他们认为尤其是在年轻人的观点中，耐克是一个流行品牌。这本身就是一种机会，因为鞋子在穿坏之前就会变得不流行了，这也就意味着消费者需要换新鞋。

开发运动服装、太阳镜和珠宝等新产品，对耐克公司来说，也是一种机会。这种高价物品和高利润直接相关。

由于耐克全球品牌的高度认知，耐克公司的业务得以在国际间开拓。这里存在着市场空间，高收入人群可以任意消费高价体育商品。例如，中国和印度等国出现了新一代富有消费者的市场。此外还可以利用全球销售事件来支持品牌，比如足球世界杯和奥运会等。

耐克公司受困于国际贸易。它用不同的货币购买和销售产品，因此成本和利润不能保持长期稳定。这种影响意味着耐克公司也许会亏本生产和（或）销售。这是所有全球品牌都面临的问题。

体育用鞋和体育服装的市场竞争非常激烈。菲尔·耐特在斯坦福商学院时所创立的模式现在正被广泛应用，而且这个模式已经不再是可持续性竞争优势的基础了。竞争对手们正在创建可替代的名牌来夺走耐克的市场份额。

为划算的交易。所以，如果一家商店对一双运动鞋作出标价，消费者会沿街去另一家商店比较同一双鞋的价格，然后选择其一购买。这种消费者价格敏感性成为耐克公司的一个外部潜在威胁。
